MANDEVILLE COLLEGE.

THE reiterated requirements of many parents who have their sons in the Orleans High School, together with the following reasons, induce the undersigned to remove the above establishment to still more under the name of David Flood in the town of Mandeville.

The reasons are:

1st—The uninterrupted salubrity of Mandeville.

2nd—The great disadvantages under which boarding pupils labor in the city from their connexions with their families.

3rd—The well known advantages which the country possesses over the city for the location of an institution of learning.

The undersigned believes that these reasons require no further explanation to show the propriety of this step. He will repeat for themselves to all persons who are acquainted with mine; scenery, and who know how often the labourers, even of the most conscientious teachers, are thwarted, when compelled, by his position to admit into his recreation rooms visitors, whose presence and frequently irregular use under the most unfavourable circumstances. Those persons the undersigned has frequently expressed to many of the patrons of the High School, which he had the honor to receive in contemplation.

The following officers of the College are:

LEWIS ELKIN, Professor of Mathematics, Principal and Proprietor.

Dr. DUNCAN MACAULY, Professor of Latin, Greek and English.

J. G. POIRIER, late from Lyons and Juilly Colleges, Professor of Latin, Greek and French.

FELIX FERRIN, late from Paris, Professor of French.

BARON GOBA, Teacher of Music and Drawing.

The Boarding Establishment is under the charge of Mrs MACAULEY.

Knowing the importance of a well selected body of Professors, to secure the success of his enterprise, the undersigned, after careful and deliberate reflection, made the choice of the above named gentlemen. He begs the attention and the public in general, to extend the confidence with which they have honored him in regard to the High School.

Where they not fully worthy of it. In a moral as well as literary point of view, and the undersigned would allow him to demand it.

With these few remarks, I offer Mandeville College to the kind consideration of enlightened parents.

LEWIS ELKIN.
