FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD—Runaway, since the 5th April last, from the plantation of the undersigned, in Plaquemine parish, opposite New Orleans, the negro DICK, about 25 years of age, about twenty-five years, about 5 feet 10 inches (English measure) well built and a handsome boy—has a large mouth, and white teeth; has also a scar on his face, has no beard, and is of a dark brown color. This mulatto speaks and writes English, French and Spanish. He is a good ship caulker and will probably seek employment in his business.

ALSO—The negro JEAN BAPTISTE, aged about twenty-five years, 6 feet 2 inches in height, (English measure) Jean Baptiste is a creole negro, speaking the English indifferently. He is of a weak constitution, thin face, bright eyes, and has a small beard nearly grey.

These two negroes were seen yesterday on the Canal Verret, near the plantation of the undersigned.

The whole reward will be paid to the person who will lodge them in one of the jails of this city—or one-half for the apprehension of either of them.

DYEING AND SCOURING IN GENERAL.

NOTICE.—Messrs MONDELET & Co, have the honor to inform the public that on the 1st June next, they will open the Store No 11 Chartres street, opposite the Orleans Hotel, A DYEING AND SCOURING Establishment.

The knowledge they have acquired of this art, by many years labor in the first houses in Paris, and by a diligent study of all improvements applied in dying, leaves no doubt that the Establish will be fait in executing to them the most valuable articles entrusted for dying or scouring, convinced as they are that such articles will be as carefully and properly attended to as at Paris. Those who may honor them with their confidence will be convinced of their skill in the neatness and elegance of their work, and by the dispatch imparted in it.

They dye and scour all kinds of articles, such as silk, merinos, mousseline laines, cashmeres, crapes; tull ss, ralls, Algerine and Swiss shawls, feathers, velvets, carpets, church ornaments, ball and theatrical costumes silk and thread gloves, silk stockings; they clean silk dresses without unripping the seams, and by a peculiar process they bleach cashes, jaconets and print dresses, giving it the appearance of new materials. They clean and dye kid gloves, all kinds of feathers, gentlemen's clothing without unripping the seams, and giving them the look of new articles. They dye clothing black for mourning in twenty-four hours, and warrant the durability of the colors. They likewise re-dye black stuff, giving them various colors.

Terms moderate.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE.

A JURY having decided, after full discussion, that the act of 1834 "to prevent gambling," is a violation of the act of 1836 "to prevent gambling," I do hereby notify all persons keeping those tables forthwith to desist, otherwise they will be prosecuted to the utmost penalties of the law. I give this notice in consequence of some of those tables being kept under the sanction of such decision.

AT THE PINE GREEN OAKS OF BILOXI.

NOTICE is hereby given to persons of passing the SUMMER IN THE OPEN AIR, that the country houses of Madame PRADAT will be opened to the public from and after the 1st June next.

The splendid establishment which is maintained at great cost and with extreme care, offers every source of amusement which is vainly sought for elsewhere. Cool apartments in charming gardens, a variety of games, abundant fishing, delicious promenades, a choice table and faithful and attentive servants.

A bar, copiously supplied with the choicest wines and liquors, has been established in the grounds, and an excellent billiard room has been added to the various pleasures which are prefered as guests.

For the convenience of travellers, Madame Pradat has had appropriate hacks constructed which enables steamboats to land passengers at all hours.

Madame Pradat flatters herself that her constant efforts to please the public, will ensure her a continuance of the patronage heretofore extended to her.

☞ Terms will be moderate.
