VICTORY!!

Although incomplete, the whigs of New Orleans have triumphed handsomely. But for the outrages, noticed elsewhere, the vote yesterday would have been overwhelming. The whigs would have elected every member of their ticket by tremendous majorities. Had the elections proceeded legally in any one of the wards in which it was disturbed, every whig would have been returned. As it is, a majority of our legislative ticket is elected and nearly the whole of the Convention candidates.—Be of good cheer, whigs of the Union, Louisiana will do her duty in November.

A FARCE—A BROAD FARCE.

One of those exhibitions, called elsewhere elections, took place in the city yesterday, which would afford food for mirth did not the rights of the people, unrebuked ignominiously, invoke a more serious consideration of it. To the enormities of free government, the scenes which transpired at several of the polls, furnish comfort and cause of exultation, but to a friend of liberal institutions, and one devoted to the constitution and the laws, they were tokens of an abatement in the patronage, not to say contempt of American citizens, the most melancholy illustrations could be presented. The rights of legal voters—acknowledged and known to be such by the judges of elections, as well as the whole community, were trampled upon and spurned with an indifference and audacity utterly amazing.

The whig judges of the elections, without exception, determined to reject the votes predicated upon the fraudulent naturalization tickets, issued by judge ELLIOTT, who was impeached and turned out of office for his corruption in making them. Because these foreigners were refused a vote for good causes, the locofoco judges in several of the whig wards closed the polls, or absolutely refused to permit old citizens, known to the whole community as legal voters and admitted by the judges themselves to be so, to exercise the privilege of freemen.

In the Second Ward of the First Municipality, not one vote was taken. One of the oldest and most respectable citizens of New Orleans presented himself to the judges, and in the most unequivocal terms the inspectors, and in the most unequivocal terms the manifestation of the outrage, will come out from amongst those who either aid or consent to such proceedings, or abhor such proceedings or abhorrence of them.

☞ The steamship Neptune, Capt. Parkerson, will leave for New Orleans on Wednesday, 10 inst. at 12 o'clock P M. We commend those intending to travel in those regions to take a passage on board where they will meet with the utmost attention and comfort.

DIFFERENCE OF LOCOFOCO OPINION WHILE AT MASS AND AT HOME.—Among the many amusing developments of the new regime in the late primary contest in this city, one in particular is worthy of more than passing interest. Personal spite engendered by the distribution of loaves and fishes, the entire monopolization of the spoils of victory by one portion of the party, and the consequent unsatisfied appetites of the disappointed, have caused Capt. Custis Washington, of the U. S. Navy, assisted by Lieut. Lewis, Capt. and Lieut. have just completed a work of great importance to the navy, and which ought not to be absent.

It is too late at night to dwell upon the numerous instances of trifling with the people, through the days, insults and wrongs, which they bore with astonishing forbearance—with such patience indeed as to be remarked upon by strangers as quite too exemplary, and which we would not be surprised to see entirely exhausted whenever the like practices are attempted again.

But for these miserable artifices and expensive outrages, the whigs would have obtained a triumph such as would rejoice the heart of every good whig throughout the Union. As it is, we have elected nearly the whole or both of our tickets—an achievement, which may be considered a great victory, under the circumstances. As indicative of the vote at the Presidential election, it promises a complete and glorious triumph at the ballot box. Our friends in other States will find in the fidelity of Louisiana no longer. She will be found steadfast when most needed, and will assist in the fate of victory as it rolls in sublimity over the Union.

Elected.

"We repeat the suggestion which we have heretofore made to our democratic brethren of the press, that in no way can they do a better service to the cause than by holding up to public view the political career of the chosen candidate of the whigs for the Presidential office —and particularly the facts connected with his remarkable bargain and alliance with Mr. ADAMS, in '25—they will find all the essential facts presented in a clear and concise manner in the address of the Pittsburgh Committee—and we trust that they will lose no time in giving it wing. Now is the time to sow the good seed, if we would reap the harvest in November."

This is the system of electioneering advised by the Albany Argus, the organ of the Regency, the mouthpiece of the locofoco managers in New York. Drop discussion, be silent upon principles, smother up your politics, keep dark upon national questions, but malign, blackguard, slander and traduce Mr. CLAY. These are the orders of the locofoco wire-pullers of New York; and right promptly will they be obeyed by too many of their party. The remarkable shuffling of the House of Representatives on the Tariff question, at the last session of Congress, the ignoble incompetency of a party having nearly two-thirds majority in that body, to devise any law, or concoct any plan of amending the whig tariff, which was denounced by them, from Maine to the Gulf of Mexico, as a bill of abominations, clearly shows that they have no principle of general policy upon which to rally. Hence they are advised to make slander the basis of their operations, with here and there such skirmishing upon public questions as suits the localities of combatants. Texas and immediate annexation in the South, judicious tariff in the West, protection upon iron in Pennsylvania, wool in New York, sugar in this State, salt in that, manufactures in others, and abuse of Mr. CLAY in all. What a programme of procedure! what a plan of operation! what a schedule of the questions of war!

Mr. POLK, it would seem, has got as large a dose of lottery as he can well bear, already. Young Hickory is forgotten—the little coppling, which overshadowed "Hickory" about as much as a fly-up-the-creek does the eagle, is no more to be feared and watered and manured to force it into unnatural proportions; but the axe is to a field to the oak, the storm defying pride of the forrest, be whig free of the wilderness.
