THE LONDON TIMES

Monday, May 24, 1841

FOREIGN PORTS

For England.

FOR LIVERPOOL—The fine A 1 copper-fastened ship ORLEANS, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR LIVERPOOL—The fine A 1 copper-fastened ship ARGENTINA, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR LIVERPOOL—The fine A 1 copper-fastened ship MARATHON, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR LIVERPOOL—The A 1 copper-fastened ship ORANGE, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR LIVERPOOL—The fine A 1 copper-fastened ship ARGENTINA, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR LIVERPOOL—The fine A 1 copper-fastened ship MARATHON, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR LIVERPOOL—The A 1 copper-fastened ship ORANGE, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR LIVERPOOL—The fine A 1 copper-fastened ship ARGENTINA, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR LIVERPOOL—The fine A 1 copper-fastened ship MARATHON, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR LIVERPOOL—The A 1 copper-fastened ship ORANGE, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

For France.

FOR HAVRE—The A 1 copper-fastened ship HANSA, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR HAVRE—The A 1 copper-fastened ship HANSA, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR HAVRE—The A 1 copper-fastened ship HANSA, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR HAVRE—The A 1 copper-fastened ship HANSA, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR HAVRE—The A 1 copper-fastened ship HANSA, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

FOR HAVRE—The A 1 copper-fastened ship HANSA, 500 tons burthen, Capt. Nye, will be ready for the reception of cargo on the 1st of June, and will sail positively on the 10th. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply to the captain on board, at the foot of Wall-street, East River, or to

TO LET

BATHS, BATHS.

LETTERS

DRY GOODS