TUESDAY MORNING AUGUST 6, 1844.

CLAY CLUB.

A meeting of the Clay Club will be held at the Club Room on to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, to appoint delegates to the Mass Convention to be held at Nashville on the 21st inst.
The whigs generally are requested to attend.
J. R. VIENNE,
C. C. WILLIAMS. } Secretaries.

CLAY CLUB—NASHVILLE CONVENTION.

The whigs of Orleans are earnestly requested to be present this evening at the meeting of the Clay Club.—The object of the meeting is to appoint delegates to represent Louisiana—why Louisiana—at the Great Mass Convention to be held at Nashville, on the 21st instant. From all accounts that assembly will be the largest and most imposing political gathering ever beheld in the south and south-west. It is fit that Louisiana send a delegation of chosen whigs to mingle with that gallant and devoted band. It is right and proper that she should be represented on the occasion by a portion of the talent and patriotism of the State, and we are happy to announce that one of the ablest and most eloquent of her sons has already accepted the invitation, and will unite with the whigs of Tennessee in their ardent appeals and joyous anticipations of victory. It specially behooves the whig party of the south-west to cheer on and encourage our gallant brethren of Tennessee. They will be called upon at the head of the fierce contest now waging—they have to maintain that lofty reputation won last year amidst trials and discouragements of the most depressing character. They promise us that Tennessee which was the first of the States, to shake off the gloom and apathy which brooded over our ranks, and to ring in our ears the clarion notes of victory, will not be driven from her proud position, either by the seductive influences of State pride, or the extraneous influences which locofocoism essays to thrust into the scales. Let us send a good delegation to Nashville, to give greeting to the indomitable whigs of Tennessee.

MASS CONVENTION IN LOUISIANA.

Our friends of the Tropic put forth a suggestion a day or two since, in which we most heartily concur—it is that the whigs of Louisiana hold a Mass Convention sometime in September, at the town of Baton Rouge. We would suggest the third Monday in September, which is the 16th of the month. Nothing tends more than to arouse and maintain due energy and enthusiasm on a party than those gatherings of the people. When assembled together from every section of the State—they can confer as to their prospects, adopt fitting measures for prompt and complete organization, and take proper steps to ensure a decided and overwhelming triumph. We all remember the stimulating influences of the Baton Rouge Convention of 1840. It re-invigorated the party, taught them their own strength and resources, and was among the most efficient causes of the magnificent victory achieved by the whigs of Louisiana. We trust that he Clay Club will take the subject into immediate consideration, and will appoint a delegation from New Orleans commensurate with the importance of the cause and the strength and respectability of the whig party in the Crescent City. Let us not be behind our brethren in the country in the position! A Whig Mass State Convention in the town of Baton Rouge, on Monday, the 16th September.—Let us have your voices, fellow whigs of the country press!

UNION BANK.

We are happy to learn that arrangements have been completed for the redemption of the $1.75 000 of State bonds issued in favor of the Union Bank and due on the 1st November, proximo. The arrangements were concluded by Messrs. Barings & Brothers, represented by Gov. ROMAN and E. J. FORSTALL, Esq. Our information on this point is positive.

RENUNCIATIONS—OHIO—PENNSYLVANIA.

Ohio is one of the States which locofocoism confidently claims for Polk and Dallas. It forms the apex of the Democratic Pyramid, which the braggarts of the locofoco press exhibit to frighten simple folks—It is certainly of more than Pickens or Rusk, that she voted with the locofocos at a Presidential election since 1832. In 1836 she voted for HARRISON—in 1840 she gave him 25,000 majority. Last year he returned a majority of the whigs to the Legislature, and exhibited a decided whig majority on the popular vote. But what of that. The locos to eke out a majority of Electoral votes for their candidates, must lay claim to Ohio, and they do so with a perfect foreknowledge that they stand no earthly chance of coming within 10,000 votes of a majority. Why the changes to whiggery in that State would alone overcome the feeble majority obtained by Gov. SHANNON in 1842. In one township of Starke county alone, upwards of 130 persons were renounced by POLK and DALLAS. We scarcely open an Ohio paper without finding similar changes recorded. A late number of the Cincinnati Atlas contains a fresh batch.—Names and reasons for the change are given. The latter are too long for insertion, and we must content ourselves with simply chronicling the fact.

In Montgomery county, Horace Whitney writes that he has always been a democrat—he cannot vote for Polk and Dallas. The Editors of this paper have long and freelingly been. He gore for a sound currency and a tariff.

James McDonald and A. Kibbon's follow suit. Their letters are frank, manly and to the purpose.

In Adams county, Messrs. John Clinger, Harrison Maddox and Dr. Wm. Shields renounce locofocoism.

In Clinton county, Thomas Reed and Lorenzo D. Jones declare they cannot stand Texas and Free Trade, but must vote for Clay.

Pennsylvania formed the base of the locofoco pyramid. Now the changes in Pennsylvania are at least as numerous as those in Ohio. We have recorded already a very large number, and we will to-day only add the following. North umberland county has always been a locofoco stronghold.

MAKE WAY FOR PENNSYLVANIA.

The Democratic re, citizens of Northumberland borough and Point township, hereby declare acting with the LOCOFOCO PARTY, and as many of us as were old enough, supporters of Martin Van Buren in 1840, do hereby PUBLICLY RENOUNCE OUR ADHERENCE TO THAT PARTY, and what we consider its destructive policy. We do this, not from any caprice or pique, whim of a moment, but from a settled conviction, that upon the election of CLAY and FRELINGHUYSEN, and the permanent establishment of their great leading measures—the PROTECTIVE TARIFF—depend the welfare and prosperity of the entire Union, and most especially of Pennsylvania. And being convinced by evidence the most unobjectionable, that JAMES K. POLK and the great mass of his party are fiercely and bitterly opposed to the Tariff of 1842, we hereby most fearlessly place ourselves in the line of our brethren in the country in the position! A Whig Mass State Convention on the town of Baton Rouge, on Monday, the 16th September.—Let us have your voices, fellow whigs of the country press!

PERATON OF SOUTH CAROLINA.—What whig bosom (says the Nashville Banner) does not warm at the name of this gallant whig? We rejoice to learn that he will be in Tennessee for some weeks this summer; and, by the subjoined note, that he will be present at the Nashville Convention of the twenty-first of August:

COLUMBIA, (S. C.) July 5, 1844.

Gentlemen: I have had the honor of receiving your invitation to a whig meeting at Nashville, on the 21st of August. If the condition of my health permits me, I propose to myself the happiness of meeting you on that occasion, and I cannot but express the pleasure I feel in the prospect of being able to see the manner in which the whigs of Tennessee will discharge the very peculiar duties which the trick and treachery of the Democratic Convention have imposed upon them.
I am, gentlemen, your obedient servant,
PIERCE M. BUTLER.

THE ELECTION.—One month has passed away since the election and correct returns have been published of all except the vote for Congress in the Fourth District. There seems to be a disposition on the part of the locofoco press to gravitate and conceal the true vote, so much so as to render it extremely difficult to arrive at any correct conclusion. The Picayune, which has, we presume, as great means to procure correct returns as any paper in the State, gives Morse, the locofoco candidate, a majority of 22. If such be the result, (and we do not believe the majority is larger) the Polk feats have succeeded, by fraud, in getting a pitifully meagre majority for their candidate, in a district which last year gave them a majority of five hundred, the official returns of the Republican to the contrary notwithstanding. It may, perhaps, do them some good to publish such gross humbugs as OFFICIAL returns, but we are much at a loss to conceive how.—Alexandria Transcript, 31st July.

THE PENITENTIARY.—We copy the following from the Natchitoches Chronicle:

"We understand that a Mr. Pratt, late lessee of the Kentucky penitentiary, has made a contract with Governor Hunston, for the lease of the Louisiana State Penitentiary at Baton Rouge, as authorized by an act passed at the last session of the Legislature. The act transferres the Governor to grant a lease of the penitentiary for a term of five years, the lessee to give bond in the sum of $40,000 for the faithful performance of his contract. The lessee is to employ all the convicts, and to feed and clothe them, and to pay the State $6 per month for each convict. The lessee is to furnish all the clothing for the convicts, and to keep them in proper and secure confinement. The contract is to commence on the 1st day of October next."

MR. FRELINGHUYSEN—ABOLITIONISM.

The following letter from the Hon. Theodore Frelinghuysen refers to Dr. G. Hall, of Bernardo, Mississippi, with reference the clamors of those who have labored to traduce the character of a great and good man:

NEW YORK, June 11, 1844.

Joseph G. Hall, Esq.
DEAR SIR—I received your kind favor, and thank you for the friendly interest you have taken in this matter.—I very cheerfully respond that I am not an Abolitionist and never have been. I have long been an ardent friend of the Colonization Society, and still am. Slavery, in the States, is a domestic concern, that Congress has not the right or power to interfere with, in its legislation.
Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
THEO. FRELINGHUYSEN.

EXPLOSION.—On Thursday morning, 25th ult., about half past five o'clock, one of the large houses attached to the manufactory of the Messrs. Dupont, on the Brandywine, Delaware, exploded, killing two men who were on the premises at the time. There were about four thousand pounds of powder in the house at the time of the explosion.

NEW DIVING BELL.

French journals mention with just triumph a discovery by Dr. Payerne, which promises to be of vast utility in submarine operations. It is well known that the metal coffers used in the diving bell are very improbable as by means of a forcing pump stationed above water. A constant stream of air is injected through a flexible tube, thus renewing the atmosphere of the interior of the pump, and thereby rendering the pressure one of great expense and unremitting vigilance. Dr. Payerne proposes to do away with this by using a bell of a new construction, in which he proposes his own atmosphere. By a chemical apparatus he absorbs the carbonic acid gas, and produces oxygen and nitrogen in proper proportions to form a respirable mixture. An experiment was lately made in the Seine with the diving bell, which completely succeeded—the interior remaining perfectly clear for fully half an hour without feeling the least inconvenience. It is stated by the scientific journals, that with Dr. Payerne's apparatus a person may remain under water for an indefinite period at the depth of 150 feet; and hopes are confidently entertained of the invention being shortly adopted in the erection of deep water piers, in searching for lost treasures, and in fishing for coral and pearl, and in other submarine operations.
