A MEETING

of the Clay Club will be held at the Club Room, corner of Exchange alley and Customhouse street, on THURSDAY EVENING, the 11th inst. Punctual attendance is requested, as business of vast importance will be transacted. The whigs in general are invited to attend.

H. T. VIENNE,
ALF. ROUSSEAU,
C. C. WILLIAMS, } Secretaries.

WHIG MEETING.

There will be a meeting of the Clay Club of the City of Lafayette and parish of Jefferson, on Wednesday the 11th instant, at 7 o'clock P. M., at Mr. BULLETT'S, Coffee-house, corner of Second and Levee streets, City of Lafayette, for the purpose of electing the officers of the Club. Also, a Mass Meeting of the Whigs of the parish at the Carrollton Hotel, on Saturday evening, the 14th instant, at 5 o'clock, for the purpose of appointing Delegates to the Whig Convention at Baton Rouge. A general attendance as particularly requested.

There is a locofoco representative in Congress from Tennessee, named CAVE JOHNSON—a plausible and somewhat able speaker, who is now stumping it throughout his State, in behalf of MR POLK. In the course of his peregrinations Mr JOHNSON, in accordance with the ignoble and despicable plan of personal warfare adopted by the locofoco party, makes vehement attacks upon the private character of MR CLAY. He is particularly averse upon old HAL OF THE WEST for playing cards. At the late Whig Baltimore Convention, the Hon. W. J. GRAVES, of Kentucky, took up this subject in the Chamber of CAVE JOHNSON a castigation so merciless, that he will be likely to bear it in remembrance to the end of his political career. MR GRAVES stated that JOHNSON had in Congress the reputation of being an inveterate card-player. Whereupon, Gen. DUNN, formerly a member of Congress from the Gallatin district, openly declared that when he and CAVE JOHNSON were in Congress together, JOHNSON spent the whole of three consecutive days in gambling, and lost during the time over five hundred dollars. Gen. DUNN added, that he himself endorsed JOHNSON'S note to bank for the amount, and that the note, on becoming due, was protested for non-payment. Is it not too bad that a sanctimonious hypocrite like JOHNSON should go about traducing MR CLAY, and holding up his hands in effected horror, because the Great Statesman of the West sometimes plays cards, when he himself is convicted on the testimony of most respectable and unimpeachable witnesses of being so notoriously addicted to the vice of gambling as to have played for three consecutive days and nights at Washington, during 1840, getting his note endorsed by an honorable man, and then having it protested for non-payment. A pretty specimen of locofoco integrity and purity is this Master CAVE JOHNSON.

The Louisville Journal mentions another case in point. S. H. LAUGHLIN, the editor of the Nashville Union—MR POLK'S particular organ, is very profuse in his falsehoods against MR CLAY as a gambler. Of course, our readers will not be surprised to learn that this LAUGHLIN, a few years ago, lost a considerable sum by gambling, gave his note, and when it became due deliberately marched into Auditor court pleading the gambling act, and thereby evaded payment. Such is LAUGHLIN a very fit locofoco oracle of morality! Does not a picture on gaming come with peculiar grace, consistency and effect from such an astounding exemplar of probity and ethics!

We have cited these two cases, in the first place to show what is the staple commodity of locofoco argument, and in the next place to demonstrate the high claims to honor, truth and patronism of those who employ such arguments. What can be thought of leaders, think of their open course, or of those who support them, when they thus ransack the vocabulary of vituperation for foul opprobrious epithets to apply to MR CLAY, and leaving all other views untouched, conduct the contest solely by virulent invective and the grossest calumny. What, too, must the rank and file of the party, the honest democracy think, when they read in their presses of nothing under Heaven but the abominable crimes and sins imputed to MR CLAY—they hear no defence of locofoco policy—no explanation of locofoco principles —no temperate and well reasoned analysis of whig doctrines—nothing like an effort to carry on the contest upon broad comprehensive differences of opinion—No! The locofoco orators and writers seek to inflame the vilest and lowest and most degrading passions by their incendiary appeals and their manifold wholesale slanders. And, as we have seen, the men who are most loud and lavish in their objurgations are those connected of the very practices they ascribe to the whig candidate and under circumstances a thousand fold more disgraceful.

It comes to us a matter of absolute certainty, that those among the locofoco party, who are in the habit of reflecting for themselves, and who are upright and honorable, cannot but be ineffably disgusted at this tomahawk warfare. The malignant falsehoods which the Globe and other kindred prints pour forth like water upon the whigs and their champion, must inevitably recoil upon themselves. We have a better opinion of the people of this country than to imagine that they will blindly and ignorantly swallow the contemptible calumnies which locofocoism invents with a view to gull the masses. It is the misfortune of that party that experience is fraught with no lessons for them.—Though the shallowness and inefficacy of the game of traduction was exhibited in 1840, when after charging Gen. HARRISON with cowardice, imbecility, abolitionism, and a host of other sins, the people gave the lie to the slanderers by a majority of one hundred and forty-five thousand votes, the locofocos are yet endeavoring to renew the contest of that year, and are now accusing MR CLAY of being a gambler, an adulterer, a debauchee and a Sabbath-breaker. We have no doubt the majority by which these falsehoods will be rebuked, will be quite as signal as in 1840.

MR. MAZUREAU—The Natchez Courier speaks in very high terms of this gentleman's effort before the Clay Club of Adams county on the 9th:

"The great and gifted orator was greeted with continued applause so cheering and enthusiastic that locofocism shrunk amazed. Mr. Mazureau's independent and felicitous manner captivated every hearer. He is a man of really great intellect and sound practical whig views; a true, whole-souled whig from top to toe; and though far advanced in age, the fire of patriotism burns as brightly in his bosom as in that of the most ardent youth in the land. He is a MAN."

THE ARCHING OF NEW YORK.—There was a mass meeting of the whigs of Mount Upton, Otsego county, on the 28th ult. There were 5000 freemen in attendance, though the surrounding region is thinly populated.—They were addressed in a masterly style by J. W. FOWLER, Esq. At the close of his speech seven subsantial farmers renounced locofocoism.

The whigs of old Dutchess had their county gathering at Pleasant Valley on the 29th ult. There were from 8,000 to 10,000 persons present. The people were stirringly addressed by Francis Granger, John A Collier and Joseph Hoxie: Dutchess, says the Tribune, has resolved to give the largest gain for HENRY CLAY, as compared with her vote in 1840, of any county, New York excepted, in the State.

VIRGINIA.—The whigs of Augusta had a glorious gathering at Staunton on the 29th ult. There were between seven and eight thousand people present. The Hon. A. H. H. Stuart presided. Messrs. Leigh, Janney, Dorman, Coiner and other gentlemen addressed the multitude. All looks bright in the Old Dominion.

OHIO.—The whigs of the Western Reserve met at Warren, Trumbull county, Ohio, on the 24th ult., to the number of 12,000, and were addressed by Caudice M. Clay, Gov. Corwin, and Elisha Whittlesey. It was an unexampled gathering. Northern Ohio will do her duty.

NEW JERSEY.—The whigs of West Jersey, to the number of fivethousand, assembled at Bridgeton on the 26th ult., and were addressed by Messrs. Jackson, Dayton and Frelinghuysen.

—On entering the city of Hampton was nominated by Anglaterre la nouvelle du bombardement de Tanger. Les journaux de Londres arrivés aujourd'hui confirment ce que les magociations ont été rompues entre le sultan et la France.

TOULON, le 10 août 1844.

—Le vaisseau l'Alger, commandé par M. Tr... capitaine de vaisseau, a appareillé et passé le 14 ... dans l'après-midi. Ce bâtiment va rallier dorénavant ... la division navale aux ordres de M. le contre-amiral Parseval-Deschênes, qui a quitté notre rade dans la journée d'avant-hier.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

The Hibernia steamer probably arrived at Boston on the 31st ult., or the 1st inst., too late for the papers to publish the news in time for the mail. We have received a few Havre and Paris papers to the 17th August.—They contain little that is new, except certain details in regard to the bombardment of Tangiers. The despatch of Baron de Mackau to the French Government is dated the 7th, and mentions that the attack was made at 6 A. M., and was answered by 80 pieces of artillery. In about one hour, the firing from Tangiers ceased, and the batteries were dismantled. The loss on the French side was very trifling. The quarter of the town inhabited by the European Consuls was spared.

It is stated in the French papers that the ultimatum proposed by the Emperor of Morocco was, that the French troops should retire to the interior of Algiers, and that Mr. Bugeaud should be displaced. On these conditions Abd el-Kader would be driven from the territory of Morocco. These terms being wholly unsatisfactory, Tangiers was attacked forty-eight hours after. The delay in the assault was occasioned by the desire of the Prince de Joinville to save Mr. Drummond Hays, the English Consul General, who had visited the Emperor as a mediator between France and Morocco.

Great preparations are making by France for the war with Morocco. Eight ships of the line were to be on the coast of Barbary by the 15th.

The Duke of Bordeaux is to be married to the second daughter of the King of Saxony, one of the most beautiful Princesses in Europe.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

HEALTH OF NEW ORLEANS.—The city was never more healthy than at present. There are no signs whatever of an epidemic, and sporadic cases of fever which have occurred are few and far between. Our absent friends may begin to return home without the slightest apprehensions.

SECOND MUNICIPALITY COUNCIL.—A regular meeting of the council was held last evening. Present—Messrs. Peters, Freret, Simpson, Lockett, Dana and Flower. Acting Recorder Caldwell in the chair.

Treasurer's Report.

Balance on hand	$6,588
Circulation of Municipality notes,	25,155
" funded certificates	30,900

A letter from the mayor was read by the secretary, in relation to the funds advanced by his honor for the stoppage of the steamer at Carrollton, and relating to the mode of contracting for the paving of the streets, and lighting the oil lamps. The two latter portions of the letter were referred to the committee of streets and landings.

A communication from Mr. L. Moss was read. He proposes to plant magnolia trees in Canal and other streets upon the same terms as those furnished in Lafayette square. The portion of the letter referring to Canal street was referred to the committee of streets and landings, with power to confer with the council of the first municipality.

A number of petitions of minor importance were read, when the council adjourned until Tuesday evening next.

☞ Nathan Daniels, charged with assaulting Peter Kennard on the night of the 29th ult. at the corner of Marais and Bienville streets, was yesterday examined before Recorder Genella, and ordered to find bail for his non-payment. Is it not too bad that a sanctimonious hypocrite like JOHNSON should go about traducing MR CLAY, and holding up his hands in effected horror, because the Great Statesman of the West sometimes plays cards, when he himself is convicted on the testimony of most respectable and unimpeachable witnesses of being so notoriously addicted to the vice of gambling as to have played for three consecutive days and nights at Washington, during 1840, getting his note endorsed by an honorable man, and then having it protested for non-payment. A pretty specimen of locofoco integrity and purity is this Master CAVE JOHNSON.

☞ Bertrand Gincherau, was yesterday fined $10 by Recorder Caldwell, for peddling without a license.

KENTUCKY.—Upon taking the vote for Governor by Congressional districts, we find the result as follows:

	W	L
1st District.		2846
2d do	1170
3d do	1472
4th do	1210
5th do		500
6th do	2910
7th do	562
8th do	1221
9th do	75
10th do		611

Thus, it will be seen taking Ousley's vote as a test, the whigs carry seven districts and the locos three.—Taking Dixon's vote, the whigs carry the 5th district by nearly 600 majority, and the 10th by about 200—giving them nine districts out of ten.

A MATHEMATICAL ESTIMATE.—An ardent Whig in one of our hotels, (says the Albany Journal) who was prevented by his avocations from going to the field on Tuesday, but yet desirous to know how many people were there, took the following course to satisfy his own mind on the subject. He asked ten Whigs and ten Locofocos of his acquaintance, as they chanced to come into the House during the day, what was the aggregate of the meeting, and, then, striking the average, he obtained what he thought and still thinks the true result The average of twenty answers makes the whole number present at the Convention thirty-seven thousand six hundred. The Whigs may rest satisfied.

The new Mayor of New York receives much commendation for the important reforms which have been effected in the administration of the city's concerns.—A few days since he received a Silver hydrant Key having on it an inscription expressive of the sense in which the donors regarded his service. In his note acknowledging its receipt, the Mayor says:—

"I beg my host but unknown—friends and constituents, to accept this acknowledgment of these many gratifying notes and gift, with the assurance that nothing but the obligation of duty ranks higher in my regard than the approbation of those I have given it to serve. The official courses I have deserved it, the effect of its receipt too will be to make me show my gratitude by trying to deserve it more."

The material of which the instrument is made will serve to remind me that my official conduct must be pure and untarnished; its form and purpose may be taken as emblematic of the high trust confided to me by my fellow citizens—a trust of power, to be employed in guiding the waters of our fair nation wherever their purifying influence is needed.

JAMES HARPER.

From the New York Express.

Mr. Polk, in a speech at Madison, Tenn., thus played false prophet:

"Judging from the amount of revenue received at the Treasury under the operations of the present Tariff act, for the last quarter of 1843, as already shown, it will not produce annually half the amount of revenue which would have been produced by the former rates of the compromise act, and that too at less cost and labor."

We are called upon to elect as President of the United States a man so ignorant of the finances of the country as that of the operations of trade and commerce, as to hazard such a prediction as the above.

The compromise act, it is known, created such a deficit in the federal receipts, as to subject upon the country a national debt of about $25,000,000. The Tariff of 1842 is daily providing the materials for paying off that debt, as well as for a healthy support of the industry of the country.

So far, then, is the Tariff of 1842 from not producing half enough of revenue, that we have weekly to make some such records as the following:

The receipt for duties at the Customhouse during the past week were four hundred and twenty-two thousand dollars.

The revenue at this port from January 1st, 1844, up to this time, is over fifteen and a half millions of dollars. The present week will, in all probability, equal that of any this year. If so, the amount will fall but little short of the unprecedented amount of three millions of dollars for the month:

The first week in August it was	$975,000
Second week,	652,000
Third week,	443,000
	$2,040,000

PASS IT ON.—The Charleston Courier—a paper the name of which is a guarantee for its truth—publishes the following letter from a good New York locofoco, dated 29th ult., in reference to the political prospects in that state:

"So much for business, and now for a little politics. In reply to your query, 'what is your (my) candid opinion of the probable result of the election,' so many of us in this State in November next.'" I answer with a heart full of sorrow and with mortification, Clay 60? carry the State, and that by a very considerable majority; and that result will have to be attributed to the conduct of the democracy of South Carolina. Had Mr Van Buren been the nominee of our party, it is my deliberate opinion we could have given him the vote of New York. All the loud and contemptuous is on the part of the Whigs. We cannot get an assessment in favor of Mr Polk. He is considered a doubtful man on the subject of the tariff, and that doubt is strengthened by the fact of his being advocated by the democracy of your State. Would to Heaven that Mr Calhoun, Mr McDuffie and Mr Rhett were whigs. They have killed us, then they would have served your party no better. I hope you are satisfied, and that I shall receive your acknowledgements for my candour."

THE TIDE ROLLS ON!—The Sidney (Ohio) Aurora contains a card from four voters of Wapakoneta, Allen county, Ohio, dated August 14, which concludes as follows:

We now henceforth and forever, renounce all allegiance to that party, and call upon all honest and good men, who with the institutions of their country preserved, to do so too; instead of, sustain them by voting for Clay, Frelinghuysen,
