The 9th Regiment at Fausse Riviere, parish of Point Coupee, 21st October.

At the hour fixed for the review will be taken a Roll Call of the troops who will not be dismissed until after twelve o'clock.

3d. The Brigade Inspectors required by law to be present at the inspection of the corps of their respective Brigades, they must be provided with complete returns of their Brigade to be furnished to the Adjutant and Inspector General. Should any accident in any case prevent the attendance of the latter officer the Brigade inspector will make the inspection and transmit the returns thereof to head quarters.

4th. The Brigadier Generals are especially charged with the execution of this order, as far as concerns their respective corps; they will transmit it punctually to all the commanding officers under them, and will take all preparatory measures for a full and effective muster. They are at liberty to change the place fixed for the review of their regiments provided such changes does not interfere with the other reviews established by this order.

5th. The Brigadier Generals are required to complete the organization of the different corps and to report it when I see them at head quarters; that time may be fixed for the inspection of such as are not able to be included in the order.

6th. Every officer on receiving this order will promptly acknowledge the receipt thereof to the Adjutant and Inspector General, at New Orleans, and every officer is required to declare, immediately all that relates to his corps, without waiting for the transmission of the order from his immediate superior which some accident may intercept.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief
