NEW ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 8, 1845.

MEXICO.

The papers received by the Advertiser, on Wednesday night, state the mind to us, that we were unable to do more than furnish a brief summary of the intelligence. Our files are as late as the 19th ult., from the city of Mexico.

In regard to the question of war, it should be distinctly understood, that Mexico will be an independent nation, and that she will be compelled to sustain her independence, whatever may be the result of the present contest between the United States, the very latest and most authentic advice now to hand, indicates that war of some sort will be declared.

All orders of Congress, for political offices, all notices or articles of a personal nature, when admitted, will pay 50 per square.

The New Constitution.

OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA.
Printed in book form, in folio, for $1.00. To be had at the Office of Louisiana's Library Depot, 120 St. Peter.

THE pleasure is left with friends and the public, to determine what course to pursue in this matter. We have, however, to consider, whether to print the new constitution, or to let it stand as it is. We are of opinion, that it would be better to leave it to the people, to decide upon the subject.

NOTE.—LOUISIANA'S CONSTITUTION.

THE JOURNAL OF NEW ORLEANS, New York, N. Y., has a copy of the new constitution of Louisiana, which is to be printed in book form, at the expense of the State of Louisiana.
