THE NORTHERN MAIL came through yesterday, bringing dates from New York to the #3d December. There are still two back mails due.

There are still two back multi due,

Annexation of them,

We read with great pleasure yesterday the strictures of our contemportures of the Picoguse and Ditto, upon Mr. Leva's proposition to open negotiations with the Government of Spain for the cession of the island of Cuba. They are purpent and severe, but richly merited, and are the more appropriate as they emanate from neutral papers, and are, therefore, not liable to the suspicion of being the fruit of partian hostility.

naminy of the Croin, should have better known and appreciated his position, than to volunteer a resolution of the sort. It became older and better statesmenten grown grey in the councils of the nation, whose services to the country have been 'manifold and, indubitable. They were the fit pudges of its necessity. The effort of Mr. Lavy to confer spon himself a little public notority and render his conduct a subject of general comment, is in itself emissionally characteristic of a petty soul, and savors of that in ordinate value.

In the next place, the resolution was unnecessity in itself. No such project was ever started—no such policy ever contemplated. Among the multifarious schemes of national aggrandizement and plans for extending the area of freedom, that of annexing Cuban ever entered the brain of mortal man, usual it spring in full maturity from the teeming concession of the Hon. DAYID LAYY. It scherted, incontinently from the such where insidential content the entire. of the room DAVID LAYY. It supreat, incontinently from the spot where inhysiologists locate the nest of satellect, moulded by the plastic genius of its authoriato complete form. But also for the wantty of human expectations, it proved to be so unseemly and ladicrous an abortion, that its appearance was hailed by a most irreverent burst of laughter from men of all parties. In the third place, if Mr. Levy possessed a very moute modicum of that essential requisite to states—manship—common sense, he would have institutely perceived the indelicacy, impropriety and impolicy of his resolution during the present critical posture of our foreign relations. It is adding another ource of irritation to the various elements of excite-nent which the Oregon controversy has evoked, and which perplex and complicate that dispute, menacing it with a violent termination. We wish our claims with his preposerous resolution to safete Cuba, as if for the very purpose of nourishing and giving plausibility to the belief on the part of European powers, that the United States have cases to the conclusion, per fast ast no fast, to the possession of every portion of the American comment. To aroune such a supplicion would be the most effectual, means that could be devised for rendering, a peaceful adjustment of the North Western Bosniary Question atterly impracticable, and the mere fact of the introduction of the proposition in the United States Senate, will be succeeded by a gen-proposition in the United State Senate, will, we doubt not constitute an additional obstacle to the continuous of peace.

Such, however, may have been the design of the gentleman owhom he paternily of the resolution belongs. There is a class of demagodes in Congress, whose far from viewing, war as a calamity, to be most dreaded, and to be averted by any sacrifice short of national right and honor; regard is serri and fearful arbitrament with frenziedile light, look upon, its terrible coherent peace as nort of Solutionic of the Council, and J. Clark was tetrible coherent peace as nort of Solutionic of the Council of Lower Peace of the community.

In the SERATE on the 22d December, Mr. Calhoun appeared and took his seat.

Several memorials were presented by Northern Senators remonstrating against the admission of Texas as a Slave-holding State.

Mr. Ashby from the Committee on the Judiciar Mr. Ashby from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported without amendment the joint resolution of the House for the admission of Texas. The resolution was read a second time, when Mr. Webster briefly opposed the passing. Mr. Berrien of Ga. stated the resolution, Messrs. Niles and Bagley declared their intention to sustain the resolution, and Mr. Huntington expressed his determination to vote against it. The resolution then passed by the following vote:

We are authorized to publish the following communication:

We are told that some of the Sugar Planters below the city are using advanta groundy chalk (carbamate of time) to destroy the actidity of frozen cane.

This atticle is put in the first letth after the lime, and the cannot ye used in about double that of the lime. Thus a carbonate of little which is innoshible as formed, thereby neutralizing the acid.

We be used advise the planters that could only make symptom of their frozen canes, not to nix it with the molanter, but put it up apparately to be midd to magar refiners, sho would pay a higher price for it than for common molanes.
