GENERAL COUNCIL—Pursuant to adjournment the General Council met on Saturday night, and sat for three hours and a half. Mr. Stickney, on bailot, was elected President of the meeting.

A report was read from the Committee on Drays. Carts, &c., in which it was stated that the committee had examined the ordinances on this subject, and find that they are deficient. They, therefore presented a new ordinance to amend the present ones. Mr. Bell, from the committee lapopoint of 10 inquire into the necessity of appointing a Board of Hesitin.

that they are deficient. They, therefore presented a new ordinance to amend the present ones.

Mr. Bell, from the committee appointed to inquire into the necessity of appointing a Board of Health, reported an ordinance for that object; which was laid on the table, subject to call.

The committee, to whom was referred that portion of the message relatington the public achools, reported, as the result of their inquiries, that the schools of the three Municipalities were not in a tast of efficient organization; but as the commuttee had no power delegated to them to recommend any change, they begied to be discharged from any further consideration of the subject; along the message relative to the defenceless state of New Orleans, presented a memorial praying the Secretary of War to take the subject into immediate consideration, and apportous means to place it in a more defensive state; adopted

Mr. Wilder presented "An Ordinance to establish an uniform rate of taxes on hawkers, pediars, merchants, public house, cabarrets, laveras, brokers, bankers, "&c. &c. &c., which was referred to a committee. from which we make the following assumary:
