The New-Orleans Bee.

No. 1387. VOL. VIII. NEW SERIES. VOL. XIV. WHOLE No. 3196.

MAGNE & WEISSE, PROPRIETORS. No. 81 Chartres street.

LEGAL ADVERTISING PAPER.—NEW-ORLEANS, SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 29, 1846.

TERMS OF THE BEE:

Daily paper, ... $12 00
Tri-weekly, ... 5 00
Weekly, ... 3 00

Subscriptions payable in advance. Single copies 5 cents. Notice to discontinue must be given before the commencement of a new month. No advertisement inserted for less than one square. Subscribers desiring a change of residence must give notice at the publication office. Subscribers to the Semi-Weekly Bee will be charged 50 cents per square for each insertion of advertisements. Advertisements without the number of insertions desired will be inserted until forbid and charged accordingly. Advertisements in the French language will be charged 25 per cent extra. Advertisements not exceeding ten lines, for the Daily Bee, will be inserted once for $1; twice for $1 50; one week for $2; two weeks for $3; three weeks for $4; one month for $5. Advertisements exceeding ten lines will be charged 10 cents per line for each insertion. Obituaries and notices of deaths will be charged 50 cents each. Notices of marriages and deaths are inserted gratis. Communications must be addressed to the Editors, post paid. Letters on business connected with the office must be addressed to the Publishers. Subscriptions to the Daily Bee, $12 per annum, payable in advance. Subscriptions to the Semi-Weekly Bee, $5 per annum, payable in advance. Subscriptions to the Weekly Bee, $3 per annum, payable in advance. Subscriptions to the Tri