I, the undersigned, inform the public that I will not pay, from date, a note for the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars drawn by me to the order of Mr. Joseph Vest, on which Mr. Meyer Levy became an endorser, dated September 4th, 1846, and payable in sixty days after date, signed and witnessed by Mr. V. Fusilier, Notary Public, in consequence of his having pronounced a suit to annul the sale for which said note was drawn, and to have it declared null and void.
G. FRESCHE.
New Orleans, August 20th 1846. n22

MESSRS. P. BLANCARD and ACHILLE M. LIOZU, Surgeon Dentists of the Faculty of Paris and New Orleans, have the honor to inform their clients, that since the 1st of June, they have omitted their offices at No. 44 Royal street, between Bienville and Customhouse (residence of Dr. Liozu.)

The compliments they are under towards various institutions and the Convent of the city, to which they are attached, compel them to absent themselves many days in the course of the month. They have, therefore deemed it expedient to form a Copartnership, as well to shorten the occasions such account of their absence, as to render it that one of the two may be always in town, ready to receive all persons who may honor them with their confidence. The superiority of their work, and the rare and unanimous testimonials exhibited by them, induce them to hope for a continuance of the patronage of the public. j7

LEECHES! LEECHES!
