Mesers Editors—A friend the handed me the enclased authentic report two of the speeches at the late Landingo (wention, held by the members of the Legislance, in this city.

e report I send is correct. Your friend,
JOHN SMITH. My friends I must pray that you hold me excused.
This first time, in my life, that I ever refused.
To address you in meeting; but, truth must be told

Not the slightest reward, not f. in good aroth:
Though for justy I've spent the best years of my yout;
And even dy are, which now is declining:
But the want of an office sha'n't catch me repening;
Nill parmid me to may this one wond in your ears,
If a snug little post should be variant, my years shall not be a hindpance—its cares I will take—
Not for mose—Oit in—but Democracy's sake.
It is snud'that our-party is turn and divided:
But all this is humbly, for Whig use provided.
Our jecode are always no perfectly drilled.
That we've only to say what we, leaders, have
