is no departure from the rule. Though it is likely enough that the Mexicans would not scruple to publish sparious productions of a character to encourage their countrymen and induce the hope that our resources are exhausted, it is not very probable that any of their leaders could have touched with no much prescision upon the points mpoted in this letter, and could have manufactured an ensiste orbit.

It is, may the editor of the Cincinnati Commercial, does not accompany Lieut. Kit Carson to
