No. 140—Whole No. 357.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF GENERAL COUNCIL AND FIRST MUNICIPALITY.

NEW-ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 7, 1848.

WAGNER, PROPRIETOR,
No. 12 Chartres, and 12 Camp Street.

CRIMES OF THE UNION.

Congressional.
In the Senate, on the 26th, the bill to establish a territorial Government in Oregon, was discussed.

Mr. Berrien. He denied to the floor, addressed to the Committee on Public Expenditures, the right of Congress to prohibit the importation of slaves, and argued with much ability, and at great length, in support of his proposition.

Mr. Underwood followed, and maintained similar views to those expressed by Mr. Berrien.

In the House, a resolution was offered, authorizing the Committee on Public Expenditures to make a thorough investigation of the Treasury operations and expenditures, with power to send for persons and papers, and to employ clerks.

The bill, following additional time for holding up, was referred to the Committee on the Whole of the General Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Moore. In his speech on the National Bank of the United States, he declared himself favorable to the election of Great Taylor to the Presidency.

The committee rose without defining position, and the House soon after adjourned.

New-York.

The various wings of the city of New York, showing their private and personal preferences, are having the welfare of the country at heart, given in formal adhesion to the name of Gen. Taylor. The outcome of the 25th session of the Legislature, in which the National Bank to the number of over twenty thousand, and ratified the election of Taylor and Farnsworth with enthusiastic manifestations of concurrence. They were addressed by Senator Dix, of New Jersey, Ober Hoffman, Mr. Moore, &c.

The address is sharp and vigorously written, and breathes the spirit of an equal and self-sacrificing patriotism. Of Taylor and Farnsworth it speaks as follows:

"Great Taylor is a man of clear judgment and decided character, and courage—a man not to be swayed by fear or favor—ever who loves his country and will never shrink from duty. We know him to be a Washington, a Lincoln, and a Lee. We trust he will be faithful to the constitution. We rejoice in the spiritual champion of the Union, and official power. He is the friend of peace and the enemy of conquest—He is a man of energy and well known devotion to Whig principles; he is universally regarded as abundantly qualified for the Vice-Presidency and office of the Union."

The resolution embodying the spirit of the Atlantic Convention, was adopted by Whig platform.

They do not contain one syllable of reference to slavery, but place the entire on the issues of national policy. This salutary movement dashes the last faint hope of Loco-focoism, and ensures every where "the union of the Whigs for the sake of the Union."
