MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS.
General Council,
Sitting of Wednesday, 15th March, 1846.

AN ORDINANCE to prohibit the running at large of Animals of the Dog kind within the limits of the City of New Orleans.

ART. 1. Be it ordained by the Council Council of the City of New Orleans, That from and after the first day of May, A. D. 1847, no animal of the Dog kind shall be allowed to run at large within the limits of the Municipalities of said City, unless such animal shall have around his or her neck, a collar with a metal plate to which shall be engraved the name of the owner of such animal, and which plate shall be of sufficient substantial and safe wire basket muzzle, secured and fastened so as effectually to prevent him or her from biting or snapping. No such collar or basket shall be required to be worn by any dog or animal of the dog kind, during the time which such dog may be within the limits of the city.

ART. 2. Be it further ordained, That from and after the 1st day of May to the first day of November in each and every year, every person is hereby authorized and empowered to kill any animal of the dog kind found running at large, in contravention to the foregoing article, and such person shall be entitled to a bounty of one dollar for each and every animal of the dog kind so killed, and bounty to be paid promptly by the Municipalities on the warrant of the Mayor.

ART. 3. Be it further ordained, That it shall be and is hereby made the duty of the Commissioners of Police of the said Municipalities, to cause all animals of the dog kind found running at large, to be immediately killed, and to cause the carcasses to be immediately removed to the aforesaid Magazine, &c., according to the regulations which the Mayor, Aldermen and Inhabitants of New Orleans may direct, act on that subject; and the said removal shall take place within three days from the arrival of the Vessels in the port of New Orleans, under the penalty of a fine of twenty dollars for each and every animal of the dog kind so killed; and in case the owner of such animal shall refuse or neglect to pay the said fine, the same may be recovered before any Court of competent Jurisdiction, one half for the benefit of the
