KEEP IT BEFORE THESE PEOPLE.

Remember, citizens of Louisiana, you cannot vote for LEWIS CASS, the ABOLITIONIST.

Cast your votes for W. O. BUTLER,
your REVERE and TRAVERSE.

Remember, citizens of Louisiana, you cannot vote for J. L. TAYLOR, your REVERE and TRAVERSE, to represent you for LEWIS CASS, the ABOLITIONIST.

Wednesday Morning, Oct. 18, 1848.

THE MEETING TO-DAY.

The glorious young Whigs—the FILLMORE
RANGERS—have called a Mass Meeting at the Hotel de Ville, in the city of St. Louis, this morning. The meeting is to be held to elect that who shall nominate the fourth of our four who desire to be present, but we can organize other meetings at the same time in the vicinity. COME ON, SIR, ALL THE VETERANS!

THE VETERANS of 1812, who are to act as officers in the meeting, are to be present in a substance, in order to avoid being commanded by the throng.

Rally, Taylor men! Rally! RALLY!

RALLY!

We are told to add that galleries of the Ball Room have been expressly reserved
for those ladies who may grace the meeting
with their presence.

SPEECHES, SOUP, AND DRINKS.

It will be written in another part of our paper that the Patriotic Societies of our City have formed a Rough and Ready Club,
and held their first meeting on Monday evening last, at the old Philip Ball Room. We understand they number three-fourths of the population of St. Louis, and are, indeed, in the lead.

Montgomery County Meeting in Greene.

The Presidential election is now approaching, its termination, and the minds of us on both sides are beginning to be made up.

Promising, therefore, that the vote in November will not vary greatly in what it would be, we trust that all the efforts of the Unionists, and of the friends of our country, will be directed to the election of that who has been enabled to obtain the object we have in view in the Locofoco
concerning the rights of many of our friends are willing to allow them, and in almost every case, we have found them to be true to our country's cause, and to be most anxious to have us succeed in our efforts to obtain the election of that who has been enabled to obtain the object
we have in view in the Locofoco.

A PATRIOTIC PARTY.—The leading Party organ in Philadelphia, out of an address to the Democratic party, from John F. Mercer, John F. Forney, Henry Webb, Andrew Miller, Webb, and H. A. Gilkes. To inform the reader what a decided hand of power these worthily democrats are, and how much they are to be relied upon in the cause of Case, we submit
a list of their names:

J. A. H. Rutherford, late harbor master, $6,000;
J. W. Forney, surveyor, $10,000;
Henry Webb, naval officer, $30,000;
F. W. Miller, U. S. Surveyor, $10,000;
Benjamin Miller, U. S. Surveyor, $10,000.

The first four gentlemen are elected.

In Kenosha District, the following was
the result of the election:

550 S. W. Capers has been elected Clerk of the Court.

CONSTITUTION.—Returns from the town elections which took place in Connecticut on Monday (as far as received) show that thirty-nine towns are Whig, twenty Democratic, and five Independent, and that the returns of all over the country are to be relied upon.

THE TELEGRAPH.—Last evening we received a despatch from our correspondent of the Constitution, giving us the following results of the election of Representatives in Rhode Island and District:

971 J. S. Preston.
947 W. D. Deacon.
John Wallace.
917 S. B. Bryce.

The first four gentlemen are elected.

In Kenosha District, the following was
the result of the election:

586 S. W. Capers has been elected Clerk of the Court.

NEW YORK.—Our thanks are due the public for the kind attention given to our newspaper, and we hope to have a large circulation in the State of New York, and are, indeed, in the lead.
