Catchall, No. 44 St. Louis street,

NEW OYSTER ROOM, COFFEE-HOUSE, &c.—The undersigned will open, on Saturday, 1st December, at St. Louis st, opposite the Exchange, an establishment, the want of which has been felt in the First Municipality. A Saloon has been fitup comprehending at once the conveniencies luxuries of a coffee room and of eating house. arrangements for the gratification of the taste o public, we have spared no expense, neglected science which will tend to give to our establish a marked superiority over all others of the kind in New Orleans. A man of known experience will be found to preside over the culinary department that can be had, and the liquors will be of the finest quality.

Strictest decorum will be maintained at all times throughout all parts of the establishment, and shall strive to render it a place of agreeable resort during the winter months.

The magnificent Billiard room is fitted up for those delights in that elegant exercise.

The Bowling alley will be richly decorated and splendidly lighted. Artists of the first merit are employed to give to it an appearance of beautiful simplicity in contrast to the glare and glitter of taste.

No waiters will be polite and prompt.

The first rate Cook is employed, nowhere excelled both in his professsion.

We respectfully we solicit the public patronage this new and useful enterprise, and we assure friends and fellow citizens that no exertion will be avoided that may contribute to the pleasure and enjoyment of those who may honor us with their patronage.
