THE APPROACHING SESSION OF CONGRESS

Ye trust to see our friends on the ground early. We call the attention of the Democratic members of Congress to the great importance of a prompt and early attendance upon the organization of the House of Representatives. In the present closely contested around on the House, the absence of a single democratic member may change the whole aspect of a flairs and place the organization in the hands of our opponents.

The election of Speaker and of the different opponents.

The election of Speaker and of the different others, the formation of the committees, and the whole benefit of the organization may be set by matternion or neglect. At such a crisis, every may should be at his poet, and not allow the frame of victory to be lost by a failure to be present at the opening of the reason. nts in early and prompt avendance. ours, triking a lively interest in the appointment of a day of national thanksgiving, communicated with the President upon the subject, and received the following reply to his
