We take it that, upon the old adage of much make arguing the presence of some five, an itempt is to be speedily made to renew in her form the Cuban hunt which, throu are Larminated a few months since in a splendid fail-are. Cutrent report passifies the belief, and every little white some of the newspapers, scattered over the face of the land, anacunce It is said, however, that the en

It may be well to enquire into the feasibility to make a descent upon an island at peace to use a consideration and at peace to use government; and conceding, for the eof argament, that an armed force, acting spendently of the Government, and upon two exclusive risk and account, may lawin own excusive ran area account, may invalid seasy the bazardous undertaking of revo-lationizing and subjugating the Island of Cuba-the great problem to be solved in the possibility of executing the enterprize. We believe it to ne of the most fool-bardy and chimerical pro-minion of Spain! Five thousan ntending against an army of 25,000 disand valuant veterans of Old Spain-me who are fanatical in their attachment to the who will fight as the Peninsular war nown how Spaniates can fight. To cor he Captain General of Cuba are all the mun idventurers, however intrepid and desperate, i ion that no same person can possible the grinding tyranny that oppresse eall upon HERCULES to gid them, but are too inthey are powerless, destructe of arms and inition, a crustical and feeble race, that have not yet ventured to wag a finger against the heartless domination of their ruthless step-Can efficient co-operation be possible d from such a source? Can we look for who for a century have passavely submitted to the scorn and contumely of foreign rulers, who treat the colonists like conquered serfs? Those will be the victims of bitter disappointment.

lausibility from the overt menaces of Governo O'Donagata, is that, if things come to an ex-tremity, the service population will be liberated, and arms placed in their hands. Against the horrors of such a deed, it behooves to be on our goard. The Spanish tyranis who lord it over Cube are not a whit too merciful for an act of These things should be thought of by the hardy spirits who may feel disposed to paril life n so hopeless an undertaking.
