ELECTION RETURNS.

To the clerk of the steamer F. M. Streck which arrived yesterday from Donaldsonville we are indebted for the following information relative to the election in the Second District.

In the Parish of Ascension Henry Johnson has 69 majority. In the Parish of Assumption [illegible] as heard from Bullard's majority is 129; four precincts to hear from which will not much affect the present vote. In Lafourche Interior it is supposed that not more than 400 to 450 votes had been polled, but that Bullard's majority will be 200 to 250. In Terrebonne Bullard's majority will be 40 to 50.

The Crops.—The Pointe Coupee Echo says: The cotton in this parish is superb. The cane must have suffered from the long drought; but as none of our planters have commenced grinding, we cannot speak positively as to its quality. Its appearance is very fine indeed. Nearly all our sugar planters will commence grinding early this year.

☞ A circumstance occurred recently in the village of Morrisania, N. Y., which created much excitement. A Miss Shotwell had charge of an Infant Asylum. A number of the children died suddenly, and were interred scarcely a foot beneath the surface, so that their remains were exposed, and became exceedingly offensive. Suspicious were aroused that the children had come to their deaths by foul means, and the matter underwent a rigid scrutiny. It turned out, however, that the children had died from disease, and the affair terminated with a series of resolutions strongly censuring Miss Shotwell, for the slovenly and indecent manner in which she had caused them to be buried.

A Microscopic Dividend.—In the matter of Bowles, Ogden and Wyndham, of Shatsbury and Salisbury, bankers, who were bankrupts in 1810, a final dividend of one-eighth part of a penny in the pound has been declared.

Very Late from Brazil.—By an arrival at New York, advices from Rio Janeiro to the 5th August have been received.

The political news is of little interest. Both Houses of Congress were yet in session, and [illegible] matters of local interest.

A fire broke out on the night of the 11th of August, in Ouvidor street, No. 7. Several houses and stores were consumed by the flames before it could be extinguished. The authorities of Rio were soon on the spot, and, incited by their example, the firemen and inhabitants of the city endeavored to do their best. The loss is reported as being very great.

The fever had disappeared from Rio Janeiro, and the city was healthy.

FROM TEXAS.

By an arrival from Galveston, we have received Texas papers to the 27th ult., inclusive. Major Henry reached Galveston on the 25th and furnished the press with some intelligence from El Paso, but it has been anticipated here. Major H. was tried by a Court Martial at El Paso for some informality in an order for forage. The evidence shewed negligence, but did not justify any suspicion of fraud. Nevertheless Major Henry was sentenced to "pay to the Quartermaster's Department the sum of ten dollars, the value of the forage improperly drawn, to be reprimanded in orders from the headquarters of the 7th Department, that a copy of the findings and sentence be sent to each department's headquarters for promulgation, and that he be suspended from rank and command, and that his pay proper be stopped for six calendar months." The part of the sentence relative to suspension and loss of pay was afterwards remitted.

We regret to learn says the News, that the cotton crop through the country, so far as we have heard, has suffered and is suffering greatly from the long continued drought. It is about two months since we have had any rain in this place and the drought has been of still longer continuance in many parts of the country. It is not probable that our cotton will generally exceed half our average crop. The sugar cane is however very fine and promises more favorably than for several years past.

Great suffering still exists in the Mexican State of Zacatecas, in consequence of of a long and severe drought. The Western Texian says animals were dying, crops were short, and corn selling at $2 50 a bushel.

It was reported at Austin that a large number of Indians of different tribes, were making a general rendezvous in the neighborhood of Barnard's (formerly Torey's) Trading Post, a little below the Comanche Peak on the Brazos.—Their object is supposed to be to make a general descent upon the settlements. However, this report is not considered entirely free from doubt.

We copy the following items from our Texas Exchanges:

The Texas Monument informs us, that a Mr. John Carl Fritsche committed suicide near Lagrange on the 11th inst. He was from Leipsic in Saxony, was in bad health, had been despondent for some time, and is supposed to have been partially deranged. He passed through this city on his way to Lagrange early in August, and had only been there about two weeks, when he committed the fatal deed. It appears that he discharged the contents of a double barrel pistol in his left breast, while sitting on a log on the banks of the Colorado river, from which his lifeless body fell into the stream, and was found floating down to the ferry below, a day or two after.

The Rio Grande, by the removal of a few obstructions, at a comparatively trifling expense can be made navigable for a distance of one thousand miles from its mouth.

Many a Slip, &c.—A marriage that was to have come off in Huntsville the other Sunday, was according to the Item, broken up by the absence of the lady. It was soon ascertained that another and more fortunate suitor had accompanied her to church, and afterwards they "cut out" for an adjoining county, where they got the nuptial knot tied in legal form. The fate of the disappointed bridegroom, who was so shockingly jilted is yet a secret.

The San Antonio Texian says that the Camanches who have heretofore manifested a friendly feeling towards the German settlers at Fredericksburg, and that vicinity, have lately given many evidences of hostile intentions. A German was but a few days since killed on the Llano by them, and a large number of horses belonging to Mr. Craig, driven off.

The Example of America Upon England.—Wilmer & Smith's Times, of Liverpool, says:

"We understand, with some truth, that the Chancellor of the Exchequer has at length been convinced, by the powerful arguments and convincing statistical returns of the Newspaper Press Association, that it is advisable, in the next session of Parliament, to abolish the paper duties, as well as the stamp duty on newspapers, and the duty on advertisements—in fact to make the press of this country as free as it is in America."

This will afford immense relief to the publishers of newspapers and advertisers, as it is well known that these duties are exceedingly onerous, limiting the circulation of newspapers and their advertising business. Newspapers, however, are not charged with postage in Great Britain until they get rather old.

A Silver Flagon to the Haynau Mob.—We see it stated on good authority, that a superb silver flagon is to be presented by the mechanics and brewers of New York to the workmen of Messrs. Barclay & Perkins' brewery in London, in commemoration, as our authority says, "for their heroic conduct in chastising the butcher Haynau." The flagon is to be of large size, embossed with a view of the chastisement on one side, and with a suitable inscription on the other.

A Wonderful Feat of the Telegraph.—On the 24th ult., the proclamation of the Governor of Georgia, over a thousand words, was transmitted with perfect accuracy to the office of the Washington and New Orleans Telegraph, in Washington city, direct from Macon, a distance of eleven hundred and seven miles. This, says the Union, has been accomplished by the valuable improvement recently patented by Charles S. Bulkley, Esq., the Inspector of the Washington and New Orleans Line; and it is confidently believed that, so soon as "Bulkley's Connectors," as they are called, shall be applied to the stations between Macon and New Orleans, there will be like facility and certainty in communicating directly to and from that city.

Ship Burnt.—Extract of a letter dated Indian River, Florida, Sept. 20, 1850: "The brig Creed, from Philadelphia for Mobile, was run ashore on the 24th of August, three miles below Indian River outlet, in consequence of the lime taking fire. A very trifling part of her cargo has been saved, and that in a damaged state. The vessel is now under water."

Pretty Shrewd for Jenny.—At the entertainment given to Jenny Lind on Friday evening, by the Mayor of New York, she was asked to sing. She very gracefully refused on the ground that she had made a contract with Mr. Barnum, binding her to sing only for him, or charity; and the Mayor, as a man of business, knew she could not break it.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate on the 24th ult., the Mexican indemnity bill was taken up.

Mr. Soule moved an amendment proposing that the government, in paying the third instalment, should do so in a manner most advantageous to the United States, and if possible, convenient to Mexico. Mr. Soule objected to the conditional arrangement for the payment of the money, now made with three banking houses—one of them the Barings. It ought to be done, in preference, by American bankers. The plan [illegible] would promote British interests in Mexico.

Mr. Dickinson opposed the amendment. We have agreed, he said, to place a sum of money in the city of Mexico, and it was his object to see that it was put there at the time stipulated. How should we do it? It would cost four per cent. to put the dollars there. A self-constituted agent—a Mr. Marks—assumed to interfere with the course of legislation on this subject—with how much disinterestedness and patriotism, any one can judge. It would disgrace this government, and injure its credit to listen to the propositions of this person, instead of taking the usual course and complying with the treaty. We must put the money there in dollars, and the object in making the arrangement now was to enable the contractors to place it there gradually, so as not to disturb commercial relations. To do this we made a contract with bankers, one of the houses, British bankers—the Barings, and the other two houses, American bankers—Howland & Aspinwall, and Corcoran & Riggs. As to employing British bankers, it was only necessary to say, that the Barings had been employed as the bankers of the United States for half a century.

These bankers moved in the centre of the commercial and financial world, and they had more extensive facilities than any other. They had a house in Mexico, by which they could make a more favorable arrangement than any other. Their facilities would enable them, perhaps, to make money by the transaction.—This Mr. Marks, who had thrust himself into the business, showed his object in his letters to his friends here. These letters Mr. D. sent to the Chair, and they were read. One of the letters, dated at Mexico, states that the negotiation was closed with Mexican Minister, and he adds "I we complete it we shall make $70,000 each."

He adds that the Mexican Minister in Washington would have no authority to make the transactions, but his receipt for the money would be sufficient. But it was said that this would favor British interests in Mexico. When was there a time that British commercial interests had not power in Mexico? As to the exchanges, Mr. D. stated the rates, showing that a profit of four and a quarter per cent. would be made, of which they paid three and a half to the United States. So they made three quarters of one per cent., and if they made any more, it must be by their skill as brokers. The Government had no right to change the terms of the contract with Mexico.

If the Secretary of the Treasury should accept the drafts, as proposed by Mr. Marks, and pay them, he would be liable to impeachment and to indictment. But if Mr. Marks had propositions to make he must go to the Executive. The legislative branch had nothing to do with them. Mr. Soule made some further remarks, and Mr. Davis, of Mass., replied.

The amendment was lost—yeas 11, nays 35.

Further amendments were rejected and the bill was passed.

The California bills were taken up.

The bill to establish gold mine agents and to regulate the granting of permits to work mines, was taken up.

Mr. Ewing opposed some of the provisions, and offered amendments. Instead of 30 feet square on a placer, he would propose 900 square feet—to be laid off by the agent, not in a square, but any shape. If but 210 feet square was allowed to a mine of quartz, there would be no room to set up the machinery. The miner should be allowed to pursue the line of strata. Instead of one acre he would give four—to be laid down according to circumstances.

Mr. Ewing's amendments were rejected.

The discussion was continued for some time.

The Senate took a recess from 4 to 8 o'clock, and on re-assembling, went into Executive session.

In the House, Mr. Grinnell made an ineffectual effort to introduce a proposition, by way of resolution, to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, materially modifying the present rates of duties on foreign imports.

The Speaker ruled it out of order on several points. His decision was appealed from, but the appeal was laid on the table by a vote of 101 to 85.

The Senate bill entitled an act to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to permit vessels from the British North American colonies, to [illegible] any port or place in any [illegible] district of the United States he may [illegible] was passed, under the operation of the previous question.

Mr. Bowlin, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported back bills without amendment granting the right of way and lands to the State of Missouri for the purpose of constructing certain railroads therein. He asked that the bills be respectively be put on their passage. The bills were, however, laid upon the table by a decided vote.

Slavery in the District.—Mr. P. King moved a suspension of the rules to enable him to introduce a bill to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia, which question was decided in the negative—yeas 52, nays 109.

Mr. Thompson, of Pa., asked leave to introduce a joint resolution from the Committee on the Judiciary, to authorize the President of the United States to cause a suit to be brought against George W. Crawford, late Secretary of War.

Mr. Bissell objected.

Mr. Thompson, of Pa. asked that the rules be suspended; and they were suspended.

The joint resolution was then read a first time.

Mr. Thompson then explained the facts in the case, the Galphin case, and alluded to the letter of Mr. Crawford calling for a judicial investigation.

The bill was finally passed, under the operation of the previous question, by a vote of 112 yeas and 20 nays.

The Fortification bill was read a third time and passed—yeas 106, nays 66.

The bill of the House, making grants of land 10,000,000 of acres to the several States of the Union for the support of the indigent insane, coming up in order as business on the Speaker's table.

The Speaker said the gentleman from Illinois, (Mr. Bissell) was entitled to the floor on the bill.

Mr. Bissel explained the bill.

Messrs. Vinton and others discussed it.

Mr. Burt moved to lay the bill on the table, which motion was rejected; yeas 48, nays 107.

The House then adjourned.

New York, Sept. 24—5 p. m.

Pittsburg, Sept. 24.

There is some excitement here among the colored people, owing as it is said to the passage by Congress of the fugitive slave bill. Many of them have become indignant, and determined to leave the States for Canada.

Boston, Sept. 24.

Mr. Wakefield, the Apothecary who was under trial here for administering corrosive sublimate to Mr. Hall, in mistake for calomel, has been acquitted, upon the ground that no evil intention could be established.

Mr. E. Baker, a large wholesale dry goods dealer of this city, has failed for a heavy amount, owing to his having speculated too largely in railroad stock.

St. Johns, N. B., Monday, Sept. 23.

From Nova Scotia—Destructive Freshet—Steamers between Halifax and Ireland, &c.—We have received late papers from Halifax, which contain some interesting items of news. The Acadian Recorder is urging the establishment of a line of steamers between Halifax and Ireland, to be owned in part or wholly by the people of Nova Scotia. Letters from Amherst announce an immense freshet at that place which had done much damage, carrying away bridges and mills, and lumber in great quantities. A great regatta was given on the 12th, the day being observed as a civic holiday.

Wrecked Seamen.—A letter from Key West to the Editors of the Charleston Courier, says:

On the 26th August, two seamen were picked up on Long Key, in a miserable condition. They represent that they were part of the crew of brig New Orleans, of New York, Henry Burt, master, from New Orleans, bound to Matanzas; that the brig was capsized in the gale of the 22d inst., off Tortugas, and that the vessel went to pieces and they clung to the stern frame, by which means they saved themselves; that the balance of the crew and a Spanish gentleman, a passenger, perished. The crew consisted of nine persons. The two saved are Samuel Thomson, second mate, and James Smith, seaman. The latter is much Bruised and is now in the Hospital. They were five days on the stern frame and drifted on Long Key, where they were found by one of our wrecking vessels.

Novel and Ingenious Experiment.—A cask of fine hardware and cutlery, accidentally fell overbord from the Line ship H. Allen, lying at Boyce & Co.'s wharf. The contents of the cask were valuable, and a reward of fifty dollars having been offered by the Captain of the vessel for its recovery, it was restored to the ship's deck yesterday morning, through the exertions of Mr. Angus Smith. Mr. Smith provided himself with what he called a diving bell, by sawing in half an ordinary oil cask, then placing it over his head and shoulders, and attaching heavy weights to the edges of the inverted cask, which being air-tight, prevented the water from rushing in, his head occupying the vacuum; then letting himself down, he was enabled to remain under water from ten to fifteen minutes. This novel sub-marine experiment was witnessed by a number of persons, who seemed pleased with the success attending it.—Charleston Courier.

A Swindling Transaction.—A swindling transaction in regard to the Bounty Land law has been discovered at Washington. It appears that the engrossing clerk left out of the law the stipulation providing for issuing patents to soldiers and their representatives. When the fraud was discovered, the clerk was discharged. The President has suspended the execution of the Bounty Land law until the next session of Congress.

Second Despatch.

Washington, October, 1.

Adjournment of Congress.—Both Houses of Congress adjourned sine die yesterday, at 12 o'clock.

The Foote and Fremont Difficulty.—The difficulty between Senators Foote and Fremont has been amicably adjusted. The latter addressed a note to the former, calling for the retraction of the offensive language used by him in debate, and in the event of his refusing to sign a paper making such retraction, a challenge was to be delivered to him.

Mr. Foote declined signing the paper, but addressed a note in reply to Mr. Fremont, disclaiming any intention to give personal offence by the language which he had used on the occasion. His reply was considered satisfactory by the friends of both parties, and Mr. Foote's note, at the instance of Mr. Fremont, was referred to Col. Benton, who consented to the arrangement.

The objectionable remark of Mr. Foote was, that the plan of the Senator from California for the settlement of the land titles was an outrage upon the public.

Cincinnati and St. Louis Custom-Houses.—The House concurred in the Senate amendment to the Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation bill, making appropriations for custom-houses at Cincinnati and St. Louis.

Utah Territorial Government.—The President's nominations for the Territorial Government of Utah were confirmed as follows:

Brigham Young, Governor; Broughton Davis, Secretary of State, James Buffington, Chief Justice; Perry Brocchus, (?) of Alabama, Associate Justice; Seth Blair, of Utah, District Attorney, J. P. S. Haywood, Marshal.

Another Disunion Address.—A disunion address, prepared by Senator Butler, of South Carolina, is now ready, and will appear in a day or two.—Evening Picayune.

Electro-Magnetism.—Amin Bey, the Turkish Commissioner, part of his suite, and several other gentlemen, visited yesterday morning the country residence of Professor Page, agreeably to appointment, to witness the operation of the electro-magnetic engine. The Bey was apparently very much gratified and interested in viewing the action of the machine, and at having its various parts exhibited and explained. He also evinced much scientific and practical knowledge by his pertinent remarks and inquiries. On taking leave he took Professor Page's hand in both of his, and congratulated him handsomely upon the greatness of his invention and the advantages it promised.—Wash. Int.

These objects are of great importance, and will doubtless claim your special consideration.

In consequence of a letter addressed to me by the Foreman and First Assistant of Vigilance Fire Company No. 3, (herewith enclosed), showing that a two story house could be erected for the sum of five hundred dollars, I deemed it proper, upon the consultation with the Surveyor, to postpone the contract for building said house, as directed by the resolution of your honorable body under date of 10th September last, and to submit the same for your consideration.

I also hand you enclosed, a communication from the Board of Health relative to the [illegible] and dismissal of Health Wardens &c., to which I would direct your attention.

On motion of Mr. Fabre said resolution was referred to the police committee.

The President stated that the first thing in order was the election of the 2nd Lieutenant.

Mr. Ramos moved to postpone said election. Said motion was rejected. Mr. Lyod moved to proceed to said election.

City Intelligence.

A Mistake.—We wish to correct an error into which we were unintentionally led yesterday, in stating that Mr. B. Bernardas was charged before Recorder Genois with keeping a disorderly house. Mr. B. was simply accused with having permitted some negroes to assemble in his Coffee-house, and the prosecution in this case has not been decided as yet.

Assault with a Club.—John Dunn was brought up yesterday before Recorder Caldwell on the charge of having assaulted and beaten Catharine Noon with a club. He was remanded for examination.

Stealing Watches.—Samuel Jozevich was arrested Tuesday night in the Second Municipality on the charge of having stolen two gold watches from the store of Mr. Williams in Circus st. One of the watches has been found in the possession of the accused who was remanded for examination.

Assaults.—Numerous parties were brought up yesterday before Recorder Caldwell charged with assaults, misdemeanors &c. Most of them were of no account, and certainly not of the slightest interest to our readers.

Painful Suicide.—We are pained to relate that Mr. Francisco Coulon, an old resident of this city, committed suicide yesterday morning by throwing himself into the well of the yard adjoining his residence. His body was speedily recovered, but life was already extinct.

Larceny.—A man named F. A. Elrich was arrested yesterday in the First Municipality on the charge of having stolen a silver watch from John H. Poppe. There is some mystification in the charge, but the accused has given bail to appear for examination.

Pilfering.—Catherine McDonald and Theresa Freigle were arrested yesterday by the First Municipality Police, in the act of stealing potatoes and cotton from the Levee. Recorder Genois is determined to put a stop to this system of petty pilfering, and he accordingly committed both of these women to the work house.

Assault on a Watchman.—D. Backinghas a Watchman of the First Municipality appeared yesterday before Recorder Genois, and stated that at about 9 o'clock in the morning whilst on duty at the corner of Barrack and Bourbon streets, he was attacked by a crowd of fifteen or twenty individuals, who without any provocation on his part gagged him, took away his rattle, and dragged him a distance by means of a rope which they threw around his neck. The worthy watchman informed the Recorder that he would have been choked but for the extraordinary resistance which he made. None of the names of the assailants are given, but the Watchman says he can recognise them, and accordingly a warrant has been issued.

Disturbing the Peace.—N. Parkovich and Mrs. Mahon was brought up yesterday before Recorder Genois, charged with disturbing the peace. They gave bonds to conduct themselves more quietly in future.

Breach of Trust.—John McDonough made an affidavit yesterday before Recorder Genois, setting forth that on the 1st July last, he entrusted to one Marcelin Michel, representing himself as a broker, the sum of $125 for the purpose of purchasing warrants of the city of Lafayette, which deponent required to pay taxes. Since then Mr. McDonough states that he has been unable either to obtain warrants or money, and therefore has good reasons to believe that Marcelin Michel has appropriated the funds to his own use. The Recorder issued a warrant for the arrest of the accused.

Slapped.—Louise Esperance, a colored woman complained to Recorder Genois yesterday, that she had been abused and slapped in the face by a man named Charles. The police have accordingly directed their researches in quest of Charley.

Kicked.—John Campbell made an affidavit yesterday before Recorder Genois setting forth that on Tuesday night he was assaulted and kicked by James Brooks. A warrant was accordingly issued.

Assault and Battery.—Complaints were instituted yesterday before Recorder Genois, against Frederick Hammersmith, Henry Vinas and Benj. Dolnage, severally charged with assault and battery on various individuals. They have not yet been arrested, but the necessary warrants are out.

COMMERCIAL.

The Markets.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 2.

It was rumored this morning that later accounts had been received from England showing a further decline of ⅛d. in the Liverpool Cotton market.—Notwithstanding this, the demand in our own market continues good, and 1,300 bales were taken today at steady prices. We quote Middling to Good Middling, 12⅞@13c.

The market on the other side is languishing evidently under the effects of the disinterested estimates of the crop recently forwarded from the United States, but more especially from New Orleans. Our readers will scarcely believe it, but we assure them of the correctness of the fact, that advices have lately gone forward estimating the growth currently at 2,500,000, and in one or two instances at 2,800,000 bales. This is undoubted, and we have the facts at hand to prove that this is no random assertion. It surprises us greatly, not so much to find that parties are anxious to convict themselves of a wilful falsehood, but that reasonable beings are extant who are disposed to put faith in such stale devices. Well informed persons—and we pretend to rank with that class—are puzzled, not as regards the largeness of the crop, but rather in placing an approximative estimate on its deficiency. In thus speaking, we do not of course compare with last year's yield, though it [illegible] by the short production of last season, will probably be nearest the truth. We have a mass of information on the subject of the growth, and shall in a few days reduce it to figures. It is superfluous perhaps to add that they will differ hugely from the estimates above cited.

We deem it almost needless to observe that the Liverpool market must shortly recover from the unnatural depression caused by false information. The estimates we have named above cannot stand the test of scrutiny, and we say so with no fear of [illegible] production in the face even of the last two months of our expected dry weather. The present temperature, and absence of all rain, will [illegible] of a fortnight hence, or if not, we [illegible] before the purpose of proving that a good [illegible] if the one cury from 90 to 96 degrees, coupled with a lack of moisture are not, vulgarly speaking, "the things they are cracked up to be" for the Cotton plant. For the present we will simply close with the remark, that despite the unfavorable advices from abroad, and the Leviathan estimates of the crop, buyers are operating in a brisk market at 12⅞ @ 13c. for Middling, causing to lay down in Liverpool ⅛d. above the last quotations.

Sales of Sugar and Molasses are confined to small lots at former prices.

The Flour market is dull, sales to-day limited to at yesterday's figures. Nothing of consequence is doing in Corn.

There is a better feeling in the Provision market. Mess Pork is worth $10 50 in large lots, and $10 75 @ $10 87, retail. Prime $9 00 @ $9 25. Lard in fair request; about 1,000 kegs were sold yesterday at 6 [illegible]

Whiskey [illegible] moderate extent at 21⅞ @ [illegible]

Exchanges [illegible] as quoted, with a light demand. Sterling, 10 @ 10⅝. Francs, 5f. 25 @ 5f. [illegible] Bills on New York at 60 days, 1¾ @ 2¼ per cent. discount. Checks, par @ ¼ per ct. discount.

There is no alteration in Freights.

AUG. ST. DIZIER & J. B. GLESSNER.

To Members of the Louisiana Bar.

The undersigned has the following works relating to the laws of Louisiana [illegible]
ROBINSON'S [illegible]
Embracing the Acts of the Legislature from 1804 to 1841 [illegible] Decisions of the Supreme Court [illegible]

GREINER'S CODE OF PRACTICE [illegible]
In this work the Acts of the Legislature which are amendatory of the Code [illegible] References to the Decisions of the Supreme Court [illegible] of practice makes this Code of Practice [illegible] to the lawyer.

GREINER'S LOUISIANA DIGEST.
Embracing the Acts of the Legislature from the year 1804 to 1841, inclusive, with an Abstract of the Decisions of the Supreme Court [illegible] in the form of articles, and numbered. By this means is secured the greatest possible facility of reference and the book is adapted to the use of lawyers by the clearness and simplicity [illegible] rendered compact, concise, and portable.

BENJAMIN & SLIDELL'S DIGEST, enlarged.
Here will be found a Digest of all the Decisions of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, down to the 13th volume of Louisiana Reports, arranged with an uncommon skill and ability. It has been truly said of this work, that "there is no one of the States a Digest of Reports better condensed and collected."

DESLIX'S DIGEST.
This is a continuation of Benjamin & Slidell's Digest, and is brought down to the 3d volume of Robinson's Reports. Its execution is after the same plan as the above, and its usefulness will easily suggest itself to lawyers to whom reports, without digests, are nearly useless.

DESLIX'S GENERAL INDEX, from 1809 to '43.
This is a very useful compilation, but one which from some cause, has been inadequately appreciated. No one can doubt the utility of a work comprising, as this does, an alphabetical arrangement of all the cases decided during the above mentioned long period, a designation of the numbers of the articles of the several codes of Louisiana which the Supreme Court has been called upon to examine from the date of the organization of the said courts until the year 1843 with the names of the cases so decided; and also a Tableau of the Articles of the Louisiana Civil Code, corresponding to the Code Napoleon, et vice versa.
