Pianos and Harmoniums.

A. PERIER,

310 Royal St., between Ursuline and St Philip, HAVING just returned from France, informs his customers and the public that he has on hand a large assortment of Pianos from the manufactories of Pleyel, Erard & Dehain which he offers for sale at reduced prices.

PICALOS of the largest sizes containing seven octaves, with three strings superior to any iron work, imported for the first time to this country.

DEBAIN'S SELF-ACTING PIANOS, 7 octaves. With these new Pianos, a person, the most ignorant of music can play any Overture, Polkas, Mazurkas, great Variations, and music of any kind.—The most difficult pieces can be played at sight, and professor could not execute will be easily performed with this new instrument. The presence of an artist will no longer be required to facilitate soirees, balls or evening parties.

Purchasers are cautioned against mistaking these pianos for the organ pianos, to which is adapted a self-playing apparatus. This last style of Harmoniums are the Author's manufactory and will be sold at moderate prices.

Mr. Flandrin, Piano and Organ tuner will undertake to tune and keep pianos, organs and harmoniums. Apply to Mr. Perier, 310 Royal street, between St Philip and Ursuline. d30
