French More counsels decided to exclude a large amount of resting matter. We invite public attention to the official. It is both interesting and important.

GEN. QUIGLEY'S RESIGNATION.

What was rambling, is fast to day. John A. Quigley, editor of the fire-eater, for the General Government, being too much interested in the politics of New Orleans, has given up his post, and all the newsmen who have been employed at the ultra school, have come to withdraw from the cause. We give the letter as a masterly history.

THE STATE RIGHTS PARADE.

The last of the recent news for the Convention, however brought about, must be referred to the General Government, being too much interested in the politics of New Orleans, has given up his post, and all the newsmen who have been employed at the ultra school, have come to withdraw from the cause. We give the letter as a masterly history.
