FROM HAVANA.

The bank which arrived yesterday from Havana, having lost out on the 20th of September, reports everything quiet in that city. On the 18th two more men were hanged in the public square, the names of Los Pozos and Bahia Honda. They were persons who had been arrested in the neighborhood of Havana, and were found in the neighborhood of the city.

The current news from Havana, as we learn from the 20th, with the Hon. Mr. Llanos on board, the U. S. steamer Saratoga was to leave on the 22d for Vera Cruz.

New Books—Our thanks are due the publishers, through J. C. Monro, of the Literary Depot, for the following publications:

The American Journal of Medical Science, for July—the ablest periodical of the kind published in this country, and invaluable to the profession. (Blanchard & Co., publishers.)

Review of an Old Maid, embracing important hints to young men. This is a pungent, full of fun and not without a wholesome tendency. The very suggestive and enough to drive away the spleen. (Dewitt & Davenport, publishers.)

A charming story of domestic life, with an analysis of woman's heart, as any woman may have it. (Blanchard & Co., publishers.)

Leaves from the Journal of a Young Man, by Louis Armand, or the Railroad of Life. This clever and spirited story by the author of Leaves from the Journal of a Young Man, is a most interesting and well told tale. (Dewitt & Davenport, publishers.)

Novel Drama for the Stage, by J. C. Monro. This is a most interesting and well told tale. (Dewitt & Davenport, publishers.)
