to F. WEISS, Proprietor.
NO. 83 CHARTRES STREET.

Terms of the Bee.

DAILY PAPER, (one year in advance) $12 00
COUNTRY PAPER, semi-weekly, (one year in advance.) 5 00
A'll cases the subscriber must give one week's notice in writing before he can be allowed to discontinue.

The New Orleans Bee.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE ..... NEW-ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 14, 1851.

No 1610 Vol. V—NEW SERIES.
Vol XXX—Whole No 6005.

RATES OF ADVERTISING
One dollar for every TEN lines for each language on the first insertion, and fifty cents for each subsequent one. No Advertisement inserted for less than one dollar on each language.
☞ Advertisements in all languages will be charged one dollar for every TEN lines for each language for each insertion.
☞ The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to advertisements strictly within the line of their business, and to extend to one square every other day.

The New-Orleans Daily Bee.

Official Journal of the State, General Council, First Municipality and Board of Liquidators.

Friday Morning, Nov. 14, 1851.

The NORTHERN MAIL came through yesterday with the latest dates.

THE PRESIDENCY.

The Delta has an article on Presidential prospects in Louisiana, in which that journal says we candidly and clearly enough the state of things here in reference to the several Whig and Democratic aspirants for the office of Chief Magistrate of the Union. We have no doubt whatever, that among the Whigs of Louisiana, MILLARD FILLMORE is their first choice. There is a sentiment of pride among the Whigs of this State which leads us them to rally around their distinguished Statesman. They were the first among the people of the South, to vindicate him from the aspersion of being an Abolitionist; they defended him from slander, advocated his election as Vice President with unusual warmth established a formidable political association which bore his name, and fought the battle at 1848 almost as much under the auspices as under those of Gen. TAYLOR. Mr. FILLMORE, as President, has proved himself to be what the Whigs of Louisiana ever declared him—a Northern man with National principles. His course on the Slavery, Compromise and Union questions has endeared him to the party here, and they would labor in behalf of his election, should he receive the nomination for President, with an earnestness and enthusiasm which no other candidate would be likely to call forth. Mr. WEBSTER possesses in a high degree the confidence of the party in Louisiana, but MILLARD FILLMORE lays claim to higher considerations.

The Presidential campaign of 1852 will be a closer run one. Here we are within six weeks of the end of '51, and no one can say who will be the nominee on either side. The anti-Whig feeling, but may nevertheless be an extremely spirited canvass

LOUISIANA ELECTIONS

In the Parishes of Caddo, De Soto, Ouachita and Natchitoches, PORTER, the democratic candidate, is said to have received a majority of 616 votes. This would leave BOTHICK about 40 votes ahead, with 4 precincts yet to hear from. We fear Bothick's is beaten, or if he has succeeded, he is the slimest majority possible. The parishes yet to come in are Bossier, Bossier, Claiborne, Caldwell, Catahoula, Concordia, Jackson, Carroll, Franklin, Morehouse, Union, Ouachita, Sabine, Vernon, Lincoln, Morehouse may go back in a mass on a red Sabine, Vernon, Lincoln, Union, Claiborne, Caldwell and Franklin are usually close. The others will go heavily for PORTER.

Annual court martial has been ordered to convene at the navy yard, Brooklyn, for the trial of one of the crew of the steamer Hancock, charged with mutiny. A court of inquiry is also ordered to assemble at the same place, at the request of an officer—to investigate the truth of certain reports affecting his courage during the late war with Mexico.

The Spanish Government have, in a dispatch very recently received, intimated, as I learn from good authority, that the American prisoners will, through the Captain General of the Sechoopah Isles of 1847, which latter however, are fast running to ruin. In making provisions for the payment of these liabilities, it should be borne in mind that Bonds, as to maturity there, as to make the entire sum available and lightly on the tax payers. It could be expected that the entire debt would be liquidated forthwith, but the conditions of the Bonds are such as to allow for any arrangement to the Corporation, as a general rule, prefer to pay their debts as soon as possible, and are always willing to do so, and in justice the former should be released from a portion of the debt, which has been released from a portion of the debt, which has been released from a portion of the debt, which has been