THE NEW YEAR.
The year has begun in a quiet and uneventful manner. The political scene is somewhat unsettled, but the general feeling is one of confidence. The Executive has been successful in his efforts to secure the cooperation of the Legislature in the passage of the measures proposed by him.

CONGRESS.
The House of Representatives has passed several important bills. The most notable of these is the bill for the relief of the distressed and laboring classes of the city of New Orleans. This bill is a landmark one, as it provides for the establishment of a permanent fund for the relief of the poor.

PROGRAMME OF THE YOUNG MEN'S ASSOCIATION.
The Young Men's Association of New Orleans has issued a programme for the coming year. The programme is one of the most ambitious ever issued by the association, and it contains many interesting and valuable items.

COMMERCIAL.
The commercial scene in New Orleans is one of activity. There has been a steady increase in the volume of trade since the beginning of the year. The prices of the principal commodities have also advanced, and the general feeling is one of optimism.
