THE DAILY BEE.

JOURNAL OF THE STATE, GENERAL GOVERNMENT, BOARD OF LIQUIDATORS, AND BOARD OF DELIBERATORS.

Thursday Morning, Jan. 29, 1852.

The Message was received yesterday from the Governor.

The Message, relative to [illegible] and Mr. Robb's Consolidation Bill.

THE MUNICIPALITIES.

THE CONSOLIDATION BILL.

We have read with much attention the Message of the Governor, presented to the Legislature this morning, relative to the affairs of the three municipalities, and the Consolidation Bill, which has been presented by Mr. Robb. The Governor, in the first part of his message, has entered into a very able examination of the financial condition of the three municipalities, and has presented a clear exposition of the [illegible] of each of the municipalities, and of the [illegible] of the State, in connection with them. In this part of his message we perfectly coincide with the Governor in his views and opinions, and refer those of our readers who have not yet had an opportunity of perusing the message, to the same, as it will there find a clear and lucid exposition of the financial affairs of the municipalities, and of the State, in connection with them. We also perfectly coincide with the Governor in his views relative to the [illegible] of the State, and to the necessity of [illegible] to the Legislature, in order to [illegible] the [illegible] of the State, and to [illegible] the [illegible] of the State, and to [illegible] the [illegible] of the State, and
