CONGRESS.

The Baltimore Patriot of the evening of the 4th contains a partial account of the proceedings of Congress on that day.

In the SENATE, Mr. Houston moved that the Senate take up the resolution censuring the Indian Agent "Col. Fitzpatrick." He (they) knew the circumstances of the removal of the Indians, and knew that the charges were false. Mr. Houston read the letter of the Secretary of the Interior, dated 1849 for the removal of the Indians, and the reasons of public officers for removal.

From the military considerations in Mexico, Mr. Houston could not consent to the withdrawal of the troops at present.

Mr. Underwood said he had nothing to say on the subject of Fitzpatrick, but he was opposed to the passage of the resolution.

Mr. Houston said that Fitzpatrick was not a public officer, but a private agent.

Mr. Underwood said that Fitzpatrick was a public officer, and he was opposed to the passage of the resolution.

Mr. Houston's motion was then agreed to, and the resolution was taken up.

Mr. Dodge, of Iowa, said that Fitzpatrick was appointed at the last session, when he was not present. He was opposed to the resolution.

Mr. Houston said that Fitzpatrick was appointed by the President, and was not a public officer.

Mr. Underwood said that Fitzpatrick was a public officer, and he was opposed to the passage of the resolution.

Mr. Houston's motion was then agreed to, and the resolution was taken up, and the question was on the amendment of Mr. Underwood.

Mr. Underwood withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Houston moved to amend the resolution by striking out the words "Indian Agent" and inserting "Commissioner of Indian Affairs."

Mr. Underwood said he had no objection to the amendment.

Mr. Houston's amendment was then agreed to, and the resolution was passed.

Mr. Pratt, Senator elect from Maryland, was then introduced and qualified.

Mr. Seward presented a memorial from the Chamber of Commerce of New York, in favor of the improvement of the Hudson River.

Mr. Clay presented the petition of Thomas Jefferson Page, praying for the publication of his report of explorations on the Rio Grande.

Mr. Clay presented the petition of Mrs. Mary Ann Randolph Carter, praying for the confirmation of her claim to a tract of land in Virginia
