HENRY CLAY.

The anniversary of the birth-day of HENRY CLAY, was colobrated by his friends is New York, on Monday, the 18th inst., with great apirit and forvor. The members of the Clay Feativel Association had a grand dinner in the evening at Apollo Hall, when some hundreds were present, and the whole of the proceedings manifested the respect and veneration extertained for the great Estateman. The first of the regular toasts was as follows:

"The 19th of April, 1777.

The Birth-day of the Mm, who Is not for a day, but for all time."

Its announcement was received with every demonstration of estatesiasm, there following cheer, and the whole company joining in singing an appropriate original song. Letters of apology were then read from Henry Clay, Hon Millard Fillmore, Hon. Danfell Webster, Hon. Wm H Grabsum, Hon. C M Conrad and Hon. Washington Hunt.

The second regular toast was then announced: We have seen it announced that then. Housin has returned home lately on account of anther accession to his family—a daughter.
