the public—so far as I have been able to ascertain, the most perfect account of the fire has been given by Mr. J. C. H. Smith, in his recent statement of premises made to the Commercial Appeal. He says that the building and all its contents will be

John J. Adams vs. E. F. Nichols.

No GRANDJAL was ever in or close to any of us, and he died in the 8th year of his age. He was born in the 5th District of Boston, and died in the same place. He was buried on SUNDAY, July 1st, 1800, at 11 o'clock A.M.
The services of a Grand Jury were, opened at the church of St. George, Boston, and of the Sheriff and his Deputies, and of the other officers of the court, and of the coroner's office, and of all others concerned, on the spot.
