It will be seen that Mr. T. re-asserts, in a dissipat and pointive manner, that Mr. Weareers designed that the Whig party should sustain the nothination made by the Convention, and expresses his surprise at the "satherised statements" of the Boston press to the cohverary. There is an error or a falsehood somewhere, and we do not believe that it lice either with Mr. TALEMADO or Mr. WEBTER. The latter sever cats his words, and the former is one of the most respectable spizzens of New York—an ardent friend of the gost States man, and a man of high personal hours and in tegrity. It is more than probable that the Boston papers which have undertaken to deay the statement of Mr. TALEMADO, have spoken has tily and without a full understanding of Mr. Butleman, and the statement of Mr. TALEMADO, have spoken has tily and without a full understanding of Mr. Butleman, and a missing should be supported by the prayers and emocragement of the whole Locofoce party are snaged in a desperate effort to induce Day BEL Wester to lend his mighty same for the purpose of shattering and distunction by the India Ordential of the whole Locofoce party are snaged in a desperate effort to induce Day BEL Wester to lend his mighty same for the purpose of shattering and distunction being the Whig party. Circulars have been despatched all over the Union, miving the admirers of Mr. Wester R. These communications have no succustor, they emanate from we know not whom, but their authors are evidently asliamed to append their market to this base plot against the unity and integrity of the Whig party.

There are two considerations connected with the movement, which cannot fail to suggest themselves to every reflecting soind. First, what must be the obvious and inevitable effect of the somination of Mr. Wesser R. supposing it to be seriously made, accepted by the non-ince, and acquireced in by his friends Ig. The only answer to the query is, that it is intended to compass the defeat of Gen. Scort, without in the slightest mas on account of better health prevailing on that ride.

It is figured that if W rassys he run as an independent candidate, he would take away from both sides 6tates emogh to throw the Presidential election into the House, where he would attand a better chance. This is the merest monoshine. We should like to know in what Democratic State Mr. Wassyra could possibly heat Gen. Pirrar — in Misine. New Hampshire, Illinois, Virginia, Arkanasa, South Carolina, Toxas, Wisconsin, Iowa, Indiana! The idea in preposterous. In many, if not all those States, his friends could not muster strength enough to form an electoral ticket, and if they could, the indianate he may be supported by the control of the preposterous. Be many, if not all those States, his friends could not muster strength to be abstract with the states of the could not muster strength to be a supported by the strength of the could not be supported by the strength of the preposterous. The Chair having decided that the report was in order, Mr. Strony appealed against this decision, when a motion was made to lay the appeal upon the table, and the yeas and mays having been ordered, the decision of the Chair was statisticed—year 10s, mays 60.

Mg. Stuart, of Michiesia, submitted a bill for the improvement of the navigation of the Illimoir river. He said that he would prefer that shift, having far their object the improvement of the advertise and rivers, abould be subdivided and referred to appropriate committees; but which he decimed impracticable, and expressed himsisted that Concress has the power to provide ke internal improvements, and attributed the failure of bills on that subject hitherto to the introduction of those which were not of a national character. national character.

He grounded his support of the bill upon the right which Congress passesses to provide for internal improvements, from the provision when authorizes it to recultor the navy and commerce of the country. Mr Polis, he said, retoed the Harbor and River fill on the ground that it con-

I the country. Mr. Paik, he said, vetted the Harbor and River fill on the ground that it contained and River fill on the ground that it contained and River fill on the ground that it contained and proper countries. The depreciation is an extra declared that the Democratic party never, and never would be opposed to the harbor and river improvements.

He deprecated as untrue the statement that Mr. Pierre was opposed to such improvements, and reviewed his Congressional serion on the subject, and defended his conduct, and reviewed the course pursued by the present administration. He concluded by moving to refer the bill to the Committee on Commerce, after referring in the losses sustained on the Lakes, owing to the exposed state of the coast.

On motion of Mr. Houston, of Alsbama, the bill was laid on the table.

Mr. Houston, Chairman of the Committee of the Ways and Wesses, moved to choose the debate on the Indian Appropriation bill, which he said has to present a surface of 300 against containing the committee of the Ways and Wesses, moved to choose the debate on the Indian Appropriation bill, which he said has the middle and the said of the table of the Committee of the Ways and Wesses, moved to choose the Bodies of the Committee of the Ways and Wesses, moved to choose the Bodies of the Committee of the Ways and Wesses, moved to choose the fields and part are rapidly and with the committee of the Ways and Johnson, of Arkanasa, opposed this proposition.

Mr. Fisch, of Indiana, moved an amendment for creating to that portion of the Creek nation which remained attached to the United States during the last war with Great Britain, amounting to $10,417, and explained the nature of the claim, and the propriety of appropriating the montey.

GRAND SCOTT RALLT.—The people of the Northern frontier of the United States, are de-termined to commemorate the anniversary of the Battle of Lundy's Laue on the 27th of July, by rand mass gathering at Niagara. Invitation have been extended to the citizens of New York

The official programme says:

Civic and political organizations throughout the nation are invited to join in the celebration, and it is hoped that every State will be represented in the company of the committee with the several rational and steambest companies, for the transportation of those who may unite in the commemoration at reduced rates of fare. The committees will all in their power to secure accommodations for individuals; they will, however, be under the necessity from the great concourse anti-prized, of recommending to each district organization to make provisions in textus and camp equipage for its shelter and rations. Well shaded and was tered camping ground will be provided by the committee of arrangements.
