The estimates were founded on the exciting state of this work of the terminal product. The estimates in current of incorrect, this may be mentionate in current of incorrect, this may be mentioned that the meant necessary to conduct business safely and property, is exceedingly small in proportion to the aggregate of property; and that, as it is increased, prices three sale in the annual proportion. The increase of prices is not uniform; it is often greater in one species of property than another. The inevitable affect of such an increase is to force into the country, property from other quarters, where prices are low, to share in the advantage, and specie is experied in payment. Others take away that which circulates very where. May do not smooth a first of the Batts, and the control of the control of the Batts, and th
