THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT.

We are happy to learn that the public mind throughout our counties is being directed to this subject. It is one which appeals to every man woman and child in the land.

Some ten years since, if we remember rightly, an association was formed in the city of Washington, for the purpose of erecting by the voluntary contributions of the American people a monument to the memory of their illustrious chief. It was proposed to raise it to the height of more than 600 feet—to be of an altitude superior to the pyramids of Egypt, and surpassing in magnificence any structure of the kind of ancient or modern times. In accordance with the original plan, the main shaft has already been raised some hundred and twenty feet, composed of massive blocks from the quarries of every State in the Union, transported thither for the purpose, as well as significant tributes to greatness from foreign princes and sovereign States. The granite of New Hampshire, the marble of the Schuylkill, the native copper of Lake Superior, the auriferous quartz of the Sierra Nevada the monuments of ancient Rome, and the rocks made famous by the footsteps of Hannibal, have each contributed to the construction of the mighty pile. And is it right that it should be so; since it will be emblematic of one whose fame is commensurate with the earth, and imperishable as the everlasting hills. With an assurance of its eventual completion, the work has progressed but slowly for want of funds, and was in fact of late upon the eve of suspension.

At that critical moment, an editor of a paper at the little village of Plaquemine in this State, submitted a plan which has been received with general approbation; and we have now before us a statement of sums collected at more than twenty important points in the Union. The aggregate amount is about $7,000; and we presume, when full returns shall have been received more than double that sum will appear to have been realized. We are gratified to observe that our city ranks third on the list in the amount contributed. The sum collected here, on very imperfect notice and without any general or preconcerted effort, was $1,113 50—being, according to the Herald, just one thousand one hundred and thirteen dollars and fifty cents more than was received in the great city of New York, with all its acknowledged wealth, and its boasted population of more than half a million! And yet we have heard of no extraordinary pressure in the money market or reverses in the fortunes of individuals!

Thus far our "Louisiana mode" of obtaining money for so great a national object, has been an experiment only: but the results—limited as the effort has been—has only tended to inspire us with the confident hope that it will be hereafter pursued unto triumphant success.

A moments reflection will satisfy any one of its entire feasibility.

The whole number of votes cast at the Presidential election of 1848 was 2,877,415. Now, had each voter contributed but a single dime (all demanded by the original plan) the immense sum of Two hundred eighty seven thousand seven hundred and fourteen dollars would have been received, as large an amount, probably, as could have been judiciously expended during the last four years. In reflecting upon the vast results from such apparently diminutive beginnings, we indulge the hope, we repeat, that the example already shown may not be without its effect—that at all elections hereafter a similar course may be more generally pursued, and that but few years will elapse before the seat of our National Government will afford additional materials to swell the pride and quicken the devotion of the future pilgrim.

The character of a people is read in its monuments. Athens and Rome in their palmiest days tasked all the skill of their unrivalled artists to perpetuate the fame of heroism and virtue, and as the glory of those republics culminated from the equator, the heart of the degenerated patriot swelled with emotion while in his contemplation of the crumbling memorials of other times he recognised that virtue which could appreciate the achievements of illustrious cotemporaries. Though the memory of WASHINGTON is stamped upon the hearts of Americans in characters that time can never obliterate, yet a proper regard for our own fame should lead us to hand down to after ages some fitting memorial to the dead—in order at least to evince that we ourselves are not wholly unworthy to be the countrymen of one whom the world will in all future time delight to honor.

Whig Primary Meetings.

The WHIGS of Orleans must bear in mind that by the recommendation of the Central Executive Committee, they are required to assemble in their several wards on Wednesday next, the 24th inst., for the purpose of nominating delegates to the State Convention, delegates to the City Senatorial Convention, and candidates for representatives to the popular branch of the Legislature. In our columns, to-day, will be found several calls for primary assemblages, and it is to be hoped that by to-morrow, at the farthest, the list will include every ward in our city.

We but echo public opinion in expressing the hope that at these meetings, the respectable and intelligent Whigs of the city will attend. It is of the highest importance that the city delegation to the Legislature should embrace gentlemen perfectly qualified to perform the arduous duties which will devolve upon them, and entitled to the unreserved confidence of the Whig party. The coming session of the Legislature will be marked by labors of more than ordinary magnitude. It will be the first session of the General Assembly held in conformity to the requirements of the new constitution, and consequent upon the adoption of that instrument, and its leading object will be to adjust the whole legislative system to the principles of the organic law. This is a task that cannot be properly accomplished, save by men of experience, ability and enlarged views. None other ought to be presented to the people as candidates; and if those who are directly and vitally interested in the question will give the weight of their counsels to the primary meetings of the people, we may feel assured that none other will be selected.

It is a standing complaint that the witnesses are annually compelled by the potent influence of party ties to elect members of the Legislature who possess few of the requisite qualifications for office. While we freely admit the evil, we must insist upon it, that the remedy is in the hands of those who deplore it. Let the citizens who desire to be well and worthily represented, take a personal interest in the choice of candidates, instead of surrendering this momentous trust to cliques and caucusses; to petty combinations of a handful of zealous partizans. Let those who are immediately concerned bestir themselves, attend the ward meetings, and vote for the best men. If this be done, there will be no difficulty in finding able and popular competitors for public honors. But if, as heretofore, the entire business be given up to meagre gatherings of individuals who care for nothing but the success of some special favorite of the hour. Others have little right to murmur at events which they might readily have foreseen and prevented.

Primary assemblies only adequately represent popular opinion, when they comprise a majority of the voters of the locality in which they are convened. Let this fact be remembered by our merchants and professional men, and let them no longer hold themselves aloof from meetings, the result of which may be fraught with consequences of the greatest importance to the welfare of the community.

Dedication of the Odd Fellows' Hall.

This is the day selected by the associated Lodges of Odd Fellows of our city for the dedication of their magnificent Hall at the corner of Camp and Lafayette streets. The programme of the ceremonies is published in all the papers. There will be a grand procession and beautiful display, to be followed by the solemnities of the dedication, and an oration by ALEXANDER DIMITRY, Esq.

We are requested to state that the Hall will be open at half past eleven o'clock to day, and that seats will be reserved for ladies.

ORLEANS THEATRE.—The operatic season will open to-night, with Halevy's favorite production of "La Reine de Chypre," on which occasion Mr. Bondas, the new tenor, will make his first appearance before a New Orleans public. This gentleman comes to us with a high reputation, and from all that we can learn, the public will not be disappointed in his talent. Madame Wideman and Messrs. Genibrel and Dignet will also appear to-night. The house will no doubt be densely crowded, but in accordance with a very silly custom, stamped, however, with the seal of fashion, we expect to see but very few ladies at the Orleans this evening.

JUDGE MCWHORTER.—The Hon. George C. McWhorter is a prominent candidate for the Whig nomination for Governor. We perceive that the Louisiana Chronicle, published at St. Francisville, has expressed its preference for him, and that he has been nominated at public meetings held by the Whigs of both East and West Baton Rouge. Judge McWhorter is a great favorite among a large portion of the Whigs.

THE BEACON OF CUBA.—The first number of Mr THRASHER'S new paper appeared yesterday. It is a neat little sheet filled with well written and interesting matter.

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM PERU.

Probable Adjustment of the Guano Question—Proclamations from Commodore McCauley and the U. S. Charge on the Subject—Lieut. Gillis' Scientific Expedition—The Earthquake, &c.

Lieut. Gillis arrived at New York on Friday in the steamer Illinois, with despatches to the Government from the Pacific, relative to the Lobos Islands difficulty with Peru. The advices are to the 15th ultimo from Valparaiso. The editor of the Express, who had an interview with Lieut. Gillis, says:—

The real character of these despatches is, of course, not known, but we think we may venture to assure the public that no further difficulty on the subject need be apprehended. If not already amicably adjusted, there is no doubt they are in a fair train of settlement.

We have accounts from the Lobos Islands down to the 16th ultimo. At that time, we are informed, there were no American vessels there, and only two English ships were loading guano. The Peruvian Government had a naval force for the protection of the islands, consisting of a steamer, a brig of war, and a schooner. There were also a force consisting of more than two hundred soldiers on shore, in garrison, and to act as a guard. It is said, however, the entire force is to be withdrawn, and merely a schooner kept there to enter into contracts with the American vessels as they arrive.

As there had been no collision between the vessels or people of the two countries, the excitement in Peru touching the claims set up by the United States, which had previously existed, had pretty much died away.

Commodore McCauley, with the U. S. frigate Raritan, (at Callao on the 13th ultimo,) was to sail for the United States on the very next day. The fact that his presence on those waters was deemed no longer necessary is looked upon as all but conclusive evidence that, whatever difficulty there was at first, apprehended, has now blown over.

The despatches from the American Charge at Lima are understood to contain propositions from the Peruvian Government of such a nature as hardly to leave a doubt of a final settlement of the question on a basis satisfactory and honorable to both parties.

Lieutenant Gillis represents the political aspect of affairs in Chili and Lima as threatening in the extreme. A revolution was impending, and there was no saying how soon it would break out. Everybody was expecting it, and everybody accordingly seemed to be preparing for it.

Lieutenant Gillis returns home from Lima after an absence of nearly three years. He went out there, it will be remembered, to superintend an astronomical observatory, the instruments of which were provided by the United States Government. Many valuable astronomical facts and discoveries, are the products of this enterprise, and the public will have the benefit of them, in detail, before long. The discoveries that have been made, in the meantime, we may add, redounded to his own credit, and to the honor of his country, which has had the enterprise thus far to push its scientific investigations. The prideipal object to be attained by this astronomical expedition, was the determination of the sun parallax by a new method, distinct from that employed in the past century, and which, from numerous simultaneous observations in the other hemisphere, promises to afford great exactitude to this important datum of our planetary system.

The labors of Lieut. G., however, have not been confined to this point alone, in proof of which we may state he brings home with him some 40,000 observations relative to the position of stars surrounding the south pole, for the formation of a new catalogue of stars; an extensive collection of observations relative to the motions of the moon, and meteorological observations made day and night for an uninterrupted period of three years.

Reference has been made to an earthquake at Valparaiso, on the 2d of October, and also another on the 7th. The amount of damage was not ascertained, but was supposed to be very great, as the shock on board the Raritan was severely felt.

Lieut G. has not been able to give any information of importance relative to the earthquake. The convulsion occurred the night after he left in the British steamer Bogota, and the news was communicated to him by Com. McCauley, of the frigate Raritan, which vessel sailed from Valparaiso two days after the steamer, and arrived in Callao as the Bogota was taking her departure for Panama. It was said to be a sad calamity, however.

At Valparaiso, October 14, four men were shot in the "plaza," for having expressed revolutionary ideas, when slightly under the influence of liquor.

The Panama Star of the 30th October, publishes the following proclamation, received through Mr. Corwine, United States Consul:

A PROCLAMATION.—To all whom it may concern—Whereas it appears that a number of vessels said to belong to citizens of the United States, have been chartered to proceed to the Islands of Lobos, for the purpose of taking in cargoes of guano, I have to inform all such, that I have been instructed by my government at Washington, to abstain from protecting any vessels of the United States which may visit these Islands for purposes forbidden by the decrees of the Peruvian government; and I am forbid from aiding or abetting any citizens of the United States who may forcibly resist the execution of the laws of Peru.

Given under my hand, on board the U. S. frigate Raritan, on the 9th day of October, 1852.

C. S. MCCAULEY,
Commander-in-Chief of the United States Naval Forces in the Pacific Ocean.

J. Randolph Clay, the American Charge at Lima, has also issued a proclamation on the Lobos difficulties, in which he declares that upon the payment of fees, American vessels will be allowed to load at the Lobos Islands with guano. After quoting the countermanding order, given to Com. McCauley by the Secretary of State, the Charge (J. R. Clay,) goes on to say:

"Now, therefore, the undersigned, Charge d'Affaires of the United States of America to the Republic of Peru, having in view the interest of both nations, and being desirous of preventing any collision, encounter or dispute between the masters, captains and crews of vessels belonging to the citizens of the United States arriving at the said Islands of Lobos, and the Peruvian authorities and forces stationed there, hereby warns the said masters, captains and crews to abstain from using any acts of violence or force to obtain guano from said Islands, but on the contrary, if duly notified by the authorities not to load guano there, that they proceed with their vessels to other destinations, or to the port of Callao, where they will be chartered in due form by the agents of the Peruvian government to carry guano for its account; or where they can await the further orders of the owners of said vessels, it it be the will of said masters or captains so to wait, in preference to accepting a charter."

The Charge also reiterates the opinion that any attempts on the part of the citizens of the United States, or by the vessels belonging to them, to take guano forcibly from these islands, must, under the circumstances, be considered unwarrantable and illegal, inasmuch as our citizens are not justified in using excessive measures to the prosecution of commerce.

ARRIVAL OF THE EMPIRE CITY.

The United States Steamship Empire City, H. Windle, Commander, has arrived. She left New York on the 12th November and arrived at Havana on the 18th at 7 A. M., and left at 1 P. M.

The Crescent City was allowed to land her passengers and mails, but was forbid returning if Mr. Smith came in her. The following is a list of passengers by the Empire City from New York:

J Lobbott, lady and child, Mrs Duncan Miss Duncan, two Miss Maybias, Robt Whipple, J T Buttleworth, D Shubbleield and lady, Mr Benache, lady and three children, B Chew, Miss A Swan, Miss L P McCall, Mrs C Adams, three children and two servants, Miss Hence, Jos Smith, Mr Whitback, lady and servant, Mrs Mallory, infant and servant, Miss Barlow, J A Williams, W A James, Thos W Reed lady and infant, Mrs Gale, E Gill Mrs Harris, John B Howell M McHugh, T Mallory and wife, S Ward and son, D G Temple and lady, Mr Moss, wife and two children, F Williams, B Woodruff, Mrs Mix and child, H Wabbott, J B Cronan, T L VanFossom, J Jackson and sister, Miss Herring, G F Fanchild, and 27 in the steerage.

From HAVANA.—F Puig, lady and two servants, J M Caballero, A P Atocha, J Rebas, D Bornio, S Fernandes, M Gomez, Miss A Dew, Madame Telegay, Y Pallon.

A LEGAL QUESTION.—The editor of the N Y. Courier and Enquirer, raises a legal objection to the mode of conveyance proposed for passengers bound up Salt River. The contract was that they should be "rowed up Salt River." The Locofocos, therefore, who are bound to furnish transportation, have no right to charter steamboats and railroads. We have a right to insist on the terms of the contract.

A DOUBTFUL STORY.—A Boston correspondent of the Woonsocket (R. I.) Patriot tells this remarkable story about Jenny Lind: that differences have sprung up between her and her husband, and that she has become insane! The writer gives Sontag as his authority. He says, "I have it from Sontag herself, who sojourned in the same city with Lind for several months, previous to coming to America, and visited her mansion almost daily."

☞ The Scioto (Ohio) Gazette reports a sale of improved short horn cattle, at which higher prices were realized than was ever before paid for the same number of cattle, at least in this country. Sixteen animals were sold at the aggregate price of $21,781. One bull, "Nobleman," was sold for $2,510.

☞ The Philadelphia papers say that the fall returns show a Whig majority of four on joint ballot, which, of course, secures to that party the Senator.—Ex.

Such may be the consequence in Delaware, but we appeal to Mr. SOULE, that such is not always the case in Louisiana.

PENMANSHIP AND BOOK-KEEPING.—Young men in want of business are referred to the advertisement of DOLBEAR'S Academy, 106 Canal street, (old No. 56.) Strangers are invited to call.

CREDIT SALE OF A FINE ASSORTMENT OF CLOTHING JUST RECEIVED FROM NORTHERN MANUFACTORIES.—The attention of the trade is called to the sale of upwards of 200 lots of seasonable Clothing which will take place THIS DAY, at 10 o'clock, A. M., by J. B. Meslie & Co., Auctioneers, No. 77 Chartres street.

Terms liberal and sale without reserve.

THE ABOLITION VOTE.—Full returns from some of the States, and estimates based on partial returns from other States, justify the belief that the aggregate vote for John P. Hale, at the recent Presidential election, was in the neighborhood of 150,000. In 1848, Van Buren received 291,263; showing a diminution of more than half in four years.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

Female Gambling in Paris.

The correspondent of the Boston Atlas, thus describes the fashionable gambling of Paris:

Unhappily the fever of gambling preys here chiefly upon the fair sex; and the earliest use the bride makes of her emancipation from the thraldom of duenna, is to enjoy the delirium of that disease. Inexperienced, she is aware, she involves herself in inextricable debts, before she knows her position, and those debts must be paid by her angry husband, or she must compound them with her beauty. Judge if old men press around these tables, where youth and beauty are unconsciously staked with the money.

Fortune is blind, and it does sometimes happen that these old men, veteran players, who know every ruse of the game, whose practised memory is faithful, and "where women are not concerned, honest, worthy men," are baffled by youths endowed with no advantage but warm hearts and ready minds. At the last Chantilly races there was an instance of this. A young lady whose marriage contract bears no more distant date than last May, after spending a long honey-moon in an historical chateau, in one of the most beautiful provinces of France, made her first appearance in society as Mme ...... She already reckons one lover, who until that ball at Chantilly had never dared whisper his passion, except in safe sighs and glances. He could dance but once with her at the ball, for as soon as the first dance ceased, she hastened to the gambling table, and unfortunately for the young man, who would willingly have beggared himself to enrich her, sat opposite to a player who is as old and amorous as he is rich and experienced. He soon caught the lady in his dexterously spread meshes, and in a little time she was his debtor for $1600. As soon as she saw this she ceased playing at once; "Do not feel uneasy," whispered her creditor, with a sinister smile struggling amid the wrinkles of his antique phiz. "I never press beautiful ladies, and I hope—" The young lover who had watched with a jealous eye the whole progress of the game, interrupted the veteran's impertinent speech, coming to the lady's rescue with a tact which argues a brilliant career to him:

"I beseech you, Madame" said he, "do not take my bad luck to heart. Allow me to pay you, Monsieur, the debt Madame owes!" "Eh? Eh? What do you mean?" stammered the outwitted libertine. "Why, sir, I asked Madame to play for me; she has lost, I pay the loss. See if that's right," said he, handing across the table $1600 in bank notes. The polkas and waltzes of the winter will tell us whether the young man is suitably rewarded.

MY VOICE IS FOR "PEACE."—COCK-A-DOODLE DO!—"In the name of the French nation—I mean the French Empire—I ask and pray for peace! We want peace! What is glory? Golden smoke!"—Something after this fashion speaks Louis Napoleon at Bordeaux.

An owl in a holly bush is a familiar object of the gravely ridiculous; but the owl is beaten. Think of an eagle in an olive tree! The soaring, carnivorous bird, that, instinct with glory, smells the battle from afar, and cleaves the air, to come pounce down upon the dying. Beak and claws red wet with blood; and gorging, gorging its belly full.

But this is all over. The eagle gives up a flesh diet; and, forsaking its rocky high place, will become ever as domestic poultry. The eagle will perch, and no doubt do its best to coo in an olive tree—living upon olives as a pollparrot eats shelled almonds.

After all, it is natural that the man tired of gun-powder—especially of the civic sort that made the glory of the 2d december—as he nears the throne should desire to sit still awhile and rest himself.—And will he not have bees about him—a very swarm of golden bees—all suggestive to the imperial mind of industry, and rewardful labor, and sweet content? And, therefore, and from the very bottom of his heart—(if it has a bottom; though, from the profundity of the sympathies attributed to the man by a truth loving Church, we doubt if the bottom has ever been fathomed)—therefore does Louis Napoleon hunger for peace. "Crook me that Imperial sword into a sickle; melt me those fire-locks into ploughshares; convert me those helmets of the Imperial Guard into bee hives!" These must be the thoughts, the aspirations of the man that, like a newly-bruised eye, is fast becoming very purple.

"But how"—certain inquisitive people may ask—"how about the steam navy?"

"To be sure. There is the Napoleon, capable of transporting 5,000 troops."

"Yes; and the Austerlitz, first-rate man of war steamer, with broadside weight of metal that can splinter up Gibraltar! What are these and others on the stocks for? All for peace!"

"For peace," replied the Emperor. "Built, purely, for voyages of discovery. To discover the Gardens of the Hesperides—(aside, or the Gardens of Folkestone)—to trace the sources of the Pactolus—(aside, or the source of the Thames.) Yes! I cry peace—peace is my mission. And so believing, how I yearn to plant the olive in the Tower of London, or the forecourt of Buckingham Palace."—Punch.

KENTUCKY.—We omit our lengthy table of returns this morning, and will not insert it again until we can do so in a complete form. The Frankfort Commonwealth received last night, publishes returns from 93 counties, and makes the following—

RECAPITULATION.

| | Scott. | Pierce. | Hale. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 81 counties official | 50,721 | 46,803 | 250 |
| 12 " unofficial | 3,012 | 3,710 | |
| 93 | 53,743 | 50,513 | |
| | 50,513 | | |
| Scott ahead. | 3,230 | | |

The subjoined counties we have last heard from, officially or unofficially. At the last Gubernatorial election they voted as follows:

| | Dixon. | Powell |
|---|---|---|
| Ballard | 289 | 340 |
| Floyd | 219 | 379 |
| Harlan | 395 | 75 |
| Hickman | 134 | 358 |
| Johnson | 59 | 427 |
| Letcher | 61 | 93 |
| Monroe | 357 | 407 |
| Whitley | 422 | 203 |
| | 1915 | 2281 |

It will be seen that these eight counties gave Powell a majority of 366. Should they give the same for Pierce, and the reported votes above prove correct, Scott's majority in the State will be 2864. A gain of 136 in the eight counties will give him 3000.—Louisville Courier.

FOWL EXHIBITION.—Our exchange papers just now unerringly indicate that the Locofoco editors all over the Union have embarked extensively in the chicken business, and are holding a grand exhibition of their crowing Chapmans. Though they show no cacklers, their roosters must be remarkably extensive, for not a cock flaps his wings over figures less than 100, 500, 1,000, 5,000, 10,000, 15,000, 20,000, 25,000 and occasionally still higher! The crow, too, is jubilant, defiant, and ear-Pierce-ing; and the smallest and most obscure Mexican urbantum struts and crows as if King of the dunghill flock. The chanticleers generally look well-fed and sleek, and seem to enjoy the airing after being cooped four years on the head-waters of Salt River, though occasionally one is still seen ravenously picking at the lean carcase of a curled up coon! Even such crow most sonorously, a regular jocund cock-a-doo-dle-d-o-o! while the towering Chittagongs in Ohio, Pennsylvania, and New York mount proudly the dead coon stretched over a cider barrel, and lift up their clarion voices like victorious trumpeters! This chicken mania that has so suddenly developed itself all over the country is positively distressing to a very "respectable minority," and we beseech all good Governors to hurry on Thanksgiving a week or two, and put an early stop to the universal crow.—Cleveland Herald.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—It will be recollected that in the caucus of members of the South Carolina Legislature which voted to throw the electoral vote of that State for Pierce and King, a protest was adopted declaring that that State did not acquiesce in the Compromise measures. The Legislature, it now appears, had the good sense to reject this protest. The Charleston Constitutional Union says:

"The State is thus saved the ridiculous attitude of supporting the Administration whilst seeking the overthrow of the Government.—But more important, more cheering results attach to this defeat of the protest against Mr. Pierce's Union principles. It is a proclamation that the war against the Union is at length to cease; that South Carolina is once more to come back into the Union to renew her ancient glorious loyalty, and to exercise her legitimate influence in controlling its counsels and shaping its destinies.

PREMIUMS TO INVENTORS.—Felix Ray, of N. Y., some time ago, offered prizes amounting to $3,000, for improvements in machinery for the prevention of railroad accidents, &c. One prize was $1,500 for an improvement to prevent the loss of life by collisions and the breaking of axles. Another was $800, for the best method of excluding dust from railroad cars. Another was $400 for the best brake. Another $300 for the best sleeping or night seat for cars.—These premiums were open for competition, and the competitors had their inventions on exhibition at the late Fair, the Judges being chosen by a Committee of the Institute. A very large number of improvements have been presented, which are to be submitted to a test on a large scale, before the premiums are awarded.

THE JAPANESE EXPEDITION.—This expedition will sail on or about the 1st of December, under the command of Commodore M. C. Perry. The following is said to exhibit the effective force of the squadron: The Vermont, with 96 guns and 800 men; Mississippi, 375 men; Susquehanna, 350 men; Princeton, 190 men; Allegheny, 190 men; Saratoga, 22 guns and 190 men; St. Mary's, 22 guns and 190 men; Vincennes, 22 guns and 190 men; Macedonia, 22 guns and 450 men; Porpoise, 10 guns and 120 men; Southampton, 4 guns; Lexington, 4 guns; and Tabbot, already sailed, 4 guns. Total, 206 guns and 345 men. The three last named vessels are storeships. There are to be added to the ships' companies 700 marines, which, with the complement of the storeships, officers, scientific corps, and others attached to the expedition, will make an effective force of 4,000 men and 330 guns, mostly heavy ordnance. The steamers are each to mount a couple of Paixhan shell guns of largest calibre, and placed on revolving trucks, so as to sweep the horizon. These guns are intended to be used for the discharge of shells 90 and 120 lbs. each, and long 42's, making 32 guns to each steamer. Each ship is provided with two brass 24 lb. field pieces, to be used for shells or canister shot.

☞ At a sale of wines in Baltimore, some of them brought as high as eighty dollars per gallon, or $1 25 per wine glass. The temperance lecturers tell us that many a glass of common rum has cost the purchasers more than that.

SHARP PRACTICE.—The Springfield Republican says that John Van Buren has been to Concord since the election. This is a sharp practice. There will be anything but concord in the party if John gets a place. And the same may be said if he don't get a place.

APATHY IN THE PRESIDENTIAL CONTEST.—The total vote of Maine for President, on the 2d inst., falls 12,000 short of the vote for Governor, in September, when the Maine law was the question at issue.

Telegraphic Items.

BUFFALO, Nov. 13.

THE STORM ON LAKE ERIE.—The storm ceased last night about 12 o'clock, after having raged with unprecedented violence for twenty-four hours. The Western telegraph lines are down, and much damage along the lake shore is anticipated.

The propeller reported ashore, above the lighthouse, proved to be the Sampson, owned by Mr. Sterling, of Monroe, Michigan. She will prove a total wreck. Her cargo of flour was consigned to this port.

The schooner noticed ashore at the same place, was the E. K. Bruce, owned by William Buckley, of Buffalo. Insured in the Buffalo Mutual for $4,000. She had no cargo.

The brig Flora, came flying in before the gale yesterday afternoon, and ran bow on to the pier. She was considerably damaged.

The propeller Globe, in endeavoring to make Dunkirk harbor, struck on the rocks, and will prove a total wreck.

The steamer St. Louis is reported wrecked on Island's Head Lake. She had on board cattle, hogs, and 200 barrels of flour.

A painful rumor prevailed yesterday, that the steamers Empire and Keystone State had come in collision and that several lives were lost.—Dead bodies were seen floating in the lake by the steamer America and other crafts. We are happy to state that it is supposed to be without foundation, the Empire being reported safe at Monroe, and the Keystone State, with the Ocean, Buckeye State, Empire State, and others at Dunkirk.

The bodies are supposed to be those of the hundreds drowned on the Atlantic, and now cast up from their watery graves.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 14.

DREADFUL STEAMBOAT EXPLOSION AND LOSS OF LIFE.—The Mail packet, Buckeye Belle, exploded both boilers last evening about 4 o'clock, in the locks at Beverley, 12 miles from Marietta. No ladies were injured. The killed as far as known are John Barbour, of Pittsburg, produce dealer, Jas. Daniels, engineer, John West, Edward Atherton, of Beverley, Wm. Stoll, a negro man named Butler, and 16 others. The injured are Capt. Hahn, arm broken and badly scalded, Wm. Whisson, first clerk, leg broken, and foot and anckles mashed. He will probably die. Calvin Stale, Joe Covey, leg broken, Elias Blackman and many others. The boat was torn to pieces—every flue of one boiler collapsed and the other boiler cannot be found. The accident is attributed to the gross recklessness of the engineers, one of whom was on the safety valve at the time of the explosion. The carpenter says he told the engineer there was too much steam on five minutes before the accident.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER CITY OF GLASGOW.—The steamship City of Glasgow arrived here at 5 o'clock this afternoon from Liverpool, bringing 103 passengers. She sailed previous to the Niagara, and of course brings no news.

The Bishop of Pittsburgh is among the passengers in the steamer Glasgow.

The weather to-day has been cold and blustering.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.

A WIFE MURDERED.—A lady named Treadaway, was killed by her husband on Thursday, at Hafftown, about four miles from Salem, N. J. She had sued him for a separate maintainance, and obtained a verdict in her favor. He repaired to the house where she boarded, and fired at her through the window. The ball passed through her heart, and she died instantly.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, PA. Nov. 13.

SHOCKING BUTCHERY.—Last night, a man named James Shirley, residing between Newry and Freedom, attacked his wife with a hatchet, and knocked her brains out. He is supposed to be insane.

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 13.

MURDER.—A negro employed on a schooner loading at this place, was struck on the head to-day, with a handspike, by one of the crew, killing him instantly. The names of the parties are not known. It appears that the negro refused to go on shore when ordered.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.

APPOINTMENT OF SOLICITOR OF THE TREASURY.—George F. Comstock, of Syracuse, having accepted the appointment of Solicitor of the Treasury, in the place of Clark, deceased, arrived this evening, and took rooms at the National Hotel. He will enter upon the discharge of his duties at once.

SYRACUSE, Nov. 13.

HONORS TO THE MEMORY OF MR. WEBSTER.—The obsequies of Mr. Webster took place this afternoon, when an eloquent eulogy upon the character of the deceased was pronounced by Thomas T. Davis. Large numbers were in attendance. Stores, hotels, and other buildings were draped in black, and flags displayed at half mast.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.

SNOW STORM, &c.—The weather is very cold to-day, and it is now snowing fast.

There are no signs of the steamer Atlantic, eleven days out from Liverpool.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.

DEATH OF BALTIMORE SEAMEN.—John Hodgkins, mate of the schooner Union, of Baltimore, died of fever at Gonzaives on the 14th of October. David Sewell, seaman, also died on the 26th of October.

ARREST OF THE MAIL ROBBER.—The following dispatch has just reached us:

PHILADELPHIA, Friday, Nov. 12.

In your telegraphic news of to day it is stated by your correspondent that John W. Conegys who was arrested here yesterday on a charge of robbing the mail, was conductor of the express train. This is a mistake, as Mr. Conegys was only temporarily employed by the company as a brakesman. Please rectify the error, as none of our conductors are implicated in the transaction. Respectfully yours,

G. H. HUDDEL, Agent.

MANUFACTURING ENTERPRISE.—The following eloquent extract is from a speech made at the recent agricultural fair in Northampton, Mass., by the Hon. Edward Everett:

Sir Walter Scott, in one of his poems, makes the old Monk of Melrose say to William of Deloraine, who had come to get the magic book from the toomb of the wizard—

"Warrior, I could say to thee
The words that cleft Eildon hills in three,
And bridled the Tweed with a curb of stone."

What the words were that cleft Mount Holyoke and Mount Tom in twain, is known only to him by whom "the everlasting mountains were scattered." But I can tell you sir, the words that have bridled the noble river that flows between them with a curb of stone, and have taught it, instead of wasting itself on the points of jagged barren rocks and brawling ledges, to pour through copious floodgates over the untiring wheels of productive industry. These mighty words are: Enterprise, Capital, Mechanical Skill: Enterprise to conceive the plan, Capital to furnish the means, and Engineering skill to accomplish the work. It is these, and not the fabled powers of necromancy, that have planted themselves below the falls of Hadley, having taught the mighty river to flow backwards from before their gigantic masonry, and thus laid the foundations of a city which will yet with its suburbs spread for miles along the bank, and be felt in the enhanced value of every farm in the country.

GEN. PIERCE AND CUBA.—The Boston Transcript, neutral in politics, the editor of which is a personal friend of Gen. PIERCE, speaking of the future policy of the President elect says:

"The Fillibusters have misjudged their man, if they expect to find a tool in Gen. Pierce. Distinguished for his scrupulous adherence to fair dealing in a profession, where the temptations to diverge are frequent, a sound lawyer, and so far conservative as a due reverence for law and laws can render a man—we have no fear that he will countenance illegal enterprises against other countries, or that, to secure a transient popularity, he will violate any legal or constitutional principle of our government."

The Wellington Journal, a Free Democracy sheet published in Lorain, of the highest "God and Liberty" character, thus announces the result of the Presidential election:

"The telegraph brings the following profane message:

Every d—n thing
For Pierce and King;

which is without doubt true. We have not time to give particulars at length before going to press. It is known, however, that General Scott is defeated! Hurrah! Pierce is elected! Boo-hoo."

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.—A rule was tried in this court on Saturday to set aside the forfeiture of the bond in the case of the chain on Wm. B. Cunningham, who was admitted to bail by Recorder Winter for an assault with intent to kill, and was subsequently indicted by the grand jury for murder. Bernard M Gory, the security of Cunningham, being apprehensive that the latter would leave the State made application to the Recorder for his arrest. This was refused, but the Recorder was willing to place two police officers at his disposal to assist in the arrest of Cunningham.

The Court dismissed the application on the ground that the security on a bond is made the sheriff and jailor of his principal. He needed no warrant for his arrest, nor the interposition of any magistrate or officer.

THE CASE OF GALLAGHER.—A motion was made on Saturday by C. Roselius, counsel for Gallagher indicted for the murder of Cassidy, to change the venue for the trial on the ground that public opinion in the city had been very much prejudiced against the accused. The Court would only consent to change the venue after one panel of jurors had been exhausted.

FIRST DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD.—At a meeting of this Board on Saturday evening, a communication was read from the Committee of arrangements, inviting the Board to take part in the ceremonies of the day which was set apart for the funeral obsequies of the great American Triumvirate. The boys of the Public Schools were also invited to take part in the solemn pageant. The invitation was accepted and a resolution adopted, that the 8th of December should be observed as a holiday in the Public Schools.

OBTAINING FUNDS UNDER FALSE PRETENCES.—P. J. Harbour, was arrested on Saturday last by the the First District Police, on the charge of having obtained false pretences during the year 1851, money and goods from Messrs. Comstock & Pearce to the amount of $1207. The accused obtained the credit from the house on the strength of representing that he would ship to them his crop of Sugar. He will be examined on the 10th of next month, and has given bail for his appearance.

CHARGE OF SWINDLING.—An affidavit was made on Saturday before Recorder Genois, by Emile Grandchamps, who stated that he had been swindled at a mock auction on the Levee out of the sum of $61.

FINED.—A. Murphy was fined $25 on Saturday, by Recorder Genois, for having on Friday evening, attempted to rescue a prisoner from the custody of a watchman.

Proposals for Erecting a Mint, with the necessary Machinery, at San Francisco, California.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, October 2, 1852.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this Department until the 8th day of February, 1853, for the construction of the Branch Mint at San Francisco, California, according to the plans and specifications which will be furnished, on application to the Department, to parties who may be disposed to contract. The said proposals to contain bids for the entire work, and also separately, for each distinct branch of work, the right being reserved to the Department to contract either way, as may be found the most advantageous and advisable. The Department also reserves the right of declining to make any contract if the building and machinery cannot be finished and completed for the sum of three hundred thousand dollars, to which sum the expenditure is limited by the act of Congress.

Payments will be made every sixty days on the amount of the work done and materials actually used on the building, to be ascertained by the estimates of the superintendent and architect thereof, reserving from each of such estimates and payments twenty per cent. on such estimates ... and acceptance of the building and its approval and acceptance by the Department.

Every proposal must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by two responsible persons, to the effect that they undertake that the party or parties making it, if his or their bid be accepted, shall or will enter into a contract and bond, with sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the President of the United States and the Secretary of the Treasury, in the sum of fifty thousand dollars for the faithful execution of the work; and no proposal will be considered unless it is accompanied with such guarantee.

Proposals will also be received at the same time and place for furnishing the needful machinery for said Branch Mint according to the specifications, which will likewise be furnished by the Department, and upon the terms and conditions as specified above in relation to the building, with the exception of the amount of the bond required for the faithful execution of the contract, which will be in the sum of twenty thousand dollars.

Proposals will also be received at the same time and place, agreeably to the act of Congress, for the sale, purchase or rent of a building and machinery suitable for the purpose of a Branch Mint, and upon the same conditions as specified in relation to the building. Such building and machinery to be equal in all respects to the plans and specifications referred to above for the new building, and to be capable of coining at least thirty millions of dollars annually, in a fair proportion of pieces of the different denominations, from one to twenty dollars each, as now authorized by law. If a suitable building and machinery are bought or leased under the authority to that effect granted by Congress, no contract will of course be made for the erection of a building and furnishing ... the machinery.

The bids will be opened and responded to in the presence of such bidders as may think proper to attend, and should a contract ... in the Department previous to the ... of February, 1853, ... the Department ... A decision will be made as soon as practicable after the Department has been ... to establish a Branch Mint ... of the ... of July, 1852, to establish a Branch Mint of the United States in California.

Those persons in California who may be disposed to make proposals for said building or machinery will deliver the same to the Collector of Customs at San Francisco, ... in a sealed envelope ... to be forwarded by him ... The Collector at San Francisco will be furnished with copies of the plans and specifications, for the information of those who may wish to make bids.

THOS. CORWIN,
Secretary of the Treasury.

CRYSTAL PALACE.

CIRCULAR TO AMERICAN PRODUCERS.
ASSOCIATION FOR THE EXHIBITION OF ALL NATIONS—OFFICE No. 53 BROADWAY—NEW YORK, October 11, 1852.

I ADDRESS you, on behalf of the Association for the Exhibition of the Industry of All Nations, to invite your co-operation in the general objects of the enterprise.

The building intended for the purposes of the Exhibition, constructed entirely of iron and glass, will be, it is believed, the largest and most beautiful edifice in the country. It covers, on the ground floor, two and a half acres, and, with the galleries, the whole space is four acres. The mason work is far advanced, and it is to be completed on the 31st October. The main part of the iron work is contracted for, and the columns are to be delivered from the 18th October to the 15th of December. We have it in our power, therefore, to assure you, as we have already stated to the public, that the Exhibition will certainly be opened on the 2d of May, 1853.

You are thus offered an unusual opportunity of exhibiting to the vast population of this country, all of your productions so you send us, free of all charge, of every kind whatever, from the time that they are delivered into our custody until withdrawn.

The Association has already announced, that their objects are limited exclusively to Exhibition. They have no interest whatever, direct or indirect, in the final disposition to be made of any article that may be displayed.

You are, no doubt, aware that we have received all the assistance from the public authorities that we have desired. The City has given us the lease of Reservoir square, the State has granted us a Charter, and the Federal authorities have engaged that the building shall be made a Bonded Warehouse for the purpose of receiving foreign articles without paying duty so long as they remain in it.

We have the strongest assurances of support from the representatives, in this country, of the principal Foreign Powers; and we are receiving daily confirmation of the general interest that the subject is exciting among the manufacturers of Europe. A large number of articles of high value are already entered, and we have no doubt whatever that there will be a very extensive representation of all the branches of foreign industry.

The measures which we have adopted will, thus, secure two great objects we have desired to attain, viz: the erection of a building which will be a great architectural ornament to our City, and the exhibition, in that building, of the products of the industry of the Old World; still, we shall fall far short of our mark if we do not equally succeed in obtaining the fullest and most extensive co-operation of American industry. Our Exhibition would be extremely defective—it would be very inferior, both in interest and utility, to what we mean to make it—if the great resources of the people of our own country were not fully displayed in it.

We believe it to be unnecessary to urge upon you the arguments on this subject, which we are sure will present themselves to the mind of every intelligent American producer—your position in the world of American Industry, your own interest, and what is due to an enterprise devised and meant to be carried out with no narrow views, but on a large scale of public usefulness—all entitle us to entertain the fullest conviction that you will send us some of the choicest specimens of your skill, and that you will urge your friends to do the same.

We do not doubt that such will be the result when the subject is once brought fairly and fully before you and our only reason for addressing you thus personally is, that the matter may not be overlooked in the press of daily business, and that you may give the subject attention in time to be fully prepared.

We inclose our General Circular, and also a form of Application for Space, to which we beg your attention. Copies of these or of this letter, if you desire them to send to your friends or correspondents, can be had at this office.

In order that we may know on what extent of co-operation we may depend, the favor of a reply on or before the 25th day of November is asked.

I have the honor to be, with great respect, your obedient servant, n20 — THEODORE SEDGWICK, President.

J. S. THRASHER, Editor and Proprietor.

PROSPECTUS.

ON beginning the world again, in the arduous and uncertain path of journalism, I am not wholly ignorant of the difficulties of the enterprise. But the increasing necessities for the discussion of the Cuban question, apart from the bias of other preferences, and its important bearing upon our own future policy, together with the urgent advice of friends, and the kind feeling which the people of New Orleans and of all Louisiana, have exhibited in my behalf, embolden me to undertake.

I therefore propose to establish a Weekly Paper, to be published each Sunday morning, under the title of The Beacon of Cuba.

While the advocacy of the independence of Cuba will be a prominent subject for the more serious portion of its columns, it will be my effort to present to the public

An Agreeable Sunday Newspaper.

The sheet will be of medium size, 24 columns, (a portion thereof in Spanish,) and will be published at the Camp street office of the Picayune, at the price of $2 50 a year, payable in advance. Single copies five cents. The first number will appear on Sunday, the 21st of November, and it will be regularly continued thereafter. — J. S. THRASHER.

RAILROADS.

To Railroad Contractors.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the office of the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Western Railroad Company, No. 43 Carondelet street, until the 8th of December next, for the grading, masonry, piling and bridging of that part of their road from Lake Maurepas to the line of the State of Mississippi, a distance of 54 miles.

Also, for the masonry required on the first 36 miles of road from the city of New Orleans to the lake at South Pass Manchac.

The first nine miles of the section of the State line is through the lake swamps, and includes the piling and bridging (with one draw) of the South and North passes, the remainder is through a healthy pine country.

Payments will be made in cash, with twenty per cent retained, until the completion and acceptance of the work.

Satisfactory evidence of ability will be required with proposals.

Plans and profiles will be ready for examination ten days before the letting.

New Orleans, November 9, 1852.

no9td6 — JAMES CLARKE, Chief Engineer.

New Orleans, Opelousas and Great Western Rail Road Company.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 1, 1852.

NOTICE.—Subscribers to the Capital Stock of this Company, are hereby notified that an instalment of ten per cent. will be due and payable on the 4th day of December next, and that a further instalment of ten per cent. will be due and payable on the 4th day of January next, at the office of the Company, corner of Bienville street and Exchange Alley.

By order of the Board of Directors,
o2 — BENJ. F. FLANDERS, Secretary.

New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern Railroad Company.

NEW ORLEANS, September 30, 1852.

SUBSCRIBERS to the stock of this Company are hereby notified that an instalment of ten per cent will be due and payable at the office of the Company, on THURSDAY, the 2nd day of December, 1852.

By order of the Board, JOHN CALHOUN, Secretary.

Of interest to Merchants, Clerks, Teachers, Students, and all Men.

JUST PUBLISHED—A new and complete set of rules by which all the fundamental operations of Arithmetic may be performed in an incredibly short space of time. To become a master of them will require not more than a couple hours' study of any good sound mind; and the student will thereby be enabled to Add, Subtract, Multiply, or Divide, in any sum no matter of how many figures, more accurately, (indeed, beyond the possibility of an error,) and in less than one-fourth the time required in the Old system.

These Fundamental Rules are followed by an examination into the properties of numbers, which even further facilitates the other operations.

There are also embraced in the work,

Rules for the Calculation of Interest, which will work out the interest at any rate upon any sum, with the utmost accuracy, and a simplicity and quickness fully equal to all the other operations by this, and vastly superior to all courses in the old plan.

Together, these form the most complete treatise on the science of numbers ever issued—and are incalculably valuable to all men from their never failing accuracy, and to business men from the immense amount of time they save from the most wearisome detail of business life. Particularly ought they to be in the hands of Merchants and Clerks, Teachers and Students, and young men generally.

ORDER EARLY!

☞ The copies of the few remaining hundreds of the present edition are being hurried off at a price greatly reduced from that ($5) at which the balance were sold, to make room for a new edition to be gotten up in magnificent and costly style immediately upon closing out the present one.

☞ Every purchaser is bound (as a matter of justice and protection to the copy-right(s) by his sacred pledge of honor, to use the processes for the instruction of himself only and to impart the information obtained from them to no one.

☞ To obtain the Processes it is necessary to give such a pledge, with the price, Three Dollars, enclosed in a letter post paid, directed to F. MAY MARKEY, FUNKSTOWN, WASHINGTON COUNTY, MARYLAND. The Processes will be forwarded post-paid to the given address. Be particular to write the name of Post Office, County, and State, distinctly; with those neglecting this, mistakes frequently occur.

☞ Those preferring it, can order copies of the forthcoming edition, which will be ready about the holidays. The price will be $6; orders sent before its issue will be filled as soon as the copies are ready for $3.

Local Agents Wanted

In every town, and all through the country, great numbers of copies of these Rules can be disposed of by any one who will only take the trouble to make their scope known. They comprise that which business men, and everybody, has long felt the want of, and are rapidly sought for. The nature of the business shows any one to act as Agent, and to energy success a large reward. As before explained, the business requiring privacy, orders from Agents are filled in separate sealed envelopes for delivery through their hands. When a number of three copies or more are ordered with the remittance at one time, 33 per cent. is allowed to be retained as the Agent's fee; and 50 per cent. on orders for eight copies or more.

The Verandah Billiard Saloon.

THE Subscriber takes leave to inform gentlemen amateur Billiard Players, that he has fitted up the above well known establishment for their accommodation, without regard to labor or expense, and he assures those who honor him with a call, that he will omit nothing which shall add to their comfort or pleasure.

There are two spacious, well lighted Saloons, each containing four tables, manufactured by that justly celebrated maker, Mr. B. Antognini, of this city. They are made of solid mahogany, some of them with slate beds, and the cushions of all are garnished with double india rubber, on a new principle, lately obtained from England, by Mr. Antognini. These cushions are very elastic, and are said, by billiard players, to be the best ever used.

No kind of gambling will be allowed in the saloons, and for this reason the Poole Table has been entirely excluded, the desire of the subscriber being to make his establishment the undisturbed and peaceable resort of his friends and patrons. Such a place has long been needed in New Orleans and the subscriber relies upon the patronage of gentlemen amateur billiard players to support and encourage the undertaking. — [n5] — LUCAS ORLICH.

Twenty-Five Dollars Reward.

THE above reward will be given to the person who will lodge in one of the jails of this city, the slave FARAH, belonging to Mr. Guesnonet, corner St. John Baptist and Race streets. Said slave is aged about 26 years, 5 feet high, benevolent face fine teeth and speaking French and English. Captains of vessels and steamboats are hereby cautioned not to receive her on board under penalty of the law.
