PUBLIC SENTIMENT NORTH AND SOUTH.

A day or two ago we had occasion to research the public sentiment of Northern and Southern men on the subject of the recent legislation of the North. We have been told that the Northern men are in favor of the bill, and that the Southern men are in opposition to it.
The action of the Legislature has been described as follows:

"The bill was introduced by Mr. J. L. M. Mifflin, the Builder. After visiting the body of

Mr. FLORIAN MAGRIG, who had recently died, he introduced a bill to prohibit the abolition of slavery, and ascertain the date of the death of the deceased.

The bill was introduced into the Senate, and was referred to the Committee on Slavery.

The Committee on Slavery, which is composed of the members of the Senate, and the Commmittee on Foreign Relations, and the Committee on War and Navy, voted to sustain the bill.

After the bill was introduced into the House, it was referred to the Committee on Slavery.
