VETERINARY HOSPITAL.

For all kinds of Domestic Animals and Farriery Shop.

On Bourbon, bet. Dumaine and St. Phillip sts, No 206.

M. DELRIEU, Veterinary Surgeon, graduate of the Veterinary School of France, in order to comply with the wishes of several owners of animals, has removed to the fourth square, where he has established a vast Veterinary Hospital for the recovery of sick animals. A Farriery shop conducted by skilful farriers, wherein American and French shoes works are manufactured, and under the immediate superintendence of the Veterinary Surgeon, completes this important establishment.

M. Delrieu receives subscriptions for shoeing and treatment of horses, mules, or separately.

His intercourse and correspondence with traders and planters in the North, West and this city, enable him to give information to persons who wish to purchase horses and mules.

He keeps, for that purpose, a register book in his bureau, for the sale, purchase and barter of domestic animals.
