NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 28, 1854.

THE DAILY BEE.

Tuesday Morning, March 28, 1854.

☞ For STEAMBOAT DEPARTURES see FRENCH SIDE.

☞ THE NORTHERN MAIL came through yesterday, bringing us dates from Boston and New York to the 20th, from Baltimore to the 21st, and from Charleston to the 23d inst.

☞ We are indebted to the officers of the steamer Persian for late St. Louis papers.

EX-PRESIDENT FILLMORE.

To-day the official reception of this distinguished citizen will take place, we understand, at 9 o'clock this morning, accompanied by the Committee of Arrangements, the City Authorities and invited guests, Mr. FILLMORE will repair on board the steamer Key West, which will proceed to the upper extremity of the city, thence descending as far as the battle-ground, so as to afford our guest a fine view of New Orleans. At 12 o'clock, the boat will land at the foot of Canal street, and a procession will be formed, as indicated in programme. Mr. FILLMORE will be taken to the City Hall, where the formal reception will take place, after which Mr. FILLMORE will be, no doubt, glad to exchange greetings with the citizens.

☞ We have frequently directed the attention of our readers to the boundless enterprize and indomitable perseverance of the citizens of Georgia. They have within some ten or twelve years readered that commonwealth the most flourishing in the South. Georgia possesses a superior facilities for trade and commerce over Louisiana, or other States, and her present palmy condition and increasing prosperity are entirely due to the gigantic and unwearied exertions of her own high-spirited and resolute sons. Her lands are now threaded with railroads. While counties in the North or part of the State, which were originally almost valueless and sparsely populated, have been made easily accessible, peopled by a hardy and industrious class, and yield to labor a productive return, and which readily finds a market, thanks to the iron pathway that spreads over the State.

Not in the energy of Georgia is manifest in other respects. We perceive that the single city of Savannah has now two lines of steamships to and from New York; the other to and from Philadelphia. The York lines comprise four first class vessels, viz: the Florida, the Alabama, the Augusta and the Knoxville, while the Philadelphia embraces the steamers State of Georgia and Keystone State. This is a commentary on the way in which the city of Savannah is more than keeping pace with the progress of the age, and is determined to be foremost in the race. Such a determination must, we fear, fail to emulate the spirit that is in the Empire State of the South.

☞ PROFESSOR ALEXANDER DIMITRY delivers a lecture this evening at Odd Fellows Hall, on the U. S. His subject will be "The Historians of America."

☞ We are informed by T. F. McMORRIS.—It will be a satisfaction to that, on Friday evening, this eminent writer and poet will deliver a lecture at Odd Fellows Hall, on the Literature and Aboriginal Progress of America, in behalf of the General Relief Committee of the I. O. O. F. The subject is noble and philanthropic, and we trust that our citizens will respond to it in a befitting spirit.

THE FIRST OF JUNE.—This beautiful and accomplished opera will be performed to-morrow evening for the benefit and last appearance of Mlle. Sontag, who will sustain the character of Anna. It is one of her greatest parts, and the popularity of the opera will doubtless attract a crowded audience.

MADAME SONTAG'S SECOND CONCERT.—To-night, at Odd Fellows Hall, will take place the second Grand Concert of Mesdames Son TAG and DAVIDSON. The programme is particularly rich in vocal gems. Mdme. Sontag sings the famous Swiss Song, William a Maid of Edinburgh. The Last Rose of Summer, and Rode's Variations on Malbrook. Mdme. Strakosch, from Mobile, the Devil, an air from La Favorite, and a brilliant concert piece by Botesini. Mr. Lanzke will perform two grand fantasias on the violin, and the chorus and orchestra of the Italian Company will lend their aid to the attraction of the evening. The price of admission is six dollars—a single dollar.

Tickets may be procured at Wallon's Music Store, Camp street, and at the door during the evening.

CARDINAL WISEMAN'S CONCERT.—We learn with regret that Mdme. Son TAG has declined further musical services for the benefit of the delighted and generous artist. A concert will be given on Thursday evening next, at Odd Fellows Hall, at which the following artists have consented to be present. A choice programme will be rendered, and a delicious entertainment will be given by Mdlle. Urso and Mdlle. Isabel Squarcioni, Mdme. Strakosch, Mdme. Vonex, Texas, and several of Sontag's pupils and admirers. We understand that all other artists have volunteered their assistance with a view to relieve the misery of the destitute and worthy remnant of the Irish exiles, in gratitude for which benefit they will receive.

MR. F. SCHMIDT, Secretary of the Bank and Exchange Board, has had the possession of the late Council Chamber, which was sold at auction by M. Bonzano, Jr. Besides, mirrors and the following:
