

The Daily Bee

NEW ORLEANS, WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 3, 1854.

THE DAILY BEE, PUBLISHED BY J. W. WILSON, AT THE
NEW ORLEANS PRESS, No. 100
CANTON STREET, NEW ORLEANS,
LA. TERMS: $1.00 PER ANNUM
ADVANCE.

MARKS OF ADVERTISING.
The price of advertising in this paper is as follows:
For the first square, one dollar per week.
For the second square, one dollar per week.
For the third square, one dollar per week.
For the fourth square, one dollar per week.
For the fifth square, one dollar per week.
For the sixth square, one dollar per week.
For the seventh square, one dollar per week.
For the eighth square, one dollar per week.
For the ninth square, one dollar per week.
For the tenth square, one dollar per week.

THE DAILY BEE

NEW ORLEANS, MAY 3, 1854.
100 CANTON STREET, NEW ORLEANS, LA.

By Telegraph!

Transmitted to the Bee from London.
(By the National Wire.)
FURTHER BY THE PACIFIC
THE EASTERN MAIL.

ENGLISH REFORM AND AMERICAN
The publication of the very letter addressed by the Directors of the National Association of America, in relation to the abolition of the slave trade, has been the subject of much discussion. The letter, which was published in the Standard, has been widely read and has excited much interest. The letter is a powerful and eloquent appeal to the American people to support the cause of the slave. It is a document of great importance and should be read by every citizen of this country.

THE PACIFIC
The telegraphic news of the Arab's news which we had from London, is a very interesting one. It is a news which has been widely read and has excited much interest. The news is a powerful and eloquent appeal to the American people to support the cause of the slave. It is a document of great importance and should be read by every citizen of this country.

TELEGRAPHIC ITEMS

NEW ORLEANS, APRIL 29, 1854.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE—New York, April 29. A fire broke out at the residence of a gentleman in the city of New York, which destroyed a large amount of property. The fire was caused by a candle which had been left burning in a room. The fire spread rapidly and was extinguished only after a great deal of effort had been expended. The loss is estimated to be very large.

COMMERCIAL

NEW ORLEANS, APRIL 29, 1854.

MARKETS—The market for cotton is very active and prices are generally higher than they were some time ago. The market for sugar is also very active and prices are generally higher than they were some time ago. The market for rice is also very active and prices are generally higher than they were some time ago.

PUBLIC NOTICES

NEW ORLEANS, APRIL 29, 1854.

NOTICE OF PARTNERSHIP—The undersigned have entered into a partnership for the purpose of carrying on the business of a general store, and have elected the following to be the partners in the said partnership: J. W. Wilson, J. M. Smith, and J. B. Jones.

STATIONERY, ETC.

NEW ORLEANS, APRIL 29, 1854.

STATIONERY—We have a large stock of stationery of all kinds, and are prepared to furnish you with any quantity you may require. Our prices are very low and our quality is very high. We have a large stock of books, maps, and other articles, and are prepared to furnish you with any quantity you may require.

AMUSEMENTS

NEW ORLEANS, APRIL 29, 1854.

AMUSEMENTS—The Grand Opera House is now open and is prepared to furnish you with any quantity you may require. The Grand Opera House is a very fine building and is well equipped with all the latest improvements. The Grand Opera House is a very fine building and is well equipped with all the latest improvements.

THE PACIFIC

NEW ORLEANS, APRIL 29, 1854.

THE PACIFIC
The telegraphic news of the Arab's news which we had from London, is a very interesting one. It is a news which has been widely read and has excited much interest. The news is a powerful and eloquent appeal to the American people to support the cause of the slave. It is a document of great importance and should be read by every citizen of this country.

TELEGRAPHIC ITEMS

NEW ORLEANS, APRIL 29, 1854.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE—New York, April 29. A fire broke out at the residence of a gentleman in the city of New York, which destroyed a large amount of property. The fire was caused by a candle which had been left burning in a room. The fire spread rapidly and was extinguished only after a great deal of effort had been expended. The loss is estimated to be very large.

COMMERCIAL

NEW ORLEANS, APRIL 29, 1854.

MARKETS—The market for cotton is very active and prices are generally higher than they were some time ago. The market for sugar is also very active and prices are generally higher than they were some time ago. The market for rice is also very active and prices are generally higher than they were some time ago.

PUBLIC NOTICES

NEW ORLEANS, APRIL 29, 1854.

NOTICE OF PARTNERSHIP—The undersigned have entered into a partnership for the purpose of carrying on the business of a general store, and have elected the following to be the partners in the said partnership: J. W. Wilson, J. M. Smith, and J. B. Jones.

STATIONERY, ETC.

NEW ORLEANS, APRIL 29, 1854.

STATIONERY—We have a large stock of stationery of all kinds, and are prepared to furnish you with any quantity you may require. Our prices are very low and our quality is very high. We have a large stock of books, maps, and other articles, and are prepared to furnish you with any quantity you may require.

AMUSEMENTS

NEW ORLEANS, APRIL 29, 1854.

AMUSEMENTS—The Grand Opera House is now open and is prepared to furnish you with any quantity you may require. The Grand Opera House is a very fine building and is well equipped with all the latest improvements. The Grand Opera House is a very fine building and is well equipped with all the latest improvements.

MARKS OF ADVERTISING

NEW ORLEANS, APRIL 29, 1854.

The price of advertising in this paper is as follows:
For the first square, one dollar per week.
For the second square, one dollar per week.
For the third square, one dollar per week.
For the fourth square, one dollar per week.
For the fifth square, one dollar per week.
For the sixth square, one dollar per week.
For the seventh square, one dollar per week.
For the eighth square, one dollar per week.
For the ninth square, one dollar per week.
For the tenth square, one dollar per week.