A PROPOSAL COALITION.

Major-General James W. Foster, in view of the present state of the world, has proposed a coalition of the various nations of the Atlantic coast. He has proposed that the United States, Great Britain, France, Spain, Portugal, and the various nations of the West Indies and Central America, should form a coalition for the purpose of maintaining the peace and stability of the Atlantic coast. He has proposed that the coalition should be formed on the basis of mutual respect and equality, and that the coalition should be formed for the purpose of maintaining the peace and stability of the Atlantic coast.
