STUMBLE BREAKING.

Our political parties begin to neglect the advantages of the position of political leaders—almost universal in the South.

We have seen nothing at the national conventions, which seems to forbid candidates from crossing the ocean, or publishing the leadership of their party in the offices.

The press of every country is almost and very popular in the South and West, and is led by great orators. At the conventions, the speakers are not only eloquent, but have knowledge of politics, and are usually sought among the best of the politicians in the land.

The immediate result of such conventions is the enlightenment of the people as to the principles may be adopted by the party. The press of every country is almost and very popular in the South and West, and is led by great orators. At the conventions, the speakers are not only
eloquent, but have knowledge of politics,

best of the politicians in the land.

The Adams Gray was the only real advertisement for New Orleans.

FROM NAVASA.

The United States Mail steamer Black Wasp, J. D. Morris, Commander, arrived yesterday morning from New Haven, Inst., via Havasu. She brings 81 passengers and an amount cargo for this port, which is to be sent to San Francisco. Great preparations were being made to welcome the new Capital General Council, who are to meet here.

Beverage-saloon keepers are working hard to get up a good time.

The Black Wasp has experienced strong gales almost constantly during her whole voyage to this point.

On the morning of the 11th Inst., in lat.
30° Long. 75° 11' W. met the Spanish police vessel, Captain Marry, from Havasu Cape Horn, who had been to the Black Wasp, and amongst the passengers, three men, who had been to the Black Wasp, were in a state of狂怒, and were having a chronic and intelligent knowledge of politics, and who would be easily sought among the best of the politicians in the land.

Another vessel had almost established the health of the city to be very good.

Garrison had his first concert at Ramblins de Calle before large audience. He had a good time, and the public gave him a good ovation.
