

THE DAILY BEE, PUBLISHED BY
G. B. SPURDAS & CO.
Successors to
A. J. SPURDAS & CO.
215 Poydras Street, New Orleans, La.
Telephone 511.
Subscription price, $1.00 per month in advance.
Single copies, 5 cents.

THE DAILY BEE

Published Wednesday, January 10, 1935.
The Postmaster has been authorized to mail this publication as second-class matter.

By Telegram

Washington, Jan. 9, 1935.
The following are the highlights of the news received by telegram from Washington, D. C., Jan. 9, 1935.

BY THE MAIL

Washington, Jan. 9, 1935.
The following are the highlights of the news received by mail from Washington, D. C., Jan. 9, 1935.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

Washington, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

THE PRICE OF CEREALS

Washington, Jan. 9, 1935.
The price of cereals has risen sharply in the last few days. This is due to a combination of factors, including a shortage of supply and increased demand.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

Washington, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

WASHINGTON NEWS

The following are the highlights of the news received from Washington, D. C., Jan. 9, 1935.

BY THE MAIL

Washington, Jan. 9, 1935.
The following are the highlights of the news received by mail from Washington, D. C., Jan. 9, 1935.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

Washington, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

THE PRICE OF CEREALS

Washington, Jan. 9, 1935.
The price of cereals has risen sharply in the last few days. This is due to a combination of factors, including a shortage of supply and increased demand.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

Washington, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

The following are the highlights of the news received from the city of New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.

BY THE MAIL

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The following are the highlights of the news received by mail from the city of New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

THE PRICE OF CEREALS

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The price of cereals has risen sharply in the last few days. This is due to a combination of factors, including a shortage of supply and increased demand.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

COMMERCIAL

The following are the highlights of the news received from the commercial sector, Jan. 9, 1935.

BY THE MAIL

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The following are the highlights of the news received by mail from the commercial sector, Jan. 9, 1935.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

THE PRICE OF CEREALS

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The price of cereals has risen sharply in the last few days. This is due to a combination of factors, including a shortage of supply and increased demand.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

COMMERCIAL

The following are the highlights of the news received from the commercial sector, Jan. 9, 1935.

BY THE MAIL

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The following are the highlights of the news received by mail from the commercial sector, Jan. 9, 1935.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

THE PRICE OF CEREALS

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The price of cereals has risen sharply in the last few days. This is due to a combination of factors, including a shortage of supply and increased demand.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

COMMERCIAL

The following are the highlights of the news received from the commercial sector, Jan. 9, 1935.

BY THE MAIL

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The following are the highlights of the news received by mail from the commercial sector, Jan. 9, 1935.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

THE PRICE OF CEREALS

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The price of cereals has risen sharply in the last few days. This is due to a combination of factors, including a shortage of supply and increased demand.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

COMMERCIAL

The following are the highlights of the news received from the commercial sector, Jan. 9, 1935.

BY THE MAIL

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The following are the highlights of the news received by mail from the commercial sector, Jan. 9, 1935.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

THE PRICE OF CEREALS

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The price of cereals has risen sharply in the last few days. This is due to a combination of factors, including a shortage of supply and increased demand.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

COMMERCIAL

The following are the highlights of the news received from the commercial sector, Jan. 9, 1935.

BY THE MAIL

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The following are the highlights of the news received by mail from the commercial sector, Jan. 9, 1935.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

THE PRICE OF CEREALS

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The price of cereals has risen sharply in the last few days. This is due to a combination of factors, including a shortage of supply and increased demand.

THE MAIL DIFFICULTY SETTLED

New Orleans, Jan. 9, 1935.
The difficulty between the United States and Canada over the mail route between the two countries has been settled. The United States has agreed to pay for the mail service, and Canada has agreed to provide the service.

RATES OF ADVERTISING

One Dollar for every 100 words in each insertion.
Special rates for long term advertising.
For full rates, apply to the office of the publisher.

WANTS, LOST ETC.

Advertisements for services, lost items, and other notices.

WANTED

Wanted: Old iron, brass, and other metal items.

WANTED

Wanted: A good cook for a private home.

WANTED

Wanted: A good mechanic for a private garage.

WANTED

Wanted: A good typewriter for a private office.

WANTED

Wanted: A good car for a private use.

WANTED

Wanted: A good house for a private residence.

WANTED

Wanted: A good job for a private individual.

WANTED

Wanted: A good partner for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good location for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good investment for a private individual.

WANTED

Wanted: A good property for a private investment.

WANTED

Wanted: A good business for a private investment.

WANTED

Wanted: A good opportunity for a private investment.

WANTED

Wanted: A good chance for a private investment.

WANTED

Wanted: A good prospect for a private investment.

WANTED

Wanted: A good investment for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good location for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good partner for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good opportunity for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good chance for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good prospect for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good investment for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good location for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good partner for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good opportunity for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good chance for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good prospect for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good investment for a private business.

WANTED

Wanted: A good location for a private business.