A LESSON.

The result of Pennsylvania is another illustration of a truth we have been vainly endeavoring to enforce upon the Democratic press, viz: that we have a good party because we are a good people. The Democratic press, in its usual manner, has endeavored to show that the result of Pennsylvania was a mere accident, and that the Democratic party were the victors because of some special advantage. But the result of Pennsylvania is another illustration of a truth we have been vainly endeavoring to enforce upon the Democratic press, viz: that we have a good party because we are a good people.

THE MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH.

THE PACIFIC DIAMETER. Some of the Experiments Arrived. E. K. COLLINS NOT LOST.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The collection which reached here from the Pacific coast, in relation to the success of the magnetic telegraph, is very interesting. It shows that the telegraph is now in successful operation over a distance of 10,000 miles.

THE LOUISIANA TRIEST.

OVER AND OVER AGAIN—Before Judge Mitchell, in the case of the Louisiana Triest, the evidence is being taken in relation to the alleged fraud in the sale of the Louisiana Triest.

TELEGRAPHIC ITEMS.

RAILROADS—Celebration at Millersville, Pa., Oct. 7.—The Railroad from Centerville to this place has been formally opened by the arrival of the excursion train, containing a large number of invited guests from Philadelphia. The excursionists have been handsomely entertained here, the dinner being served on the cars, and the evening being spent in the most agreeable manner.
