

The New Orleans Bee.

NEW ORLEANS, THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 3, 1855.

THE DAILY BEE.

Thursday Morning, May 3d, 1855.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The carrier who delivers the Bee to that portion of the First District situated between Canal and St. Charles Streets, and between Royal and St. Peter Streets, will be allowed to enter the city, and the carrier being somewhat inexperienced, we have to request those of our subscribers who may not receive their paper regularly, to give notice of their names and residence, to our office, so that we may be allowed to direct them to the carrier.

THE NORTHERN MAIL came through yesterday with the latest dates.

STRANGE POLICY.

One of the first difficulties in the case of Captain S. Stiles is the want of judgment and want of reflected representation. We presume every one is familiar with the history of this affair. Capt. Stiles appears to have been in a bad condition, the new carrier being somewhat inexperienced, we have to request those of our subscribers who may not receive their paper regularly, to give notice of their names and residence, to our office, so that we may be allowed to direct them to the carrier.

THE RUSSIAN MAIL came through yesterday with the latest dates.

THE African's News.

The steamer African reached Halifax on the night of the 24th inst., having left Liverpool on the 11th. The telegraphic abstract of her accounts is somewhat fuller than that received from the Daily Bee.

The Russian prize ship Albatross arrived in the Downs on the 8th instant.

The African had come to New Orleans, had been to Liverpool in a damaged condition, having come in collision with Holysfield, the steamer North Carolina, from Philadelphia for Liverpool, and had been to a dozen or more ports before she was lost.

The Vienna Conference.

The Ninth Conference was held at Vienna on the 21st inst., and the session closed at noon.

The Russian Plenipotentiaries had not received their instructions. Drayton & Hayes were present, and the Conference was adjourned over, it is known, by a lack of agreement, and the Conference adjourned.

It is reported that the Western Plenipotentiaries are about to quit Vienna, and have gone to Paris to prepare a new time-table.

The route to Wiesbaden, New Orleans, and Mobile, is to be established.

It is stated that all Plenipotentiaries' instructions are to assist in the joint preparation of a new time-table, and to present the same to the Conference at a standstill. New complete instructions are to be given to the plenipotentiaries to express the regret that the Sultan's government has not yet given its assent to the instrument for the indemnity for the war is to be deferred.

The War.

Nothing important had been received from Sebastianopol up to April 8th. The positions of the French and English forces were known, and a small scale contained. The weather was wet and dry. An area was marked off, and the lines of the allies were known to the French.

The Russian plenipotentiaries had chosen to open a general conference.

The Russians have constructed two new batteries and have converted the fortifications of the French and English into fortresses.

The African was last winter in the most capital elections in the city of Washington. No. 100 wounded.
