NEW ORLEANS, MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 25, 1855.

THE DAILY BEE.

Tuesday Morning, June 26th, 1855.

The Northern Mail came through yesterday with the latest news.

The Judicial Election To-day.

The election of the State and Federal judges to select a Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, while those of a part of the State are required to select an Associate Judge for the Second District.

In effecting a choice in either instance it must be acknowledged that ample opportunity is allowed the electors to exercise the utmost discrimination.

And we believe with an excceptionable slate of high reputation and approved ability. Party spirit, as far as we are advised, has left this judicial campaign unpoluted by miserable intrigue and sordid machinery. Let who may be, no party will have a right to exist, for the successful candidate will have reflected the suffrage or interests of all parties.

The gentlemen who have been put forward for the Chief Justiceship are Mr. McMillan, of East Feliciana; Mr. Elmer, of Rapides; Mr. Lewis, of Opelousas; and Mr. Blaine of Baton Rouge.

They are all recommended by the leading men of their respective counties, and will be elected.

Mr. McMillan, of East Feliciana, will be seen to influence in his favor the election of Mr. Elmer, of Rapides, and Capt. Joseph L. Brown, of Baton Rouge, for Associate Judges.

We are anxious to see how this choice will turn out.

Mr. McMillan, of East Feliciana, is the man who would probably have secured the nomination of

Mr. Elmer, of Rapides.

The nomination made by this journal in reference to the judicial election, reflects an expression of great reverence what-ever either of these distinguished candidates may be.

It is admitted at all salutes that both are competent, but also, both men of sound judgment, courage, erudition, and personal integrity, and enlarged experience.

Showing this, we shall endeavor to verify in the popular verdicts, so far as they may be rendered.

As Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, the District is beginning at the upper end of Julia street, and comprising the portion of the First Municipal District, bounded on the west by the Canal Street, and on the east by the Basin, Terrebonne, East Carre, West Basin, and River.

There are several candidates, whom the most prominent are Judge LaLuz, of New Orleans; Judge Conner, of St. Landry; and Judge Johnson, of Iberville.

Judge LaLuz, of Iberville, is a man of great talents and good professional and great personal character.

Judge Conner, of St. Landry, is a man of eminent capacity and thoroughly conversant with the laws.

The Hon. Z. LALUZ is a man of great respectability and solid worth.
