THE SPEAKERSHIP.

Congruentees Proceeds.

Under this head the N.Y. Tribune amuses itself and readers by coffecting together the names of those members of Congress who have similar appellations. It says in its peculiar inductio style t New York, Nov. 20, 1855.

have similar appellations. It says in its poculiar inductio styles:

The ancient and honorable family of Smith is represented (as yet) in the House only by Means, William Smith of Virginia, William S. Smith of Alabama, and Samuel A. Smith of Tensesses. They are all Douglatics with regard to slavery and Kannak, but the first we have Know Nothing tendencies, and The two three Know Nothing tendencies, and The Know Nothing tendencies himself a Democrat.

There are three Frights in this Congress—William Wright (Seasable) from New Jersey, In Bantel B. Wright of Himselppi, and John V. Wright of Tensesses. In politice they are all Blamocrats.

Of Sheart, there are Charles E. Stuara (Seasabor) of Hichigan, and James A. Stowart of Maryland-both Democrations. Of Sheart, there are three—Sheart of Penneylvania, Lewis D. Campbell of Ohio, and John P. Campbell of Kentucky. All and Price, and all touched with the "Know Nothing" fromy.

Of Sels, there are three—James Bell (Opp.) of New Hampshire, John Bell (4c), of Tennesses, and Peter H. Bell (4dm.) of Tensesses, there are John R. Thomson (4dm.) (10 Mars.)
