"The next astonisher was what followed the return of Mr. Filimore, the most popular candidate of them all, from a visit to the Pope and other crowned heads of Europe.—When it was supposed he would hardly be noticed, a magnificent welcome was extended to him. Not only Know-Nothings, but the people generally joined in doing him honor. His speeches in favor of the Compromise massives and the Union have electrified the masses, and to-day his chances are far above per thin all hands, we find men who had been considered to the second of the Compromise massives and to-day his chances are far above per thin all hands, we find men who had been considered to the second of the control of even ment and live in peace with each other.

WARRINGTON, July 10, 1856, SENATE.—The Indian Appropriation bill was taken up, and sundry amendments adopted. The bill then passed. Mr. Mason, from the Committee on Foreign Sciations, reported a bill to amoud the act of ast session, to remodel the Diplomatic and Consular system, which was made the special order for Monday maxt.

The principal changes proposed are, making the salary of the Minuster to France the same as that of the Minuster to England, $17,500; raising the Austrian mission to a full mission at $12,000; the salary of the Minister to the Sandwich Islands $6000. The Ministers to France and England are each to be allowed a clerk at a salary of $1500.
The bill to amend this act to promote the efficiency of the Navy was then taken up. Several amendments were made; among them, one striking out the section reviving the grade of Admiral.
The Senate then adjourned.

Mr. Elliott remarked that the recolution harged improper conduct on the part of the officers of the Treasury; Department, He was authorized to say that Generatary Gutrier will shrink from no investigation, which will, shoubtless, prove that the allegations were but slanders and political falsehood.
Mr. Bull replied that there was no instinua-tion in the resolution against Mr. Guthrie.— The preamble thereto embodies an affidavit reflecting on certain officers, and thus is the basis of the proposed inpairy.
After further debate, the resolution pass-ed, and Mosars, fall, Kennett, Burnett, King, and Cadwallader, were appointed the Com-mittee. mittee. The consideration of the report of the Committee relative to the assault by Mr. Brooks upon Mr. Sumner, was then resumed. Mr. Comma, of Massachauetts, said he had no terms of condemnation of the assault which did injustice to the perpetrator. In contemplating the report of the Committee and the issue involved, all locash political contemplating the report of the Committee and the issue involved, all locals, political and personal resising sunk into magnificance. He asked not sympathy for Mr. Summer, nor a vindication of Massachusetts, but impliced every member who loved peace and quiet, and order, to join as one man, and the sundice of the time of the control o statements take.

Some confusion was thus produced.
Mr. Letcher rose to a question of order.—
What may have occurred in South Carolina had nothing to do with the lastic pending
