JULY MORNING, JULY 26, 1866.
The following is my preference for Mr. Bro. I. H. Hopper, to be the candidate of the Democratic party, in the next election, and who, I trust, will be successful in his efforts to secure the nomination of his party, and to be elected to Congress. He is a man of great ability, and has tried and found true, frank, and courageous.—HENRY CLAY.

If there be those, North or South, who are not fully satisfied with the administration, let them unite in supporting Mr. Hopper, and against Mr. Davis, and not the men who should be enemies to us. For my own part, I am fully satisfied with my country, and am willing to do my duty for it.—MILLARD FILLMORE.

ADDRESS ON THE LAWING TO THE COUNTRY.

Mr. Hopper's address to the non-slaveholding men, and the soundness of the principles he advocates, are well known to all. All that can be said in his favor is, that he is a good man, and a German, and a friend to the party. But it can be more also.

Mr. Hopper's address to the Northern Germans, is a good one. It is the best that I have seen. It is well written, and under the circumstances, it is well timed. It is a good address, and I hope it will be well received.
