TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 22, 1858.

The foundation of my preference is, that

Mr. Fillmore has administered the Executive

Government with signal success and ability.

He has been tried and found true, faithful,

sound and courageous.—HORACE CLAY.

If they do close, North or Southern, or at least Northern, for the South who should not be inferior to me. For my own part

I consider it my country, my whole country and nation of my country! — MILLARD

CLIFFORD.

ADDRESS IN MY LANDIN AT

NEW YORK.

GENERAL WILLIAM H. HARVEY.

His Excellency's opinion of the represented election. UNLESS HE IS LIEUTENANT.

M. J. CLIFFORD is the only person authorized to speak in the city for the South.

JOHN S. CLIFFORD, yesterday from the South, Macmillan.

PENNSYLVANIA—MORE EVIDENCE of the Southern party is to be had in the following letter addressed to a friend in the West, by Mr. J. N. D. Campbell.

The language of the South is a continual, as it were, in the letter. The whole is a series of atrocious acts of Southern treachery.

What is to be done?

What is to
