

THE DAILY BEE

Published by G. P. Wilson & Co., 83 Chartres St. Price per copy, 10 cents. Per month, $3.00. Per year, $30.00. Single copies, 10 cents. Advertising rates, on application. Entered as second-class matter, October 3, 1865, under No. 10,177, post office at New Orleans, Louisiana, under No. 10,177. Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on July 16, 1920. Postmaster: G. P. Wilson & Co., Publishers. This publication is published daily, except on Sundays and public holidays. It is published at the office of the publishers, 83 Chartres St., New Orleans, Louisiana.

By Telegraph.

New York, Nov. 10.—The late President Grant has been elected to the office of President of the United States for a second term. The result of the election was a surprise to many, as Grant had not been expected to run for a second term. The vote was as follows: Grant, 232,000; Hayes, 106,000; Fremont, 23,000; Johnson, 1,000. Grant's victory was a triumph for the Union and for the cause of peace. His second term will be a test of his ability to govern and to bring about a permanent peace in the South.

London, Nov. 10.—The British Government has announced that it will send a large expedition to the South Sea Islands. The expedition is intended to establish a permanent settlement in the Sandwich Islands. The Government has also announced that it will send a large expedition to the West Indies. The expedition is intended to establish a permanent settlement in the West Indies. The Government has also announced that it will send a large expedition to the Pacific Islands. The expedition is intended to establish a permanent settlement in the Pacific Islands.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The President has appointed a new cabinet. The new cabinet consists of the following members: Secretary of State, William H. Seward; Secretary of the Treasury, Charles G. Folger; Secretary of War, William W. Belknap; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Attorney General, William B. Ewell; Postmaster General, Montgomery Blair; and Commissioner of the General Land Office, John P. Smith.

St. Louis, Nov. 10.—The St. Louis Convention has adjourned. The convention was held in St. Louis from October 15 to November 5. It was the largest convention ever held in the city. The convention was attended by delegates from all over the country. The convention was held in the interest of the Union and for the purpose of settling the questions of Reconstruction and the rights of the colored people.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10.—The Philadelphia Convention has adjourned. The convention was held in Philadelphia from October 15 to November 5. It was the largest convention ever held in the city. The convention was attended by delegates from all over the country. The convention was held in the interest of the Union and for the purpose of settling the questions of Reconstruction and the rights of the colored people.

Boston, Nov. 10.—The Boston Convention has adjourned. The convention was held in Boston from October 15 to November 5. It was the largest convention ever held in the city. The convention was attended by delegates from all over the country. The convention was held in the interest of the Union and for the purpose of settling the questions of Reconstruction and the rights of the colored people.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—The San Francisco Convention has adjourned. The convention was held in San Francisco from October 15 to November 5. It was the largest convention ever held in the city. The convention was attended by delegates from all over the country. The convention was held in the interest of the Union and for the purpose of settling the questions of Reconstruction and the rights of the colored people.

LOUISIANA

STATIONERS' STRIKE.—The stationers in New Orleans are on strike. They are demanding a 10 percent increase in their wages. They have refused to work for their employers until their demands are met. The strike has caused a great deal of inconvenience to the public. Many of the stores that sell stationery are closed. The public is having a hard time getting their stationery. The employers are offering to pay the 10 percent increase, but the stationers are still on strike. They say that the 10 percent increase is not enough. They want a 20 percent increase. They say that the cost of living is so high that they need the extra money. The employers are saying that they cannot pay the 20 percent increase. They say that the cost of doing business is so high that they cannot pay the 20 percent increase. The strike is still going on. The public is still having a hard time getting their stationery.

THE FRENCH REVOLUTION.—The French Revolution is still going on. The French people are fighting for their rights. They are fighting against the tyranny of the King and the nobles. They are fighting for a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. The French Revolution is a great event in the history of the world. It is a revolution that has changed the course of human history. It is a revolution that has brought about the end of the old order and the beginning of a new order. The French Revolution is a revolution that has inspired people all over the world. It is a revolution that has shown the power of the people. It is a revolution that has shown the power of the people to change the world.

THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.—The American Revolution is still going on. The American people are fighting for their rights. They are fighting against the tyranny of the British. They are fighting for a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. The American Revolution is a great event in the history of the world. It is a revolution that has changed the course of human history. It is a revolution that has brought about the end of the old order and the beginning of a new order. The American Revolution is a revolution that has inspired people all over the world. It is a revolution that has shown the power of the people. It is a revolution that has shown the power of the people to change the world.

LOUISIANA

STATIONERS' STRIKE.—The stationers in New Orleans are on strike. They are demanding a 10 percent increase in their wages. They have refused to work for their employers until their demands are met. The strike has caused a great deal of inconvenience to the public. Many of the stores that sell stationery are closed. The public is having a hard time getting their stationery. The employers are offering to pay the 10 percent increase, but the stationers are still on strike. They say that the 10 percent increase is not enough. They want a 20 percent increase. They say that the cost of living is so high that they need the extra money. The employers are saying that they cannot pay the 20 percent increase. They say that the cost of doing business is so high that they cannot pay the 20 percent increase. The strike is still going on. The public is still having a hard time getting their stationery.

THE FRENCH REVOLUTION.—The French Revolution is still going on. The French people are fighting for their rights. They are fighting against the tyranny of the King and the nobles. They are fighting for a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. The French Revolution is a great event in the history of the world. It is a revolution that has changed the course of human history. It is a revolution that has brought about the end of the old order and the beginning of a new order. The French Revolution is a revolution that has inspired people all over the world. It is a revolution that has shown the power of the people. It is a revolution that has shown the power of the people to change the world.

THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.—The American Revolution is still going on. The American people are fighting for their rights. They are fighting against the tyranny of the British. They are fighting for a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. The American Revolution is a great event in the history of the world. It is a revolution that has changed the course of human history. It is a revolution that has brought about the end of the old order and the beginning of a new order. The American Revolution is a revolution that has inspired people all over the world. It is a revolution that has shown the power of the people. It is a revolution that has shown the power of the people to change the world.

LOUISIANA

STATIONERS' STRIKE.—The stationers in New Orleans are on strike. They are demanding a 10 percent increase in their wages. They have refused to work for their employers until their demands are met. The strike has caused a great deal of inconvenience to the public. Many of the stores that sell stationery are closed. The public is having a hard time getting their stationery. The employers are offering to pay the 10 percent increase, but the stationers are still on strike. They say that the 10 percent increase is not enough. They want a 20 percent increase. They say that the cost of living is so high that they need the extra money. The employers are saying that they cannot pay the 20 percent increase. They say that the cost of doing business is so high that they cannot pay the 20 percent increase. The strike is still going on. The public is still having a hard time getting their stationery.

THE FRENCH REVOLUTION.—The French Revolution is still going on. The French people are fighting for their rights. They are fighting against the tyranny of the King and the nobles. They are fighting for a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. The French Revolution is a great event in the history of the world. It is a revolution that has changed the course of human history. It is a revolution that has brought about the end of the old order and the beginning of a new order. The French Revolution is a revolution that has inspired people all over the world. It is a revolution that has shown the power of the people. It is a revolution that has shown the power of the people to change the world.

THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.—The American Revolution is still going on. The American people are fighting for their rights. They are fighting against the tyranny of the British. They are fighting for a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. The American Revolution is a great event in the history of the world. It is a revolution that has changed the course of human history. It is a revolution that has brought about the end of the old order and the beginning of a new order. The American Revolution is a revolution that has inspired people all over the world. It is a revolution that has shown the power of the people. It is a revolution that has shown the power of the people to change the world.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATRE.—The Theatre is still going on. The Theatre is a great place to go to for entertainment. The Theatre is a place where you can see the best of the world's drama. The Theatre is a place where you can see the best of the world's acting. The Theatre is a place where you can see the best of the world's music. The Theatre is a place where you can see the best of the world's art. The Theatre is a place where you can see the best of the world's everything. The Theatre is a place where you can see the best of the world's everything.

MUSEUM.—The Museum is still going on. The Museum is a great place to go to for education. The Museum is a place where you can learn about the world's history. The Museum is a place where you can learn about the world's science. The Museum is a place where you can learn about the world's art. The Museum is a place where you can learn about the world's everything. The Museum is a place where you can learn about the world's everything.

CONCERTS.—The Concerts are still going on. The Concerts are a great place to go to for music. The Concerts are a place where you can hear the best of the world's music. The Concerts are a place where you can hear the best of the world's singing. The Concerts are a place where you can hear the best of the world's everything. The Concerts are a place where you can hear the best of the world's everything.

DANCES.—The Dances are still going on. The Dances are a great place to go to for fun. The Dances are a place where you can have a good time. The Dances are a place where you can meet new people. The Dances are a place where you can dance to the best of the world's music. The Dances are a place where you can dance to the best of the world's everything. The Dances are a place where you can dance to the best of the world's everything.