STORIES FOR CHRISTMAS AND WINTER EVENINGS.—We are indebted to J. C. MORGAN, Exchange Place, for the third volume of Putnam's Story Library, comprising a charming collection of the most attractive Christmas and New Year's tales that exist in our language.

FRESH DATES.—Mr. JOSEPH MEYER, in Mandeville street, Third District, has our thanks for a bunch of superb dates, nearly ripe, grown in his own garden. This is a sample of the variety of fruit which New Orleans can produce by attentive culture.

There was a severe storm at Buffalo on the 14th, accompanied with hail and snow. Great damage was done to property, and several warehouses were unroofed. A number of warehouses in the lower parts of the city were flooded, and many buildings entirely destroyed. The steeple of the Lafayette Street Church was blown down during the services. Fortunately no one was injured.

JOHNSON & GILLIS'S extensive scale factory, at St. Louis, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 13th inst. They lost all their stock, valued at $30,000, and insured for $17,000.

THE ANTICIPATED INSURRECTION IN TENNESSEE—MORE UNEASINESS.—Cincinnati, Dec. 13. —A gentleman direct from Tennessee has informed the Evansville Journal that the whole region from Memphis through Clarksville, Ducr, and on to Cumberland, was in the highest state of alarm in regard to the movements of the negroes. The jails in all the counties were crowded with arrested blacks. The county courts were assembled in each county, and vigilance committees and patrols were appointed for each neighborhood and township. Eight more negroes had been hung in Duer, making nineteen in all. No overt act had been committed, but the proof of insurrectionary designs was said to be conclusive.

FROM HONDURAS.—Boston, Dec. 13.—The brig Harriet, Captain Read at Honduras, with dates to the 25th ult. The country was tranquil. The excitement caused by Gen. Walker and the late establishment of affairs in Nicaragua, had somewhat subsided. There was nothing new in regard to the future course of Honduras in maintaining other States against Walker. The news of Walker's successes was not known to the people of Honduras, and it was believed that Walker had been defeated.

The party of American gold diggers at Honduras for some time past, in search of precious metals, had nearly all left the country on account of the sickly climate, which has proved, on the coast, very debilitating to Americans.

THE CASE OF PAGE VS. PHILLIPS.—Albany, December 13.—The case of Page (a Baltimorean) vs. Phillips, which has been under argument in the United States Circuit Court for the past few days, before Judge Hall, closed to-day, with a verdict in favor of the latter. This case was brought for an infringement of patent circular saw mills for manufacturing lumber out of rough timber. For plaintiffs, John H. B. Latrobe, of Baltimore, and Mr. Northrop, of Sandy Hill; for defendant, Keller Wood, Esq., of New York.

Some fifty suits already commenced hang on this verdict. The case will be carried up.

PRISON OFFICER ASSASSINATED.—Boston, December 13.—Wm. Walker, the deputy warden of the Massachusetts State Prison, was stabbed this morning, while reproving the chapel, by a prisoner named McGee. He died almost immediately.

THE WRECK OF THE TOLEDO.—Milwaukie, Dec. 13. Already fifty bodies have been recovered from the wreck of the Toledo, and it has transpired that 15 or 20 more are missing.

DEATH OF A PHILADELPHIA MERCHANT.—Philadelphia, Dec. 12.—Thomas Delwiler, a well known merchant of this city, died this morning.

FIRE.—Albany, Dec. 14.—Early this morning a fire broke out in the old depot of the Hudson Railroad, at East Albany, which is now used for storing freights. It was totally destroyed, together with the passenger depot and restaurant adjoined. The loss is chiefly on freight. Damage estimated at $50,000.—The property of the Company is said to be insured.

The freight in the depot consisted chiefly of butter, cloverseed, cheese and flour.

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.—Washington, Dec. 15.—After the adjudgment of two minor cases, the case of Dred Scott vs. Sandford. H. S. Geyer, for the claimant, took the bread ground that the petition of the plaintiff being made a citizen. So it has been held by the Courts in a number of cases, and at the time of the adoption of the Constitution in every State except one of the slaveholding States it was held that he could not.

The Convention for the adoption of the Constitution left open the African slave trade for twenty years. To his mind, it was not the intention of the framers of that instrument to make an importation of material for citizenship.

ARREST OF A COLORED PREACHER FOR TAMPERING WITH SLAVES.—Louisville, Dec. 15.—On Saturday morning last, Rev. Wm. Anderson, a colored preacher of the Methodist denomination, was captured on board the steamer Telegraph, with a carpet-bag filled with incendiary documents. He had also been engaged in running off slaves about Carrollton. The documents in his possession implicate Rutherford Stallings. He was taken yesterday to Carrollton, where $600 reward had been offered for him.

NEW JUDGE FOR KANSAS.—Washington, Dec. 15.—J. O. Harrison, of Kentucky, has been telegraphed an offer of appointment as Judge, in place of Lecompte. There are some doubts of his acceptance. He is said to be a man of high toned. He was formerly a law partner of Mr. Breckinridge, and executor of Henry Clay.

A BASSO IN A TIGHT PLACE.—The corpulent Susini profundo of the La Grange Opera troupe left with the party (some sixty in number) by the Cahawba yesterday for Havana, where they are engaged for six weeks. The basso, however, it seems, had a narrow escape from the Sheriff's officers, who were provided with writs against him, at the suit of several creditors, as an absconding debtor. The Herald states that they were waiting for him on Thursday night after the performance, but Marcel ... smuggled him out by a secret way, and ... concealed him during the night. Yesterday morning early he was conveyed to the steamer in a close carriage, and locked up by the director. The officer searched the vessel thoroughly, but failed to discover the delinquent, who was consoling himself for the temporary deprivation of liberty with a bottle of claret.—N. Y. Mirror.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Senate.—On motion of Mr. Jones, of Iowa, the credentials of James Harlan, Senator elect from Iowa, with the protest of the Senate of that State relative thereto, were taken up for consideration.

Mr. Harlan proceeded to speak on the subject, stating the facts with reference to his election, and citing the provisions in the United States Constitution and the laws of Iowa bearing on the case.

Mr. Harlan said he should not object to the subject to be referred to the Judiciary Committee as moved, although the committee is composed of those who are politically opposed to him.

The subject was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, by the following vote—yeas 31, nays 13.

On motion of Mr. Hale, a resolution was adopted, instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to inquire whether any further legislation is necessary to carry into effect in act regulating the compensation of members of Congress, passed in August last.

Mr. Houston gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill providing for the establishment of a mail route, and carrying a semi-weekly overland mail from the Mississippi river to San Francisco.

The House bill provided for the settlement of the accounts of the soldiers of the revolutionary army and their widows and orphans, was discussed until the adjournment.

House of Representatives.—Mr. Etheridge submitted the following resolution, which was read for information:

Resolved, That this House regard all suggestions or propositions of every kind, by whomsoever made, for the revival of the African slave trade, as shocking to the moral sentiment of the enlightened portion of mankind, and that any act on the part of Congress conniving at or legalizing that horrid and inhuman traffic, would justly subject the United States to the reproach and execration of all civilized and Christian people throughout the world.

Objection was made to the introduction of the resolution.

Mr. Etheridge moved a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, demanded the yeas and nays.

Mr. Walker asked whether, if the House shall suspend the rules, it was the purpose of Mr. Etheridge to take up the previous question on the adoption of the resolution to cut off debate.

Mr. Etheridge replied that the resolution contained a self-evident proposition, and he presumed every gentleman had an opinion on the subject. He should not discuss it, but would move the previous question.

Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, said he wanted Mr. Etheridge to leave out the argument in the resolution, as he was as much opposed to the re-opening of the African slave trade as his colleague. [He was here called to order, as debate, the Speaker said, was inadmissible at this time.]

Mr. Jones said he would not be gagged by either the Speaker or others.

Mr. Orr ineffectually strove to offer a substitute, simply resolving that it is inexpedient to repeal the laws prohibiting the African slave trade.

Mr. Etheridge's motion to suspend the rules in order to enable him to introduce his resolution, was agreed to—yeas 140 nays 53.

The Virginia delegation voted as follows:—Yeas—Messrs. Bocock, Faulkner, Kidwell, Letcher, Millson.—5. Nays—Messrs. Carlile, Edmundson, Goode, McMullen, Powell, and Smith.—6. Not voting—Messrs. Garnett and Carlile.

Messrs. Greenwood, McMullen, Puryear, Smith, of Virginia, Quitman, Letcher, Hacklebee and Phelps severally gave their reasons for voting "No," to the effect that while they opposed the re-opening of the slave trade, they thought that the resolution was out of character and ill-timed.

Messrs. Kent and Barnett remarked that had they been present, they would have voted in the negative.

Further explanations from ... sice were precluded by the ... amid cries of ...

The ... resolution was ... by a vote of 41 ...

... moved to lay the resolution on the table by a vote of yeas 71, nays 137.

Mr. Etheridge's resolution was then adopted—yeas 152, nays 37.

All the Virginia delegation present voted in the negative. Those not voting were Messrs. Carlile, Faulkner, Kidwell and Millson.

Mr. Orr, under the suspension of the rules, submitted a resolution that it is inexpedient, unwise and contrary to the settled policy of the United States to repeal the laws prohibiting the African slave trade. It was adopted. Yeas 187, nays 8—Messrs. Barksdale, Bennett, of Miss., Brooks, Keitt, Quitman, Shorter, Wright, of Miss., Walker.

Mr. Washburne, of Maine, asked leave to offer a resolution calling on the President to communicate a statement of the amount of money paid and liabilities incurred for the support of persons called into the service of the United States, either as the designation of militia in Kansas or as posse comitatus by the civil officers in the territory, since the date of its establishment, with the witnesses and arrests, detention and trial of persons charged with treason against the United States, or with a violation of the so-called laws of the territory. Pending which the House adjourned.

The Southern (Iberville) Sentinel says:

Our town was visited by an unusually severe storm on Saturday night last. The rain poured down in torrents, and the wind at times came in fearful gusts, shaking the strongest buildings, and creating serious apprehensions. Several slight injuries resulted. Part of the gable-end of a new brick warehouse belonging to Mrs. Debbins was blown down, but we heard of nothing more serious —save that the "suit" of a poor man, containing all his earthly wealth, was carried out of his porch, and its contents smashed.

The Franklin (St. Mary's) Journal has the following:

A negro man, belonging to James Todd, Esq., of this parish, left his work about the machinery of the mill, on his plantation, fell into the cogs and was crushed to death.

We take the following from the Baton Rouge Advocate:

BARING ROBBERY.—On Thursday night last, a man was robbed at the steamboat landing of Baton Rouge, in a most daring manner, showing that the thieves were experts at the business. He was crossing the landing, between 9 and 10 o'clock, when two men jumped suddenly upon him; one holding him and stopping his mouth to prevent his crying out, while the other quickly snatched his pockets, and finding a purse in the pocket of his coat, deliberately tore it off, and then both made tracks with their booty, leaving their victim so astonished and ... at the rapidity of the operation as to be unable to cry out or give the alarm, while having the chapel, by a prisoner named McGee. He died almost immediately.

THE WRECK OF THE TOLEDO.—Milwaukie, Dec. 13. Already fifty bodies have been recovered from the wreck of the Toledo, and it has transpired that 15 or 20 more are missing.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.
St. LOUIS, Dec. 22.—The river is full of heavy ice, and is falling rapidly below this place. navigation being nearly suspended.

The New York Herald says: "Quite an alarm was occasioned at the Brooklyn Navy Yard on Friday by the report that the steam frigate Niagara was on fire in the hold and might be destroyed. On reaching the spot the workmen found that the fire had just burst into a blaze. A stream of water was soon poured in and the fire quenched without any material damage having been done. It appears that one of the workmen accidentally dropped a red-hot bolt under the boiler, where he could not reach it, and some oakum and shavings, were set on fire, which led to the alarm.

In the Supreme Court yesterday, Judge Davies delivered an elaborate decision, which we publish elsewhere, upon the motion to dissolve some injunctions restraining the parties implicated in the alleged frauds upon the Northern Railway of France. Two of the defendants, Felicite Debod and Eugene Grelot, were discharged—the others are held for further proceedings in the case.

Mr. WISEMAN VS. MR. PHARMOR.—The following letter from Mr. Wiseman is exceedingly beautiful and touching:

[PRIVATE.]
Boston, November 13, 1850.

DEAR SIR—I took leave of Marshfield yesterday, not without regret. The trees were leafless, but the fields were green, and the sea was calm as summer.

Among the things which detained me, was the waiting to be completed of a vault or tomb, for the deposit of me and mine.

I have lost one wife and three children. Their remains are now under a church in this city, which the progress of change is very likely ere long to remove.

At Marshfield, by my own land, on the margin of the upland, in a spot on which a party of pilgrims from Plymouth erected a church, in the earliest period of the colony; and in the ancient burial ground. It is quiet, and secure against change, and not far from my house.

To this spot I shall be taken not many years hence, and those loved ones, whose spirits have gone before me to another world, will be gathered around me.

I dwell on these things without pain. I love to see a shepherd in his sheep; there is nothing I should dread more than a thoughtless, careless, obtuse mind, near the end of life. Of course, it may be the difference of our future state on which we shall spot we mingle again with our parent earth: but it sobers the mind. I think, and hope, it is salutary reflections, to contemplate our last resting place. Yours truly,

DANIEL WEBSTER.

SERIOUS DECREASE IN THE YIELD OF SALT.—The Liverpool Albion says: "On Saturday evening, Mr. Samuel Bracegirdle, salt proprietor and ship builder, of Northwich, called at our office and made the following statement, which will be read with painful interest by all connected with the salt districts. He is composed of two divisions, the Winsford and the Northwich. I own and work a mine in the latter division. For some time past there has been a gradual decrease in the quantity of brine obtained through the district, but within the last few days the yield has decreased fully fifty per cent. The higher mines at Winsford have completely failed, and those of Anderton and Northwich have fallen off, within a fortnight, something like fifty per cent. My own mine has decreased to that extent, the brine having subsided to eighteen yards from its previous height of thirty-six yards, and it is still on the decrease. The brine in Lord Stanley's mine, in the same division, within the last two days, has decreased ten yards. It is not unusual for a decrease to take place gradually, owing to the ground subsidence of land in the neighborhood, but we never remember an instance of so great a change occurring within so brief a period. We account for it from the fact that the land of Dunkirk, which is about a mile distant from the mines, and which has been gradually "settling" during the past few years, is now sunk to the depth of a three-story building a day or two ago. This, we imagine, has altered the position of the strata, and has caused the brine, that formerly flowed towards the sea, in which direction all the working shafts are now situated, to flow more inland. It is calculated that this decrease will take away fully one-half the present supply of salt which comes to Liverpool from that district. Mr. Firth, banker, of Northwich, has a salt mine at Winsford, stopped working yesterday (Friday.) Dunkirk is high land, and it is supposed that the brine being withdrawn by the mines has caused the subsidence. The present export of salt from Liverpool obtained from the district is about 700,000 or 800,000 tons a year, of which about three-fourths goes to the United States."

CARP'S GAIETY.—Re-engagement of Miss Heron.—This distinguished lady artist has been re-engaged at the Gaiety for five nights more, and will per-posonate to-night the part of Mrs. Sheridan Sparks, in the drama of "Vice and Virtue." Miss Katherine will dance one of her favorite dances, and there will be given, besides, the grand spectacle of "Miller and his Men," abounding with startling incidents and grand tableaux.

ST. CHARLES THEATRE.—Mr. Collins, the celebrated Irish comedian, will appear at the St. Charles in the serio-comic drama entitled "Born to Good Luck," and will sing several songs. He also appears in the farce of "How to Pay Rent," after which Young Bowers appears in the farce of "The Two Bonnards." Mr. Collins both sings and plays finely.

FIRE.—About two o'clock yesterday morning a fire broke out in the large four-story building, No. 148 Poydras street, between Camp and Carondelet, occupied as Mr. William Ruby's furniture store. The interior of the building and its contents were entirely destroyed. There was an insurance of $4,000 on the furniture, in the Home Insurance Company. The origin of the fire is not known, further than that it occurred in the basement.

A frame dwelling-house on Goodchildren street, between Desire and and Elmire streets, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night. The premises were owned by Mrs. Lawson and Mrs. Monteith.

SUICIDE TO DEATH.—An inquest was held yesterday on the body of John F. Hoffer, of Pennsylvania, found dead at No. 138 Poydras street, First District. Verdict—"Came to his death from the effects of the above mentioned wound, at the residence of the proprietor, Mr. Hoffer, and David Cowan, who were at the time in a state of intoxication."

SUSPENDED.—Ann and Margaret Toomey have been arrested and are held for examination before Recorder Bouligny for attempting to sell a valuable ring on St. Mary's street, which, it is supposed, was stolen also from Herman Reymerdorf, for having what is supposed to be a stolen Bible, and quilt in his possession.

BRIBERY OR THEFT.—George Mickle was held to answer, by Recorder Fabre yesterday, under bonds of $300 for the sum of $10 in specie, in charge of breach of trust, in not accounting for the same to Mr. Hill of Hill & Co., entrusted to his collection by Mrs. Bradley, of Galatia street.

HARBORING A SLAVE.—André Lazzi was held to bail by Recorder Fabre yesterday, to answer to the charge of having harbored in his house, on St. Philip street, between Bourbon and Dauphine streets, the slave Mazette, runaway from Widow Cavelier.

ONE WRONG NAME.—It seems that the name of the person who made purchases of goods from the very fraudulently on Saturday night, as the latter was not known to him by a person for some of them, is Hank Quigley, and not John Gooding, as was entered on the police records, and reported in the papers. Quigley was arrested on Monday morning, yesterday, and remanded to prison for examination on the charge.

FALSE PRETENCES.—J. O. Reilly, who recently left the city for Mobile, with goods from Mr. Abernethy's store, on Bienville street, was arrested on Saturday night, on the charge of obtaining goods under false pretences, and committed to prison for examination. He was bent for further examination.
