Extraordinary Case of Mosmo THE SCHOOLD STRUTTER—The result of the inquest which we reported in ear last as being first on the body of John Lockwood, of St. Clar. Highly gan, is to the effect of our statement, that the decease of committed "suitcide by abooting himself in the head, while laboring under the effects of manis a point."

A young woman in Galashiels, eighteen years old, was seized, twenty-three weeks ago, with a severe billous fever, which left her very weak and prostrate. Dr. Tweedie resolved to try the effects of memerism. (Chioroform had beach used previously with only partial success.). Accordingly, after some trials, he succeeded in throwing her into the magnetic slumber. The poor gir had previously utilize the completely lost the power of speaking and hearing, and could only make herself understood by writing. Rise then fell into a kind of trance, in which she remained perfectly unconclous for several weeks, except at the will of the mesmeric operator, who gradually began to acquire an extraordinary
